REPORT.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
8th June 1864.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Poor Law Board, beg leave to present to Your Majesty the following Report of our proceedings during the past year.

We desire to submit, in the first instance, the following statements showing the condition of pauperism during that period.

The sum of 6,527,036*l.* was expended for the relief of the poor during the year which ended on the 25th of March 1863, being an increase of 449,511*l.* as compared with the sum expended during the preceding year.

The following Table shows the comparison of the expenditure of the years 1861–62 and 1862–63 :—

Years ended Lady-day.	Expended for Relief of the Poor in England and Wales.	Increase in 1863, as compared with 1862.	Increase per Cent.	Rate per Head on Population.	Increased Rate per Head.
1863	6,527,036			6 4½

Note.—The Summary of the Poor Rate Return inserted in the Appendix (pp. 120 et seq.) sets forth the expenditure, the total of which is shown in the above Table, more in detail. This expenditure comprises, "in-maintenance," column (a); "out-relief," column (b); "maintenance of lunatics in asylums or licensed houses," column (c); "workhouse loan repaid, and interest thereon," column (d); "salaries and rations of officers," column (e); "other expenses of or immediately connected with relief," column (f). The "other expenses" comprehend the cost incurred for emigration, for extra medical relief and fees, and for the burial of paupers, &c.

Increase of Relief in the Cotton Manufacturing Districts.

The large increase which the Table exhibits is attributable solely to the distress which has unfortunately prevailed during the year in the cotton manufacturing unions of Lancashire and the contiguous districts.

The following statement will show how completely this increase of destitution and expenditure in relief is attributable to those unions alone. The first line exhibits the amount of relief throughout the whole of the kingdom, the sums expended from the poor rates in the distressed unions having been deducted; the second line, the relief of the twenty-seven unions in which the distress has prevailed.

Estimate of the Pauperism of England and Wales.

The persons in receipt of relief in certain parishes incorporated under Gilbert's Act, or in single parishes still under 43d Elizabeth, (the population of such parishes being about 200,000,) are not included in the summaries given in this and the preceding page, no returns having been received from them.

We have, therefore, made an estimate of the number of paupers in the places not included in the above summaries; and for the purpose of showing the average number at one time during each year, we have taken the mean of the numbers in receipt of relief on the 1st of July and the 1st of January respectively.

Estimated Pauperism of England and Wales.

The result of this estimate for each year from 1849 (being the first year for which it can be given) to 1863 appears in the following Table, which may be taken as exhibiting the pauperism of England and Wales.

Insane Paupers, 1st January 1863.

We have caused the lists of lunatics, idiots, and other persons of unsound mind, chargeable to the poor rates on the 1st January 1863, to be tabulated.

It appears from these returns that in 660* unions and single parishes under Boards of Guardians, there were 36,158 insane paupers, of whom 23,032 were lunatics and 13,126 idiots. The number of paupers, inclusive of the insane, was on the same day 1,142,624.†

In regard to the sexes of the insane paupers, it will be seen that 15,790 were males, and 20,368 females.

Insane Paupers.	Males.	Females.	Total.
Lunatics - -	9,828	13,204	23,032
Idiots - -	5,962	7,164	13,126

These paupers were maintained in the following establishments ; viz.—

19,127 in County or Borough Lunatic Asylums.
1,418 in Registered Hospitals, or in Licensed Houses.
9,208 in Union or Parish Workhouses.
973 in Lodgings, or Boarded Out.
5,432 resided with their Relatives.

The number of Insane Paupers in each Union-County is set forth, with other particulars, in the Appendix at pp. 320 et seq.

Cotton Manufacturing Districts.

year ended at Lady-day 1863 exceeds that of the previous year, the increase is solely attributable to the continued distress in the cotton manufacturing districts; and that as regards the rest of the country an actual decrease has taken place. It is no less satisfactory to observe that in the Unions of Lancashire and the neighbouring counties, in which the cotton manufacture prevails, a steady decline in the number of paupers and the amount of weekly relief has occurred in the past year, with the exception of a few weeks in the winter, when there was a partial and temporary increase. This is shown by the Table which is contained in the Appendix, p. 326, giving the variation in the number of paupers relieved in the last week of each month of the year. It will thus be seen that the hope expressed in our last report has been in a great measure realized, and that either by the improvement in the cotton trade itself, or by the absorption into other occupations of the labouring population, the number of persons out of work has been materially diminished. This diminution has been going on steadily since the close of the period to which the present returns are made up, and if it proceeds at the same rate the excess in the number of persons in receipt of relief, over the ordinary number, will shortly have ceased. We have, however, deemed it expedient to retain Mr. Farnall as our special commissioner for the cotton manufacturing districts; and copies of his Reports to the President of the Poor Law Board will be found in the Appendix. It is a matter of congratulation that so severe and anxious a crisis has passed over without, comparatively speaking, any great suffering on the part of the poor, or any great pressure on the part of the ratepayers.

Legislation in reference to the Districts,—

The following measures were passed in the last Session of Parliament, with the object of affording assistance to the distressed districts:—

26 & 27 Vict. cc. 4. and 91.

1. The 26 & 27 Vict. cc. 4. and 91., by which the Act of the previous Session (25 & 26 Vict. c. 110.) "to enable Boards of Guar- "dians of certain Unions to obtain temporary aid to meet extra- "ordinary demands for relief therein," was renewed with some modifications. By the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 4. the provisions of the 25 & 26 Vict. c. 110. were extended to the expenditure for the quarters ending at Lady-day and Midsummer, and by the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 91. to those ending at Michaelmas and Christmas 1863; but the power of obtaining a rate-in-aid from other Unions in the same county was limited by the latter Act to cases in which the expenditure had risen to 6*s.* 6*d.* in the pound on the rateable value, instead of 5*s.* as prescribed by the original Act.

26 & 27 Vict. c. 70.

2. The Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863 (26 & 27 Vict. c. 70.), intituled "An Act to facilitate the execu- "tion of public works in certain manufacturing districts; to "authorize for that purpose advances of public money to a limited "amount upon security of local rates; and to shorten the period

" for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, in certain " cases."

Loans sanctioned for Public Works.

Under the former of these Acts (26 & 27 Vict. c. 70.), in addition to the loans which we had sanctioned for the several Unions specified in our last report (p. 16.), and which amounted to 44,640*l.*, we have issued Orders enabling the under-mentioned Unions to borrow the several sums stated below :

County of Lancaster.

Blackburn Union - - -	£ 5,000
Haslingden do. - - -	2,600
Preston do. - -	28,921
Rochdale do. - - -	5,659

Counties of Lancaster and Chester.

Ashton-under-Lyne Union -	31,328

County of Derby.

Glossop Union - - - -	6,650

Orders for Contributions under 25 & 26 Vict. c. 110.

We have also issued orders under section 4. of the 25 & 26 Vict. c. 110. and the corresponding sections of the subsequent Acts, for the payment of contributions from the several Unions in the same counties, to the—

Ashton-under-Lyne Union, for -	£ 7,000	18	8
Preston - - „ -	10,844	0	0

One only of these Unions has been, since the passing of the Act of 26 & 27 Vict. c. 91., in a position to obtain such an order, namely, the Glossop Union, for 509*l.*, which sum is included in the total amount above stated.

Employment of able-bodied Men in the distressed Districts on Public Works.

Under the powers granted by these Acts, in addition to the ordinary provisions of the law, there was no reason to doubt that ample funds would be raised to meet the pressing demands upon the Guardians for the relief of destitution in the distressed districts ; but at the same time it appeared highly desirable that the large bodies of able-bodied men, who had been so long deprived of their usual employment, should not continue to be relieved either in idleness, or on the performance of a task of unremunerative labour, but should rather, if possible, have work at adequate wages placed within their reach which would enable them to obtain an independent livelihood.

It was confidently represented to us, that in many of the manufacturing towns the drainage and sewerage was very imperfect, the water supply deficient or of very bad quality, and the roads in an unfinished or neglected state ; that new streets required to be made ; and that parks were needed for the recreation of the people ; and that in the neighbouring country districts there were some lands requiring to be drained, and others lying waste, which might be reclaimed and brought into cultivation. It was obvious that the execution of these works would not only afford employment to the distressed operatives, but prove a lasting benefit to the inhabitants generally. With the view of ascertaining with greater certainty the precise nature and extent of the works required in each locality, we made application to the Secretary of State for the Home Department to allow one of the inspectors from the Local Government Act Office to be sent down to inquire into the matters referred to, and report to us thereon. In compliance with that application, Mr. Rawlinson, C.E., was instructed to visit the principal towns in the manufacturing districts; and the result of his inquiries fully corroborated the representations which had been previously made to us.

Concurrently with Mr. Rawlinson's visit, circulars were addressed from the Home Office, by direction of Secretary Sir George Grey, to the towns and other largely populated places in the district, drawing attention to the powers conferred by the Local Government Act, 1858, for the execution of works of local improvement, and for raising the money required for them. Copies of these circulars will be found in the Appendix, p. 39.

Obstacles in the way of undertaking Public Works.

It soon became evident to us, both from the reports of Mr. Rawlinson and a careful consideration of the local Acts in force in the principal towns of the district, that the obstacles to commencing the suggested works were of two kinds; viz., 1. Financial; 2. Legal.

The financial difficulty consisted in the impossibility of obtaining loans at a low rate of interest.

The legal difficulties arose chiefly from the following circumstances; viz.,

1. That in some of the towns under the Local Government Act and in other towns under local Acts the borrowing powers were exhausted.

2. That powers were required for the execution of additional works as well as for the execution of works partly of a public and partly of a private character.

3. That the local authorities were not authorized to undertake works of private improvement for landowners in the neighbourhood.

4. That the length of the period required for the entire or partial adoption of the Local Government Act prevented works from being promptly commenced.

5. That Boards of Guardians, as the local authority under the Nuisance Removal Acts, possessed but very limited powers for the execution of works of sanitary improvement, and were not authorized to borrow money for that purpose.

The difficulties met by the Act, 26 & 27 Vict. c. 70.

In order to meet the difficulties which have been enumerated, a Bill, prepared after several conferences with the Public Works Loan Commissioners, who rendered us very prompt and valuable assistance in framing some of its provisions, was introduced on the 8th of June, and received the Royal Assent on the 21st of July following.

By this measure (the 26th and 27th Vict. c. 70.), already referred to, a sum of 1,200,000*l.* was placed at the disposal of the Public Works Loan Commissioners, which, in addition to certain other monies under their control, they were empowered to advance to the various local authorities in the distressed district to which the Union Relief Aid Acts apply, to enable them to execute such permanent works of the nature specified in the Act as might be approved and sanctioned by the Poor Law Board.

The Act likewise contained important provisions for abridging very considerably the time requisite for the adoption of the Local Government Act.

Minute of the Poor Law Board on the Provisions of the above Act.

Upon the passing of this Act we prepared and circulated a minute containing full information with respect to its provisions and the mode of proceeding under it, a copy of which is also inserted in the Appendix, p. 23.

Appointment of Mr. Rawlinson as Inspecting Engineer.

Shortly after the issue of this minute, and in accordance with its instructions, applications were made to us for our sanction to the execution of various works, accompanied by plans, specifications, and estimates. These were immediately submitted to Mr. Rawlinson, who, upon our application, was appointed by Secretary Sir George Grey, under section 6. of the Act, as the inspecting engineer for the proposed works. When, on receipt of his report, we were satisfied that the circumstances of the case rendered the loan expedient, and that all the conditions of the Public Works Act had been complied with on the part of the local authorities, we immediately issued an Order empowering them to borrow the sum required for carrying the works into execution.

Payment of Loans by Instalments.

In those cases where the amount was considerable we have deemed it expedient to exercise the power vested in us by the 5th section of the Act of ordering the advance of the loan by instalments; and before a second instalment has been advanced we have in every instance been satisfied by the report of the inspecting engineer that the works were being proceeded with in conformity with the plan proposed.

Results of the adoption of the Provisions of the above Act.

A statement has been prepared, and is inserted in the Appendix, p. 59 et seq., showing the names of the places from which applications for loans have been received, the amount of the loans, and the purposes to which they are intended to be applied. We also insert in the Appendix copies of Mr. Rawlinson's Reports as to the progress and result of the proceedings under the Act. It will be observed from the last of those reports that nearly the whole sum which the Public Works Loan Commissioners were enabled to advance for the purposes of the Act has been applied for, and the loans authorized; and that a great number of highly useful and important works are in progress in various parts of the district, and a large number of labourers employed upon them, the great majority of the persons so employed being factory operatives.

With respect to the extent of some of the works, Mr. Rawlinson reports that the total length of sewerage works is 129 miles, and of paving and street works 145 miles; and it is satisfactory to find that the health of the men has not only improved, but that their previous mode of life does not incapacitate them for another and very different mode of getting their livelihood.

We learn from Mr. Rawlinson that where the experiment has been fully and fairly tried, as in Wigan, Blackburn, Oldham, and Bolton, there are gangs of operatives executing sewerage works almost alone; and in forming streets and paving, far more of such men are found capable of employment than he anticipated. He also reports that in Blackburn the operatives execute sewer trenching in stiff clay, and even in rock to some extent.

In addition to the benefit derived by the operatives themselves, it must be borne in mind that very considerable advantages are conferred upon the district generally by the circulation of the sum weekly paid in wages to the whole of the labourers employed.

The objects, therefore, with which the Act was passed, appear to have been to a great extent realized; and we trust that, in addition to the direct benefits of the measure, incidental advantages have been conferred on the district, and that many sanitary and social improvements may have their origin in the crisis through which it has passed.

Destitute Vagrants and Wayfarers in the Metropolis.

Our attention was specially drawn in the course of the last year to the question of the relief of destitute vagrants and wayfarers in the metropolitan district. After obtaining returns as to the accommodation provided for this class of poor in the metropolitan workhouses, we prepared and issued to the Guardians of the several Unions and Parishes in the district a minute on the subject, pointing out the requirements of the existing law, and the best means of discharging the obligations which it imposes. A copy of this minute is inserted in the Appendix, p. 31.

Decision of the Court of Queen's Bench in the case of the Queen v. The Guardians of the Macclesfield Union.

We adverted in our last report to some legal proceedings which had been taken and which were then pending in the Court of Queen's Bench to solve certain doubts relative to the construction of the Act of the 25 & 26 Vict. c. 100., as applicable to the Ashton-under-Lyne Union. The case came on before the Court in the Easter Term of this year upon a return to a mandamus to enforce an order of contribution made in favour of the Ashton-under-Lyne Union upon the Guardians of the Macclesfield Union (amongst others), and the Court held the Order to be valid as against that Union.

Education of pauper children.

A statement will be found in the Appendix (p. 336), showing the daily average number of children attending Workhouse Schools in England and Wales, as well as the number attending District Schools, during the half year ended at Lady-day 1863; and also the amount of money paid, from the Parliamentary Grant, in respect of the salaries of the schoolmasters and schoolmistresses for the year ended at the same period. The following is a summary of this statement:—

In the course of the last year an arrangement has been made, at the desire of the Committee of Council for Education, for placing under the Poor Law Board exclusively the superintendence and examination of the workhouse and district shools; and the services of such of Her Majesty's inspectors of schools as have hitherto performed the duty of visiting and reporting upon the workhouse and district schools, and the qualifications of the teachers in such schools, have accordingly been transferred to this department.

The principles upon which pauper education has been hitherto conducted will be in no manner affected or varied by the transfer in question; and it will continue to be our earnest desire to provide that as sound and useful an education as practicable shall be imparted to all such children as are dependent upon the poor rates for their maintenance and instruction.

Vaccination.

A summary of the returns received from the several unions and parishes in England and Wales of the number of persons vaccinated by the public vaccinators during the year ended at Michaelmas last is given in the Appendix, p. 370. This summary shows the number of persons vaccinated during the present year to have been 658,909, being an increase upon the number vaccinated last year of 216,514. The summary also shows that the number of cases in which the vaccination has been successful is 646,464, which is an increase of 208,771 upon the number successsully vaccinated in 1862. The births during the year in the several Unions were 720,660, being an increase of 18,479 upon last year.

Poor Rate Assessment.

We referred in our last Report to the reports which we had received under the provisions of the 25 & 26 Vict. c. 103. s. 12. from the several Unions, showing the proceedings which had been taken by the Assessment Committees in carrying the Act into effect. An abstract of these reports has since been presented to the House of Commons (Sessional Paper, 1863, No. 540.), and we refer to that Return for the full details of those proceedings. Since the date of the Return much further progress has been made, and the revision of the valuation lists has now been completed in a large majority of the Unions. We trust that in the course of the present year the work will be brought to a conclusion in those Unions in which the proceedings have been delayed by the necessity of new valuations being made by professional valuers, or in some cases by the extent and variety of the property liable to assessment; and that the labour which the Guardians have bestowed upon this important subject will result in the Assessment of the rateable property throughout the country on a fair and uniform basis.

We have been much consulted on the subject of this Act, and the proper mode of carrying its provisions into execution, and have given such advice as appeared to us to be in accordance with the terms of the statute and the intentions of the legislature. In the Appendix will appear a copy of a letter which we addressed to the Committees upon one particular subject, and also of that in which we recommended a form for the annual report which the Guardians are required to render to this Board of the progress of the past year.

New Workhouses.

We insert in the Appendix, p. 361, a list of the orders which we have issued during the past year for the erection of new workhouses, or for the enlargement and improvement of existing workhouses, according to plans which we have approved under our seal.

Certified Schools.

We also insert in the Appendix, p. 359, a statement containing the particulars of the schools which during the past year we have certified, under the provisions of 25 & 26 Vict. c. 43., as fit for the reception of such children or persons as may, under a contract with the managers, be sent to them by the Guardians. This statement is in continuation of that contained in our previous report.

Emigration.

The usual statement as to the emigration which has taken place during the past year at the expense of the poor rates is given in the Appendix, p. 360. The total number of emigrants is only 74.

Amendment of Lunacy Act.

We referred in our last report to the Act passed in the previous session of parliament, 25 & 26 Vict. c. 111., "to amend the law relating to lunatics." By section 8 of that Act it was rendered lawful for the visitors of any asylum, and the Guardians of any Parish or Union within the district for which the asylum had been provided, to make arrangements for the reception and care of a limited number of chronic lunatics in the workhouse of such Parish or Union. Some doubt, however, arose whether under that section it would be lawful to receive into any such workhouse the lunatic paupers of any other Union or Parish than that to which the workhouse belonged. This doubt has been solved by the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 110., which declares that the term "chronic lunatics" in the 8th section of the previous Act includes chronic lunatics chargeable to other Parishes or Unions as well as to the Parish or Union to which the workhouse belongs. Since the passing of the Act the subject of the provisions of section 8 of 25 & 26 Vict. c. 111., as so amended, has been under the consideration of the Commissioners in Lunacy; and we insert in the Appendix, p. 38, a copy of a communication which we have received from them, containing the regulations for carrying these provisions into effect, in a Minute dated November 1863. It will be observed that the Commissioners have thought it right to require that the applications for their assent to arrangements being entered into under the Acts referred to between the visitors of an asylum and the Guardians of a Union or Parish shall be made by the visitors of the asylum, and that no such application received directly from a Board of Guardians can be entertained. The Commissioners have also laid down certain regulations as to the size of the wards and the management and superintendence of their inmates, for the particulars of which we refer to the Minute itself.

Removal of Irish Poor.

An Act having been passed in the last session of parliament "for the further amendment of the law relating to the removal of poor persons, natives of Ireland, from England," 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89., we thought it desirable to bring under the notice of the Guardians the present state of the law as regards the removal of Irish paupers from England. We therefore prepared and issued to the different Boards of Guardians a circular on the subject, dated 5th November 1863. We refer to that circular, a copy of which is contained in the Appendix, p. 35, as giving a summary of the present law as regards Irish Removals.

Norwich Local Act.

A local Act was passed in the last session of parliament (26 & 27 Vict. c. 93.), intituled "An Act for making better provision for the management and relief of the poor in the city of Norwich and county of the same city." The city of Norwich had been incorporated for the relief of the poor out of one common rate for a long period under a local Act, but the constitution of the governing body and some other provisions of their local Act were unsatisfactory to the inhabitants, and it was with general consent repealed. By the new Act a union of the parishes was constituted, but, as previously, the relief of the poor is provided for out of a common rate laid equally over all the parishes in the city. It is also provided that, subject to some exceptions, the general Poor Law shall apply to and be in force in the Union; and it directs the election of a Board of Guardians for the execution of the Act, incorporated under the title of the Guardians of the Poor of the Norwich Incorporation. Since the passing of this Act we have issued an Order, in pursuance of its provisions, directing the mode in which the first and subsequent elections of Guardians should take place; and a Board of Guardians has been elected according to such Order, and has assumed the administration of relief and the execution of the other provisions of the Act; and we have subsequently issued a Consolidated Order to the Guardians for their guidance.

Continuance of the Poor Law Board.

The only other Act to which we have occasion to refer is the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 55., "An Act to continue the Poor Law Board "for a limited period." The previous Act continued to the Poor Law Board the authority to exercise the functions and powers intrusted to them by parliament only until the 23rd July 1863. It therefore became necessary to renew that Act; and as the select committee of the House of Commons, which had sat for three sessions to inquire into the administration of the relief of the poor, under the orders, rules, and regulations issued by the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the provisions of the Poor Law Amendment Act, and into the operation of the laws relating to the relief of the poor, had not made a general report on the subjects submitted to them, it appeared advisable that, pending that report, the continuance of the Poor Law Board should be authorized for a limited period only. The Act referred to was therefore passed in the last session, continuing the powers of the Poor Law Board until the 23rd of July 1864, and to the end of the next session of parliament. In the present session the committee referred to was re-appointed, and having considered and agreed upon their report have presented it to the House of Commons. A copy of the resolutions adopted by the Committee and embodied in their report, is inserted in the Appendix, p. 107.

Report of the Select Committee on Poor Relief.

All which we humbly present to Your Majesty.

C. P. VILLIERS,

President.

APPENDIX.

No. 1.

PUBLIC WORKS (MANUFACTURING DISTRICTS) ACT, 1863, 26 & 27 Vict. c. 70.—MINUTE of INFORMATION with respect to the PROVISIONS of the ACT and the MODE of PROCEEDING under it.

AMOUNT AUTHORIZED TO BE ADVANCED.

By the Act a sum of 1,200,000*l.* has been placed at the disposal of the Public Works Loan Commissioners for the purpose of advances to enable Local Authorities in certain Manufacturing Districts to provide employment for the distressed operatives by the execution of works of public utility and sanitary improvement.

In addition to this sum the Commissioners are authorized to make advances for the same purpose out of any other monies at their disposal, and it is understood that the aggregate amount which the Commissioners are enabled to lend is 1,500,000*l.*

LOCAL AUTHORITIES WHO MAY BORROW.

1. Local Boards acting under the Local Government Act.
2. Local Authorities invested with powers of town government and rating under any Local Act.
3. Commissioners or bodies of persons or other authority having power to levy rates for general or special purposes.
4. Boards of Guardians.

CONDITIONS OF LOANS.

1. The amount is not to exceed one year's rateable value of the property assessable within the district or place in respect of which the loan is made.

2. The interest will be at the rate of 3*l.* 10*s.* per cent.

3. The loan shall be repaid by such number of equal annual instalments, not exceeding thirty, as the Poor Law Board shall direct; and that Board may authorize the postponement of the payment of all or either of the first three instalments for a period not exceeding two years.

4. The repayment of the loan with the interest is to be secured by a mortgage of the rates leviable by the Local Board or Local Authority; and, in the case of Guardians, upon the security of the Poor Rates.

5. Every loan must be made under the authority of an order of the Poor Law Board.

6. The money is to be advanced in such instalments as the Poor Law Board shall direct, and the payment of any instalment may be postponed or withheld if the works are not being proceeded with in conformity with the plan proposed.

7. No part of the money borrowed can be applied in paying off any pre-existing debt or charge except what may be due in respect of the work for which it is borrowed.

WORKS WHICH MAY BE EXECUTED.

(1. By Local Boards under the Local Government Act.)

Local Boards, under the Local Government Act, may, in addition to the works authorized by that Act, execute the following works;—

They may acquire, drain, lay out, plant, or otherwise improve any common or other lands used or intended to be used as places of public recreation.

They may construct, improve, or enlarge any reservoir for water supply, and lay down or extend the requisite pipes for that purpose.

They may widen, deepen, cleanse, embank, straighten, or otherwise improve any river, stream, or brook.

The Local Board are empowered to enter into any agreement respecting the execution of any such works or the apportionment of the cost thereof with any person or authority interested therein, or in any property adjoining thereto, or likely to be beneficially or otherwise affected thereby.

In order to prevent interference with any public, proprietary, or private rights, such as exist in rivers, navigation, and waterworks, without consent, the power to execute the works already specified is conferred upon the Local Board subject to the restrictive and saving provisions contained in the Local Government Act so far as those provisions are applicable to any such works. (See 21 & 22 Vict. c. 98. ss. 68, 69, 73.)

Local Boards are also authorized to agree with landowners to make roads, or execute any work of drainage or of private improvement on property in, adjoining or near their district. The work must be done at the expense of the owner, who may be allowed to repay the amount by not less than thirty equal annual instalments, with interest at not less than 3*l.* 10*s.* per cent.

Owners having a limited estate only are empowered to charge the inheritance of the property with the amount expended, upon the certificate of an engineer, appointed in the manner provided by the Act, that the works will effect such a permanent increase in the yearly value of the lands to be charged as will render the outlay beneficial to the inheritance.

(2. By Local Authorities under Local Acts.)

The same powers which are given to Local Boards under the Local Government Act with respect to providing and laying out places of public recreation, the construction and improvement of reservoirs for water supply, and the widening, deepening, cleansing, and embanking rivers, are conferred upon Authorities acting under Local Acts, who are likewise authorized to execute private improvements by agreement with owners of property, upon the terms and subject to the conditions already mentioned.

If the powers conferred by the Local Act for the execution of works and other purposes are not so extensive as those contained in the Local Government Act, the Local Authority may, by resolution passed at a meeting after seven days' notice, instead of waiting for the expiration of fourteen days after notice has been given as required by the Local Government Act, adopt such part or parts of that Act as may be necessary to confer the additional powers required; and immediately upon such resolution being forwarded to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the part or parts of the Act named in the resolution will become in force as effectually as if the same had been enacted in the Local Act. If the powers adopted are repugnant to, or inconsistent with the provisions of the Local Act, the Local Authority is required to proceed under the Local Government Act; but if such powers have the effect of accomplishing the same object as the provisions of the Local Act, but in a different mode only, the Local Authority may proceed under either Act, at their discretion.

(3. By Boards of Guardians.)

The public works which Guardians are authorized to execute, and the course of proceeding with reference thereto, are clearly set forth in the following extract from the Act:—

"If the Guardians of any union, parish, or township should, at a meeting held after special notice in writing sent to every elected and ex-officio Guardian of the Union, determine that it would contribute to the health or convenience of the inhabitants of any place for which such Guardians are the local authority for executing the powers of the Nuisances Removal Acts," (see 23 & 24 Vict. c. 77.) "that any of the following works should be executed, viz.;

"That any pond, pool, open ditch, sewer, or drain should be drained, cleansed, covered, or filled up;

"That any highway or public road or footpath should be made, levelled, or improved;

"That any river, stream, or brook should be widened, deepened, cleansed, embanked, straightened, or otherwise improved;

"That a sewer or drain should be made or improved;

"That a well should be dug;

"That a reservoir for water supply should be constructed, improved, or enlarged, or the requisite pipes connected with any reservoir for water supply be laid down, improved, or extended;

"That any common or other lands used or intended to be used as places of public recreation should be drained, laid out, planted, or otherwise improved; or

"That any other work of public utility or sanitary improvement should be executed;

such Guardians may procure a plan of such works, and an estimate of the cost thereof, and lay the same before the Poor Law Board, who, upon being satisfied that such works may be properly undertaken and executed, may, by an order, authorize the Guardians to borrow, and thereupon the Public Works Loan Commissioners may lend to the Guardians, subject and according to the provisions herein-before contained, such money as the Poor Law Board may consider necessary for the works so approved, the repayment of such money, with interest at the rate aforesaid, to be secured by the Guardians, by a mortgage of or charge upon the rates raised or to be raised in manner herein-after mentioned; the Guardians shall cause such works to be executed, subject to the restrictive and saving clauses and provisions contained in the Local Government Act, 1858, so far as the same are applicable to the execution of any such works, paying the cost thereof out of the money so borrowed, with power nevertheless, if they think fit, from time to time to appoint a Committee or Committees of their own body, of which Committee the elected Guardian or Guardians of any such place and the Justices of the peace resident therein shall ex officio be members, if not otherwise elected, to act in and for one or more of the places for which the Guardians are the Local Authority; and every Committee so appointed shall have the full power to direct and superintend the execution of such works within the specified place or places for which the Committee is appointed."

It is very desirable that Guardians should exercise the power, with which they are invested, of appointing a Committee to direct and superintend the execution of the works to be undertaken, inasmuch as such an arrangement is calculated to prevent any interference with the ordinary duties of their Board.

The instalments of principal in repayment of loans to Guardians, with the interest, are to be charged to the parishes or townships for which the works are undertaken, and must be contributed by the Overseers in the same manner as the other claims of the Guardians upon them.

When the works are undertaken for two or more parishes or townships the instalments and interest must be apportioned by the Guardians between such places, in proportion to the estimate of the cost of the works undertaken therein respectively.

When the works are undertaken for a place for part only of which the Guardians are the Local Authority, the remaining part being within the district of another authority, the instalments and the interest must, in like manner, be contributed by the overseers upon the order of the Guardians; but the overseers are required to raise the amount by a rate upon all the rateable property within that part of such place within which the Guardians are the Local Authority.

Guardians are also empowered to agree, in the same manner as Local Boards, with the owners of property for the execution of the private improvements above referred to, with the distinction, however, that no such agreement can be made without the concurrence of the Poor Law Board.

Abridgment of the Period for the Adoption of the Local Government Act.

In order to facilitate the adoption of the Local Government Act, under which places with a population of three thousand may obtain powers for their own government and improvement without having recourse to Parliament, the period required for the preliminary notices has been considerably abridged.

A week's notice of the meeting for the adoption of the Act by Town Councils and Authorities under Local Acts has been substituted for the month's notice previously required.

Petitions against the adoption of the Act must be presented to the Secretary of State within fourteen days instead of within six weeks after the passing of the resolution for its adoption, as provided by the Local Government Act Amendment Act, 1863, and notice of the inquiry upon such Petition will be sufficient if given seven days previously thereto. By the Local Government Act fourteen days are required for that purpose.

If there be no appeal, or no division of the district into wards, the Local Government Act will come into operation at the expiration of twenty-one days after the date of the resolution for its adoption, instead of at the expiration of two months as provided by the Act itself.

The provision in the Local Government Act Amendment Act, 1863, which extends the time of appeal, on the ground of alleged invalidity of the vote for adoption, from fourteen days to six weeks, does not apply to cases coming within the operation of the present Act.

Power to abandon the Local Government Act.

Any place adopting the Local Government Act, under the present measure, may, at any subsequent time, abandon the Act by resolution passed in the same manner as a resolution for the adoption of that Act is required to be passed; but the rescinding resolution must be approved by the Secretary of State, and may be appealed against in the same way as a resolution adopting the Act.

All existing contracts, however, will continue in force, and, so far as may be necessary for the enforcement of such contracts, the Local Board and their powers of levying money will be continued.

Mode of Proceeding in regard to the Sewering and Paving of Private Streets.

Some important alterations with reference to the proceedings connected with the execution of private improvement works, under the Local Government Act, are made in the case of works undertaken under the present Act.

The notice to be given to the owner of the premises, in respect of which the works are required, may be served by delivering it to some person on the premises, or if there be no person upon the premises who can be so served, then by fixing the notice upon some conspicuous part of the premises, or advertising the same in one or more of the newspapers circulated in the place.

Specifications and estimates of the works duly certified must be deposited with the plans and sections for inspection; and, where the works affect the property of more than one person, the estimates must show the proposed apportionment of the expense in respect of each property.

Notice of objection may be given in writing, but every person failing to give notice of his objection to the works before the expiration of the period limited by the notice from the Local Board, or Local Authority, for the execution thereof, will be precluded from questioning the validity of any rate or charge made for defraying the expenses of executing such works, except on the ground, that the same have not been executed in conformity with the plan, specification, or estimate.

In case of objection, within the period specified, the Local Board or Local Authority may require the matter to be referred to arbitration, and the result of the arbitration will be final.

Powers for the Purchase of Land.

With the view of further facilitating the execution of the several works contemplated by the Act, by enabling the local and other authorities to acquire lands for that purpose, the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, except so far as they relate to the compulsory taking of lands, are incorporated with it.

Under these provisions the Local Authorities may agree with parties under disability for the purchase of any property which may be required for the purposes of the Act.

Limitation of the Act.

The Act is limited to the area comprised within the counties of Chester, Lancaster, and Derby, being those to which the Union Relief Aid Acts apply, and the Poor Law Board are restricted from making an order for a loan after the 1st of July 1864, except for the completion of works then already begun.

Proceedings preliminary to obtaining a Loan.

In every case plans, specifications, and estimates of the proposed works must, in the first instance, be transmitted to the Poor Law Board.

These should be accompanied with a statement showing the yearly rateable value of the property assessable within the district or place for which the works are proposed to be undertaken.

If it be intended that the money shall be advanced by instalments, the amount of the several instalments should be specified, and the dates upon which they will be required.

The Poor Law Board, upon being satisfied by the report of the inspecting Engineer, to be appointed by the Secretary of State in the manner provided by the Act, that the works may be properly undertaken and executed, and that the circumstances of the district for which the loan is required, in reference to the charge for the relief of the poor, are such as to render the works expedient, and that all the conditions of the Act have been complied with, will proceed to issue their order for the loan; and that order will be sufficient to authorize the Public Works Loan Commissioners to make the advance required.

Concluding Observations.

After the works have been once sanctioned, the arrangement, direction, and execution of them will rest entirely with the Local Authorities, subject only to the power invested in the Public Works Loan Commissioners of postponing or withholding the payment of any instalment of the loan upon the certificate of the Poor Law Board, above adverted to, that the works are not being proceeded with in conformity with the plans approved by them.

It must be borne in mind, that the object of the Act is twofold; viz. (1) to provide remunerative employment for the labouring classes in the distressed districts, and, (2) to improve the sanitary condition of the towns and other localities affected by the existing pressure; and there is every reason to believe that the Local Authorities, who have hitherto been so indefatigable in their efforts to mitigate the distress, will, whether in providing the kind of works to be executed or in selecting the persons to be engaged upon them, second, as far as practicable, the intentions of the Legislature.

President of the Poor Law Board.

No. 2.

Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863.—Instructions and Suggestions to Local Surveyors with respect to Sewers, Drains, and other Works, to be executed under the Powers of "The Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863."

Before a scheme of sewerage is devised, the district should be most carefully examined so as to obtain a correct idea of the drainage area, or the several drainage areas; inquiry should then be made to ascertain how surface water has passed off up to the time of such examination, and with what effects to property. Main sewers and drains need not have sectional capacity equal to the volume of surface flood water over the whole area, but may be adapted to the length of streets, number of houses, surface area of house-yards and roofs, number of street gullies, and volume of water supply.

Sewers and drains, in wet subsoil, should be made to act as land drains.

The following rules are general; but each surveyor must use his own judgment, and make the best arrangements possible, under the circumstances, with each special area, and with the materials at command:—

1. Natural streams should not be arched over to form main sewers.
2. Valley lines and natural streams may be improved, so as to remove more readily surface water and extreme falls of rain.
3. Main sewers need not be of capacity to contain the flood water of the area drained; such flood water may be passed over the surface, in most cases, without causing injury.
4. Main sewers should be laid out in straight lines and true gradients, from point to point, with manholes, and flushing and ventilating arrangements at each principal change of line and gradient. All manholes should be brought up to the surface of the road or street, and should be finished with a cover easily removable for inspection.
5. Duplicate systems of sewers are not required. Drains for storm waters to natural streams in valley lines may be retained, and may be improved.
6. Earthenware pipes make good sewers and drains up to their capacity. Pipes must be truly laid, and securely jointed. In ordinary ground they should be jointed with clay. In sandy ground, special means must be used to prevent sand washing in at the joints.
7. Brick sewers ought to be formed with bricks moulded to the radii.
8. Brick sewers should, in all cases, be set in hydraulic mortar. In no case should any sewer be formed with bricks set dry, to be subsequently grouted.
9. Main sewers may have flood water overflows wherever practicable, to prevent such sewers being choked during thunder storms or heavy rains.
10. Sewers should not join at right angles. Tributary sewers should deliver sewage in the direction of the mainflow.
11. Sewers and drains, at junctions and curves, should have extra fall to compensate for friction.
12. Sewers of unequal sectional diameters should not join with level inverts, but the lesser, or tributary sewer, should have a fall into the main, at least equal to the difference in the sectional diameter.
13. Earthenware pipes of equal diameters should not be joined, but the lesser pipe should be joined on to the greater.
14. House drains should not pass direct from sewers to the inside of houses, but all drains should end at an outside wall, and have means of external ventilation.
15. Sinks and closets should be against external walls, so that the refuse water, or soil, may be discharged into the drain outside the main wall. Down-spouts may be used for ventilation, care being taken that the head of such spout is not near a window.
16. Inlets to all pipe drains should be properly protected.

17. Side junctions should be provided in all sewers and drains. The position should be sketched, and indicated by figures in a book or on a plan. Side junctions should be carefully closed for subsequent use.
18. A record should be kept by the surveyor of the character of the subsoil opened out in each street sewered, or drained.
19. All sewers and drains should be set out true in line and in gradient. All the material used should be sound, and the workmanship should be carefully attended to.
20. "Sight rails" should be put up in each street before the ground is opened out, showing the centre line of each sewer and the depth to the invert.
21. Sewers having steep gradients should have full means for ventilation at the highest points.
22. Tall chimneys may be used with advantage for sewer and drain ventilation, if the owners will allow a connexion to be made.
23. Sewer outlet works should be simple in form, and cheap in construction, so as to remove all solids, sediment, and flocculent matter from the sewage.

It is of the utmost importance to impress upon local surveyors the necessity of care in setting out main sewerage works and house drains with accuracy, in choosing sound materials, and in properly superintending the works during their progress. House drains should be so arranged as to be capable of removing all water, soil, and fluid refuse from yards, roofs, and interiors of houses to the sewers, without any risk of gaseous contamination to such houses.

Street sewers should be capable of conveying all sewage to some common outlet, without retaining sediment in them. All sewers and drains should have arrangements for full ventilation, at such points and in such manner as not to cause any nuisance. Charcoal (as proposed by Dr. John Stenhouse) may be used to filter and disinfect sewage gases, at all manholes and other ventilators.

If the fluid sewage can be applied to land for agricultural uses, means should be provided for effecting this purpose.

Civil Engineer.

No. 3.

PUBLIC WORKS (MANUFACTURING DISTRICTS) ACT, 1863.—INSTRUCTIONS to LOCAL AUTHORITIES.

With respect to Applications for Orders for Loans.

1. A COPY of the resolution to apply for the loan, duly certified by the clerk, must accompany the application.

2. The plans, specifications, and estimates must be forwarded in duplicate, and after the same have been approved, one set will be retained by the Poor Law Board, and the other returned to the local authority.

3. Each plan, section, specification, and estimate should be distinctly headed with the name of the borough, district, union, or place, and authenticated by the signature of the chairman or clerk and the surveyor.

4. If the works proposed to be executed are of different kinds, there should be a separate specification and estimate for each.

5. If the local authority is constituted under a local Act, a copy of the Act must be furnished to the Poor Law Board.

6. If the local authority is constituted under the Public Health Act, 1848, or the Local Government Act, 1858, the title of the Act under which the provisional order was confirmed should be given, and in cases where there has been no such order, a certified copy of the Gazette notice of the adoption of the Local Government Act should be sent with the application, or a reference made to the Gazette in which the notice is published.

7. In the case of works of private improvement under sect. 13. of the Act, the agreement entered into with the landowner, or the draft of it, must be forwarded to the Poor Law Board for their perusal.

With respect to Applications for Orders for further Instalments.

Applications for further instalments must be accompanied by a return, certified by the surveyor in the same form as that in which the original estimate is made out, showing under similar headings the details of the works which have been actually executed. The works must be measured and priced, and the measurements and prices inserted in the return in such a manner as to show the several amounts which make up the whole sum expended.

Poor Law Board,
November, 1863.

No. 4.

DESTITUTE HOUSELESS POOR in the METROPOLIS.—MINUTE of the POOR LAW BOARD.

The Poor Law Board have recently obtained from the several Metropolitan Unions and Parishes returns showing the extent of accommodation provided for destitute vagrants and wayfarers, and the numbers who either received, or who were refused, a night's lodging during the first week of each of the months of January, March, May, and August 1863.

It appears from those returns that, in the aggregate, accommodation is provided in the several Metropolitan Workhouses for 997 such persons.

But the accommodation is very unequally distributed.

In some Unions and Parishes the provision appears to be sufficient; in others, however, it is manifestly inadequate; and the Board have reason to suppose that in the latter cases a serious and unequal burden is, in consequence, cast upon those neighbouring Unions and Parishes which have incurred the expense of providing the requisite wards.

The attention of the Board, as the Guardians are aware, has on several previous occasions been directed to this important subject; and some years ago the Legislature, by the Act 7 & 8 Vict.. c. 101., sanctioned a scheme for erecting district asylums for the reception of the wandering and casual poor of the Metropolis.

Owing to various causes, the chief of which was a want of co-operation on the part of several of the Boards of Guardians, that scheme, after an inquiry by a Committee of the House of Commons, was abandoned.

In 1858 the Poor Law Board, by a circular, again referred to the defects in the mode of administering relief to vagrants and houseless poor in the Metropolitan District, and endeavoured to induce the Boards of Guardians, by united action, to exercise the powers conferred upon them by the statute already referred to.

Since that time the Guardians, in a few instances, have provided additional accommodation, but throughout the district generally the same defects continue to prevail.

The Poor Law Board therefore consider it necessary at this period, when the winter is rapidly approaching, to remind those who are intrusted with the direction and administration of relief, of the nature and extent of the obligations which the law has imposed upon them.

It is a fundamental principle of the Poor Law that every destitute person, without reference to the question of settlement or residence, is primarily entitled to relief where he is actually destitute, and it is the duty of the Guardians to see that all necessary and reasonable arrangements are made for affording to every such person the requisite relief—whether in food, clothing, medical attendance, or lodging.

The meet these requirements, the parochial authorities are empowered to raise all necessary sums by local taxation.

With respect to the vagrant and houseless poor, it is obvious that the kind of relief required, in the night at least, is not so much food and clothing, as lodging.

It is unnecessary to remark, that to provide lodging for every applicant indiscriminately in this vast Metropolis would encourage vagrancy and imposture of the worst description, and perpetuate all those evils which were pointed out by the Board, in their Minute of the 4th of August 1848.

But the obligation upon the Guardians and their officers to afford the requisite relief to all really destitute applicants is, nevertheless, imperative, and cannot be evaded.

The next consideration, therefore, which arises, is with respect to the manner in which relief can be provided with the least liability to abuse.

In every Union, or Parish not comprised in a Union, there should be, either in the workhouse or elsewhere, proper and sufficient wards, according to the special circumstances of the locality, for destitute wayfarers and wanderers, and means, such as the law contemplates and the Poor Law Board have frequently suggested, should be provided with the view of testing the real condition of each applicant.

In Unions and Parishes where the existing wards and workhouse accommodation may be insufficient, the Board consider that it is the duty of the Guardians to make such further arrangements, whether permanent or temporary, as will ensure for every wanderer and wayfarer actually destitute, and applying there for food and shelter, sufficient protection and relief for the night.

The general duties of those Union Officers who are responsible for the actual administration of relief may be briefly explained.

The Master of a Workhouse, or in case of his absence or inability to act the Matron, is required to admit every applicant who may appear to him or her to require relief through any sudden or urgent necessity, although such applicant has not obtained an order of admission either from the Guardians, Relieving Officer, or Overseer.

If the Master and Matron should be both absent from the workhouse or incapable of performing their duties at the same time, it is the duty of the Porter to admit and place in the receiving ward any person who may apply at the workhouse for relief under similar circumstances.

The Board have decided that the Master of a Workhouse within the Metropolitan District may properly admit, under the above regulations, any person who may be brought there by a police constable and described as having been found abroad in a state of destitution, the presumption being that the applicant has been guilty of no offence that would authorize his detention in custody.

It is the duty of the relieving officer also, in every case of sudden or urgent necessity, to relieve every destitute applicant, either by offering admission to the workhouse, or providing, so far as practicable, all such necessaries as may be actually requisite, without reference to the time of application or to the place where the pauper has last slept.

The Board are desirous of impressing upon Boards of Guardians the importance of giving special directions to the Master and Matron of the Workhouse and also to the porter that, whenever the workhouse or vagrant wards are full, they should be extremely careful to inform all applicants for admission of the residence of the relieving officer, in order that the requisite relief may be supplied by him.

Printed tickets with the name and residence of the relieving officer should be provided and delivered in such cases by the master, matron, or porter to every applicant.

If the applications are likely to be very numerous, and to interfere with the ordinary duties of the relieving officer, or to require much attention from him in the night, an assistant relieving officer should be appointed to attend to these cases exclusively.

In several parts of the country arrangements have been made with the police to undertake the duties of assistant relieving officers of vagrants, and the Board are assured that the adoption of this plan has been attended with very beneficial results.

It will be seen from what has been already stated, that under the existing law, if properly and judiciously applied, sufficient arrangements may be made for affording relief to every destitute person without incurring the risk of encouraging vagrancy.

The Poor Law Board having thus pointed out the requirements of the existing law, and the best means of discharging the obligations which it imposes, trust that they may rely upon the Guardians and their officers to give practical effect to this minute.

Sir,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to bring under the notice of the Guardians a Minute of the Board with respect to the mode of administering relief to the destitute casual poor of the Metropolis; and to request that the Guardians will give their careful attention to the subject.

It is important that copies of the Minute should be placed in the hands of the master and porter of the Workhouse, and of the relieving officers, for which purpose a supply is herewith sent.

Destitute and Houseless Poor in the Metropolis. — Circular Letter from the Poor Law Board to the Boards of Guardians in the Metropolis.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,

Sir,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to inform you, that the President of the Board has communicated with the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police, and has brought under his notice the Board's Minute of the 23d ultimo, relative to the destitute houseless poor in the Metropolis, and more particularly, the following sentence in the Circular adverted to, viz. :—"In several parts of the country arrange-"ments have been made with the police to undertake the duties of "assistant relieving officers of vagrants, and the Board are assured "that the adoption of this plan has been attended with very beneficial "results."

I am further directed to inform you, that the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police will be glad to make arrangements to render the services of the police force available for aiding the Union and parochial authorities in supplying immediate relief to the destitute houseless poor in the Metropolis, should the Guardians feel disposed to adopt this system of administering casual relief.

The President considers it very important at the present time that the Guardians should give this subject their immediate consideration and, if requisite, make such arrangements as will secure the valuable service of the Police force in the performance of the duties of assistant relieving officers.

I am, &c.

C. Gilpin,
Secretary.

The Clerk to the Board of Guardians.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to inform the Guardians that an arrangement has recently been made, by which Her Majesty's Inspectors of Poor Law schools have been transferred from the Committee of Council on Education to this department. The certificates to the teachers in those schools will, therefore, in future be issued by this Board.

The certificates for the current parochial year will be issued as soon as practicable.

No. 8.

REMOVAL OF IRISH POOR.—CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS OF GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to bring under the notice of the Guardians the present state of the law as regards the removal of Irish paupers from England.

The statutes which now apply to this subject are the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 117., 10 & 11 Vict. c. 33., 12 & 13 Vict. c. 103. sect. 3., 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76., and the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89.

If any person born in Ireland not settled in England becomes chargeable to any parish or Union by reason of relief given to himself or herself or to his wife or to any legitimate or bastard child such person, his wife, and any child so chargeable are liable to be removed to Ireland.—8 & 9 Vict. c. 117.

But this general proposition is modified by the provisions contained in the statutes which prevent the removal of paupers who have acquired a status of irremovability, namely, the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66., and the 24 & 25 Vict. c. 55., which apply to Irish as well as other paupers; moreover the justices or magistrate who shall be applied to for the warrant have in every case a discretion as to the granting or refusing it.—8 & 9 Vict. c. 117. sect. 2.

If the Guardians complain of the chargeability to any justice of the peace, he may, if such person do not attend voluntarily, summon him to appear before two justices at a time and place to be named in the summons.—(Ib.) But a Guardian, relieving officer, or overseer of any parish or union may take and convey before two justices any such poor person who shall become chargeable to any parish in England, and who he may have reason to believe is liable to be removed under the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 117. without summons or warrant (10 & 11 Vict. c. 33. sect. 1.), and when so doing shall have all the rights, privileges, powers, and immunities of a constable.—Ib. sect. 3.

No application, however, for the warrant of removal shall be heard and determined except by two or more justices in petty sessions assembled, or by a stipendiary magistrate or a Metropolitan police magistrate sitting in his court; which justices or magistrate (as the case may be) shall see such poor person or the person who is the head of the family proposed to be removed, and shall be satisfied that every person who is proposed to be removed by the warrant is in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal.—24 & 25 Vict. c. 76. sect. 1.

The warrant is only to be granted on the application of the relieving officer or other officer of the Guardians of the Union or parish where such poor person shall be chargeable, though, as appears from the form of the warrant in the schedule to the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89. the complaint must be that of the Guardians.

And this warrant is required to contain—

1. The name and reputed age of every person ordered to be removed by virtue of it.
2. The name of the place in Ireland where the justices or magistrate shall find such person to have been born, or to have last resided, for the space of three years.
3. And a statement of such examination having been made as to the state of the health of every person ordered to be removed as provided by the 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76. sect. 1.

It must be addressed to the party applying for the same (i.e., the Guardians of the parish or union) and to the Guardians of the union in Ireland to which the poor person is to be removed, and a copy of it, obtained at the cost of the applicants, must be given to the person, or, where a family is removed, to the head of the family about to be removed by virtue of it.

The form of the warrant set forth in the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89. contains, however, all the allegations which are required to be made.

It will be seen that the pauper is to be sent to the place of his birth or residence in Ireland.

But there are two exceptions—

1. It is provided in the 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76. sect. 2., that in the case of any native of Ireland, who shall have been absent from Ireland less than 12 months, the pauper may, if the Guardians applying for the warrant, and the justices or magistrate issuing it think fit, be removed to any other place, with the pauper's consent.

This proviso will enable the Guardians to remove to some place on the coast, or in the interior of Ireland, as may be found most convenient, those paupers who come over to England for temporary purposes, and, becoming destitute, apply for relief. As there is no compulsion upon the Guardians to adopt this course, they will, doubtless, exercise due caution in these cases.

2. The second provision, which is also contained in the same statute, applies as a supplement to the general enactment. It provides that in any case where the justices or magistrates shall not be able to ascertain upon the evidence before them the place of birth or residence they shall order the pauper to be removed to the port in Ireland which shall, in the judgment of such justices, under the circumstances of the case, be most convenient.

Upon obtaining the warrant the Guardians are required to send a copy of it, by post, to the clerk of the Board of Guardians of the union in Ireland to which such poor person is ordered to be removed. This is to be done forthwith (see note to the form of warrant), i.e. within a reasonable time after it shall have been obtained.

They are also to send a copy of the depositions taken in the case, if the same shall at any time within three months from the date of the warrant be required by any such Board of Guardians, 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76. sect. 3. As no provision is made in regard to the cost they must do so at their own expense, but this will be very trifling.

The warrant must order the removal to be made to the place mentioned therein, as pointed out above, and it must order the persons charged with the execution thereof, that is the Guardians of the union or parish applying for the warrant (see the form) to cause the poor person to be safely conveyed to the place mentioned therein, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of the union which comprises this place. See 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76. sect. 4., 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89. sect. 1.

It will be incumbent therefore for the Guardians to provide for the conveyance of the pauper who is to be removed to the place in Ireland, whether on the coast or in the interior, in such manner as they shall find most practicable and suitable with reference to the age and sex of the persons to be removed. The clause in the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 117., which provided for the regulations of the justices at the quarter sessions has been repealed by the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89. sect. 3.

In the Metropolis, and perhaps in other parts of the country, persons are to be found who have acted as agents for the conveyance of Irish paupers to Ireland, and doubtless arrangements can still be made with such persons for the due execution of the warrants to be in future issued. But where such agents do not exist, or engagements cannot be made with them, the Guardians must make special arrangements by sending a competent and trustworthy person with the pauper to the place of ultimate destination.

To facilitate the removal of these paupers it is enacted that every person to whom any such warrant shall be delivered for the purpose of being carried into execution, shall hold in safe custody every poor person mentioned therein until such person shall have arrived at the place to which he is ordered to be removed, and shall for this purpose have the authority of a constable in every county and place (in England or Ireland) through which he may pass in the due execution of such warrant.—8 & 9 Vict. c. 117. sect. 3., 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89. sect. 2.

On the other hand, any person being employed in the execution of the warrant, who shall wilfully desert any person mentioned therein, before he or she shall have been conveyed to the place of destination, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to a fine not exceeding 10*l.*, or, in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.—26 & 27 Vict. c. 89. sect. 4.

Although, as already observed, the mode of conveyance will rest with the Guardians, who will exercise their discretion in the matter, in one respect the Legislature has interposed a certain restriction thereon, as the 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76. sect. 6. renders it unlawful to remove any woman or child under the age of 14 as a deck passenger from England to Ireland during the period from October 1 to March 31 following, that is, during the winter months; and by 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89. sect. 5., any person violating this provision is rendered liable to a penalty not exceeding 5*l.*, to be recovered on a summary conviction, and as the offence is to be deemed to have been committed at the port where the poor person shall be landed, the prosecution must take place in Ireland.

The statute 8 & 9 Vict. c. 117., contained a clause which provided for an appeal by the Board of Guardians in Ireland, who felt themselves to be aggrieved by the removal, but it proved to be of little avail, and was repealed by the 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76. sect. 7. In the Act of last session, however, another clause has been introduced (sect. 7.), whereby the Poor Law Commissioners in Ireland are authorized, on the application of a Board of Guardians therein, to institute a preliminary inquiry into the circumstances attending the removal of any poor person under such warrant; and after such inquiry, if they see fit, to appeal before the quarter sessions in England against the order of removal; and such appeal will be tried with the like incidents and the like consequences as in the case of an appeal against an order of removal.

For the forms of the warrants substituted for that contained in the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 117. the Board refer the Guardians to the schedules to the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 89., which contain two forms:—one, where the removal is made to the place of birth or residence; the second, where it is made to some other place.

In conclusion, the Board have to add that where the place from which the pauper is removed is comprised in a Union, the removal must be at the expense of such Union.—See 8 & 9 Vict. c. 117. sect. 2.

Such appears to be a summary of the present law on this subject.

I am, &c.

W. G. Lumley,
Assistant Secretary.

The Clerk to the Board of Guardians.

LUNACY ACT, 1862.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS in LUNACY to the POOR LAW BOARD.

Officer of Commissioners in Lunacy,
19, Whitehall Place, S. W.,
3d December 1863.

SIR,

WITH reference to several applications for the consent of the Poor Law Board to arrangements to be made under the 8th section of the Lunacy Acts Amendment Act, 1862, and which have been transmitted by direction of that Board for the opinion of the Commissioners in Lunacy, I am instructed to send, for the information of the Poor Law Board, a copy of a Minute made by this Board respecting all such applications.

I am, &c.
W. Spring Rice,
Secretary.

H. Fleming, Esq.

Minute referred to in the above Letter.

November 1863.

The Board had under further consideration the provisions of the "Lunacy Acts Amendment Act, 1862," s. 8. as explained by the second section of the "Lunacy Acts Amendment Act, 1863," empowering the visitors of any asylum, with the approval of the Commissioners in Lunacy and the President of the Poor Law Board, to make arrangements with the Guardians of any parish or union within the district for which the asylum has been provided for the removal from the asylum to the Workhouse of such parish or union, and the reception and care therein of a limited number of chronic lunatics, chargeable to the same, or any other parish or union.

Resolved as follows:

1. The arrangements authorized are, in the opinion of the Board, intended to meet the deficiency of accommodation in asylums, and to enable visitors, in special cases, to make provision for the immediate reception into the asylums of all recent and probably curable cases. The Legislature clearly did not contemplate the reception into workhouses generally of the chronic patients referred to, and the constitution thereby of a number of small lunatic establishments; but the selection by the visitors of one or more workhouses, in which adequate accommodation, care, and attendance can be ensured. Consequently all applications for the approval of the Commissioners, must originate with visitors of asylums; and no such application received directly from a Board of Guardians can be entertained.

2. Proper rules and regulations, modified according to circumstances, will be required to be prepared and approved. In the meantime the Board consider and determine that the following conditions are (amongst others) indispensable, and will, in all cases, be insisted on, viz.:

(1.) Separate wards properly constructed, arranged, and furnished for the patients of the respective sexes. The dormitories to be distinct from the day-rooms, and the former to afford cubical space per patient of 500 feet, and the latter 400. Single bedrooms to contain at least 600 cubic feet.

Cotton Manufacturing Districts.—Circular from the Local Government Act Office.

Home Office, Whitehall, S.W., 4th May 1863.

Sir,

I am directed by Secretary Sir George Grey to inform you that as the of is included in the list of places suffering under the present stagnation of trade in the Cotton Manufacturing Districts, which has thrown so large a number of operatives out of employment, he thinks it important, after consultation with the President of the Poor Law Board, that the attention of your Board should be called to the powers conferred by the Local Government Act for works of local improvement, and for raising the money required for such works on the security of rates under the Act, to be repaid in terms varying from a maximum of 30 years in ordinary cases to one of 50 years under special circumstances.

The works for which powers are given include,—

1. Sewerage and drainage works ;
2. Works of water supply ;
3. The making of new streets and roads ;
4. The widening, levelling, paving, and improving of existing streets ;
5. Providing and laying out recreation grounds, walks, and parks ; and
6. Providing markets.

Works of land drainage now in progress in some parts of Lancashire show that many of the able-bodied men lately employed in the cotton mills are competent to use the spade and execute earthwork operations in an efficient manner ; and it is for the Local Board to consider whether by employing this description of labour at fair wages they might not, while carrying out improvements needed in their district, lighten the pressure on the ratepayers, and avert from the unemployed the evil consequences inseparable from long dependence on alms or parochial relief.

All applications to the Secretary of State for his sanction to borrow the money required for such improvements as I have enumerated will receive his immediate attention.

An inspector from the Local Government Act Office, viz., Mr. Rawlinson, C.E., has already been sent into Lancashire for the purpose of advising with the authorities in some of the more distressed towns, as to the works which are required there, and which are best adapted for affording employment for the operatives now out of work, and he will be prepared to visit your town or district with that view, if it should be considered necessary or expedient that he should do so.

Cotton Manufacturing Districts. — Circular from the Local Government Act Office.

Home Office, Whitehall, S.W.,

Sir,

I am directed by Secretary Sir George Grey to inform you that having been in communication with the President of the Poor Law Board on the present state of the Cotton Manufacturing Districts, and on the importance of employment being provided for the able-bodied population now thrown out of work there, he thinks it expedient to direct the attention of the authorities of those places in which the Local Government Act, 1858, has not yet been adopted, to the large powers conferred by it for effecting works of public improvement, and for raising the money required for such works on the security of rates under the Act.

A summary of the Act is appended to this Letter.

From this summary it will be seen that the Act can be adopted in a very simple and inexpensive manner.

In boroughs by a vote of the town council.

In towns under improvement commissioners by a resolution of that body.

And in other populous places by resolution at a public meeting of the majority of owners and ratepayers.

The works authorized by the Act include,—

1. Sewerage and drainage works ;
2. Works of water supply ;
3. The making of new streets and roads ;
4. Widening, levelling, and improving existing streets and roads ;
5. Providing and laying out public recreation grounds, walks, and parks ; and
6. Providing markets.

The sum that may be raised for these purposes is, in ordinary cases, one year's assessable value of the rateable property of the district, but under special circumstances it may be increased to double that amount.

In the former class of cases its repayment is distributable over a period of 30, in the latter over one of 50 years.

It is proper to state that although the sanction of the Secretary of State for the Home Department is necessary before any money can be borrowed under the Act, the direction and control of the works rest entirely with the local authority.

An inspector from the Local Government Act Office, viz. Mr. Rawlinson, C.E., has already been sent into Lancashire, for the purpose of advising with the authorities in some of the most distressed places, as to the works which are required in their respective districts, and which appear to be best adapted for affording suitable and profitable employment for the operatives now out of work, and he will be prepared to visit your town or district with that view, if it be considered necessary or desirable that he should do so.

Cotton Manufacturing Districts.—Report of Robert Rawlinson, Esq., C.E., on the Public Works required in the Cotton Manufacturing Districts, and the Employment of the Operatives thereon.

To the Right Honourable C. P. Villiers, M.P., President of the Poor Law Board.

Sir, Manchester, 16th May 1863.

On the 29th April 1863, I received instructions from the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, as under :—

" Sir,

" I have to request that you will forthwith proceed to the cotton manufacturing district, and visit the principal towns situated in it.

" It is desirable that you should communicate with the corporate and other local authorities of these towns, who, I have no doubt, will be disposed to give you every assistance in the prosecution of your inquiries.

" You will then proceed to inspect such towns and their suburbs, and ascertain the character of the drainage ; the quantity and quality of the water supplied ; the condition of the streets ; the provision made for parks or pleasure grounds for the recreation of the inhabitants, and the general sanitary arrangements of each locality.

" You will form your opinion as to what works of utility, profit, or ornament are capable of being executed ; and you will make, as far as possible, an estimate in each case of the cost of such works; you will lay your suggestions upon these points before the local authorities, and explain to them the beneficial results which you believe might be obtained by the execution of these works, both in the improvement of the towns and in the employment of the distressed operatives, at a fair rate of wages, which latter is the immediate and pressing object for which works of this nature are mainly to be undertaken. Your intimate acquaintance with the provisions and working of the Local Government Act, and the Public Health Act, will enable you to explain to the authorities of the towns where those Acts are in operation, the large powers and facilities afforded by them for the execution of works of the character referred to; and you will point out to the authorities of populous places which have not yet adopted these Acts, the advantages which might result from their adoption.

"You will transmit from time to time, reports of your proceedings to the President of the Poor Law Board. In the first instance, it will be sufficient to send to him a statement of the works which, in your opinion, might be immediately begun, reserving minute details for subsequent reports.

"You will also state what assistance you may require in the execution of these instructions, bearing in mind the importance of losing no time in effecting the object for which this duty has been confided to you.

"I am, &c.

"To "(Signed) G. GREY."

Robert Rawlinson, Esq."

On Friday, 1st May 1863, I left London for Manchester, to commence the inquiry intrusted to me.

On Saturday, 2d May, I visited Stockport, and communicated with the town clerk. Subsequently, namely, on Wednesday, 13th inst., I attended a meeting of the Town Council of Stockport, when the questions of works and the beneficial employment of distressed cotton operatives were discussed.

I have since visited and inspected—

1. Ashton-under-Lyne.
2. Blackburn.
3. Dukenfield.
4. Oldham.
5. Glossop.
6. Rochdale.
7. Stockport.

And have either seen or have communicated with the local authorities of the towns and places as under :—

1. Accrington.
2. Burnley.
3. Bolton.
4. Bacup.
5. Chorlton.
6. Criston near Preston.
7. Denton near Manchester.
8. Over Darwen.
9. Wigan.

Ashton-under-Lyne.

Market town and borough.

Population, about - -	35,000
Annual rateable value -	£ 76,000

I saw the mayor and H. Mason, Esq. These gentlemen expressed themselves favourable to the inquiry.

The borough is governed under the powers of a local Act, 12 & 13 Vict. c. 35. Certain sums of money have been borrowed for water-works, for market, and for town hall. There is a local debt as under :—

Waterworks	45,660
Town hall and market	16,720
	£62,380

There is power under the Act to borrow sums of,—

For waterworks	4,340
For other purposes	3,280
	£7,620

The loans have been obtained at 4 per cent.

The waterworks and market pay good dividends.

There are public sewers, and many of the streets are formed and paved. But additional works may, with advantage, be undertaken, viz. :—

	Estimated at £
Main sewerage	5,000
Additional water supply	10,000
Road and street improvements	10,000
Lowering Queen-street and Margaret-street bridge	5,000
Public park	10,000
	£40,000

A new cemetery is also said to be required.

Under the powers of the Local Government Act, which may be adopted, the borrowing powers may go up to double the annual rateable value, or 76,000*l.* × 2 = 152,000*l.* ; and as 62,380*l.* must b deducted, there may be borrowed an additional sum of 89,620*l.*

Blackburn.

The corporation of Blackburn exercise powers under a local Act, 10 & 11 Vict. c. 255., amended by 17 & 18 Vict. c. 183.

Population, 1861	63,125
Annual rateable value	£145,000

The corporation have borrowed and expended on

Improvement account	70,000
Repaid	8,200
Owing	61,800
		61,800
Main sewerage account		46,000
Total debt		£107,800

Under the powers of the Local Government Act the corporation might borrow 145,000*l.* × 2 =	290,000
Deduct existing debt	107,800
Sum which might be borrowed	£182,200

There is in Blackburn a public park of about 50 acres in extent.

A portion of the borough has been sewered. Many streets have been formed and paved; but there is a considerable length of main sewering remaining to be completed, and many streets require to be formed and paved.

Estimate.

	Lineal Yards.
Streets neither sewered nor paved - -	3,310
Streets sewered, but not formed and paved -	3,985
Lineal yards - -	7,295

or 4 miles and 255 yards.

To sewer, form, pave, and complete these streets will cost about 20,000*l.*

Some 12 miles of streets are only partially completed, and about 12 miles of main sewers are required in addition to the work done. A sum of 50,000*l.* may be expended on these streets and sewers, or 70,000*l.* in the whole may be profitably expended in Blackburn on public and on private account.

Dukenfield.

Dukenfield is governed under the powers of the Local Government Act.

Population about - -	16,000
Annual rateable value - -	£35,000
Borrowed for offices, &c. -	£2,000

Main sewers are required. A new cemetery is required. Water is supplied by a company.

It is not in contemplation to undertake any public works in Dukenfield at present.

Oldham.

Population - - -	72,000
Rateable value - - -	£268,000

Local public debt 160,000*l.*, for which there is a paying income.

Under the powers of the Local Government Act, if adopted, the corporation might borrow up to—

268,000 × 2 =	536,000
Less - -	160,000
Or a sum of	£376,000

In Oldham, main sewers are required; street improvements, and a public park. Some 100,000*l.* may be advantageously expended in Oldham, if work required to be done can legally be undertaken at once. The corporation will not, however, at present undertake the whole of such works. If land can be obtained for a public park this would be made at once, and some 500 men may be profitably employed during six months.

Glossop.

There is a population in Glossop of about 12,000, and an annual rateable value of about 52,000*l.*

There is not any form of local government in Glossop other than parish authority.

There is no general system of main sewerage nor drainage.

There is a private water supply.

If a local government existed in Glossop, 20,000*l.* might be profitably employed on main sewers, on roads and streets, and in extending the waterworks.

The adoption of the Local Government Act has, up to this time, been objected to. The Act was, however, framed to enable such places to obtain local power for self-government in the cheapest and best manner.

Rochdale.

I have had an interview with the corporation of Rochdale, but have not had time to obtain details of the works which may be beneficially undertaken.

Population, 1861 - - 38,164

Main sewers are required. Streets and roads may be improved.

The corporation are willing to undertake the formation of a park and recreation grounds if land can be obtained.

Main sewers, streets, roads, and new park would require an expenditure of about 70,000*l.* It appears that the corporation, under an existing Act, can borrow an additional sum of 40,000*l.*

The inquiry was most warmly supported by the corporation. A committee of the town council has been formed, and the borough surveyor will prepare estimates for works forthwith.

Stockport.

The population of Stockport in 1861 was 54,682.

The annual rateable value, 143,227*l.*

The borough of Stockport is governed under the powers of a local Act, 16 Vict. c. 26.

There is a public park at Stockport.

Main sewers require to be completed.

Streets and roads require to be formed, improved, and paved.

The river requires to be cleansed.

The borough surveyor is to make out estimates, and a committee of the town council has been appointed to inquire and report to them as to local improvements of a beneficial character, which may be undertaken with a view to the employing adult factory hands now out of work.

The mayor and town council have taken the question up in earnest. There will be legal and financial difficulties which, however, they will strive to master.

In the several towns of Accrington, Burnley, Bolton, Bacup, Chorlton, Croston, Denton, Over Darwen, and Wigan, works of improvement are required, and will be undertaken if legal and financial difficulties can be removed. So far as I have yet visited and inspected the distressed towns in Lancashire and Cheshire, I find work requiring to be done, able-bodied men out of work, and the local authorities willing to consider the proposition of devising "work for wages" for the willing workers amongst the distressed cotton operatives. Legal power and money are, however, required in many instances.

The Local Government Act offers legal power at no cost; but there has been and now is a prejudice against this Act. Deputations from Oldham and some other places have, however, visited Preston and Wigan to inquire as to the working of the Act, and the replies being satisfactory some of this prejudice has been removed.

Many of the public have entertained the notion that government intended to set out large works, and execute the same independently of the local authorities. I have in all cases explained that all works undertaken must be devised, superintended, executed, and paid for by the several local authorities.

Objections have been taken to the proposed scheme of works, viz. :—

" That a time of general distress is not favourable to large expenditure on local works not directly productive.

" That the cotton operatives out of work cannot, with advantage, execute the proposed works.

" That necessarily a large proportion of the money required must be paid to skilled labour other than distressed cotton operatives, and for materials."

The reply is :—The able-bodied men, now out of work, must either be maintained out of the poor's rates, or by work in the towns. The present system will ruin the men, if persevered in over another year. Relief to able men is ever demoralizing.

The best of the distressed cotton operatives both can and will do a fair day's work for a fair day's wages. This I know by past and by present experience. I have questioned many of the men, and they are willing and anxious to work.

Much of the money required will necessarily be expended on skilled labour and on materials. But within one month after commencing fairly to work the best of the distressed cotton operatives will have become, in a degree, " skilled labourers," in excavating, in trenching, and in street and road forming. There are difficulties to be overcome, but most of these difficulties rest with the local authorities. But a vast amount of useful work may be beneficially undertaken and be executed by the best of the distressed men out of employment.

Large numbers of cotton operatives ought not to be massed.

The labour should be divided, and there should be practical men to lead and to superintend.

Wages should be paid in money, and at short intervals.

Any loss in the work in the first instance will be more than made up to the locality in a saving of the poor's rate.

I have made arrangements for obtaining more detailed estimates of works which may be undertaken in the several towns, and have offered my services to (as far as possible) advise the local surveyor, in each case, as to works.

I will report further so soon as practicable.

I have, &c.

	Totals	433	1,984,955	6,036,659

The distressed towns represent in population about one million five hundred thousand persons, and a net rateable value of about 4,556,722*l.* My experience in town improvement works generally, and my recent inspection and inquiries in the distressed cotton district, lead me to the conclusion that one million and a half sterling may be expended in permanent improvements of a beneficial character, such as main sewerage, drainage, new reservoirs for water supply, forming and completing streets, forming suburban roads, forming parks, recreation grounds, enclosing waste lands, draining lands, cleansing and improving rivers, and other similar works.

There has not been time as yet to have estimates made of the actual works required in each town, but details have been taken out which show the relative value of land, of materials, of skilled and unskilled labour in the several works. The estimates are taken from works actually executed, and may be relied upon as not far from the truth. Each special case will of course ultimately be estimated on its own peculiarities.

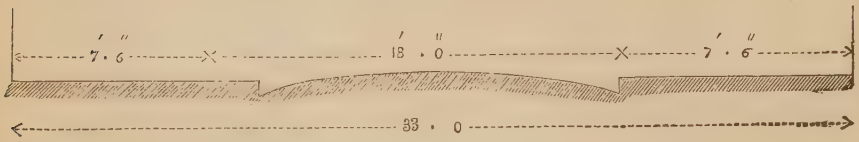
The class of works which will find employment for the largest number of unskilled hands will be levelling waste lands, forming parks and recreation grounds, baring rock for quarrying, forming suburban roads, draining agricultural lands, cleansing and improving rivers, forming reservoirs, and other such works.

The class of works which will require the largest expenditure in material and in skilled labour will be main sewerage, house drainage, forming and paving streets, flagging foot walks, and similar works.

The following details show the relative proportion of the cost of materials, skilled labour, unskilled labour, and "plant" for street forming, with square sets and with boulder pavement, main sewerage works, and reservoir embankments, and for the other works as enumerated.

Street forming, paving, and flagging.

Estimated for streets 33 feet wide as under.



If paved with Angelzark "sets," and the footways flagged with 3-inch Upholland flags, the cost will be as follows :—

	Per lineal yard. £	s.	d.
Materials - -	2	6	8	or	81·9 per cent
Skilled labour -	0	2	11	„	5·1 „
Unskilled labour -	0	4	8	„	8·2 „
Plant and superintendence, &c. -	0	2	9	„	4·8 „
	2	17	0		100·0

If paved with boulders the cost will be about—

	Per lineal yard. £	s.	d.
Materials - -	1	10	8	or	76·6 per cent.
Skilled labour -	0	2	6	„	6·3 „
Unskilled labour -	0	4	2	„	10·4 „
Plant and superintendence, &c. -	0	2	8	„	6·7 „
	2	0	0		100·0

Assuming the sum of 10,000*l.* to be expended in forming and paving streets with Angelzark sets, the money would be laid out as follows :—

Materials - - -	8,187
Skilled labour - - -	512
Unskilled labour - - -	818
Plant and superintendence -	483
	10,000

The sum of 818*l.* expended upon unskilled labour would provide employment for about 25 men for one year at 2*s.* 4*d.* per day, working 285 days.

If the sum of 10,000*l.* be laid out in forming and paving streets with boulders the money would be expended as under :—

Materials - - -	7,666
Skilled labour - - -	625
Unskilled labour - - -	1,042
Plant and superintendence -	667
	10,000

The sum of 1,042*l.* would provide employment for 31 men for one year at 2*s.* 4*d.* per day, working 285 days.

Public Sewerage Works.

The estimated cost of one mile each of ten different sizes of brick and earthenware pipe sewers (being a total length of 10 miles) is 16,000*l.*

Assuming 10,000*l.* to be expended upon works of this character, the money would be laid out as follows :—

Materials and cartage - -	4,794
Skilled labour - - -	1,682
Unskilled labour - - -	2,644
Plant, superintendence, &c. -	880
	10,000

The sum of 2,644*l.* would provide employment for about 80 men for one year at 2*s.* 4*d.* per day, working 285 days.

Reservoir Embankment, and Works in connexion therewith.

If the sum of 10,000*l.* be laid out on works of this character, the amount may be apportioned thus :—

Materials and cartage - -	2,478
Skilled labour - - -	2,137
Unskilled labour - - -	4,274
Plant and superintendence -	1,111
	10,000

The sum of 4,274*l.* will provide employment for 128 men for one year at 2*s.* 4*d.* per day, working 285 days.

Taking the four classes of work specified, and assuming that 10,000*l.* be expended upon each (or 40,000*l.* in all), the amount laid out on unskilled labour, and the number of men employed, will stand thus :—

	Amount paid for unskilled Labour.			Number of Men employed.
Streets formed and paved with sets - -	818	0	0	25
Do. with boulders -	1,042	0	0	31
Sewerage works - - - -	2,644	0	0	80
Reservoir embankments - - -	4,274	0	0	128
	8,778	0	0	264

Assuming the sum of 1,500,000*l.* to be expended upon works such as are set forth in the early part of this report, the amount may be distributed as shown in the following table :—

	Materials, &c.	Skilled Labour.	Unskilled Labour.	Plant and Superintendence.	Total.
	£	£	£	£	£
Main sewers	191,760	67,280	105,760	35,200	400,000
House drains	72,000	25,230	39,660	13,110	150,000
Streets paved with square sets	204,675	12,800	20,500	12,025	250,000
Ditto with boulders	153,320	12,500	20,800	13,380	200,000
Waterworks, reservoirs, &c.	12,390	10,680	21,370	5,560	50,000
Suburban roads	30,000	15,000	100,000	5,000	150,000
Parks and recreation grounds	10,000	20,000	66,666	3,334	100,000
Enclosing waste land	1,000	500	8,000	500	10,000
Cleansing rivers	3,500	5,500	10,000	1,000	20,000
Land drainage	20,000	6,000	30,000	4,000	60,000
Baring rock	Nil.	Nil.	9,000	1,000	10,000
	698,645	175,490	431,756	94,109	1,400,000
Add for land for parks and recreation grounds	-	-	-	-	100,000

The sum of 431,756*l.* would provide employment for 12,984 men for one year at 2*s.* 4*d.* per day, each man working 285 days and earning 33*l.* 15*s.* during the year.

The relief to the towns will be in proportion to the money expended on useful works which finds employment for the men resident in such towns—bricklayers, masons, labourers, and distressed operatives. The money paid in wages will find its way to the small tradesmen, many of whom are now on the verge of ruin in consequence of the stagnation of the cotton trade.

Main sewers, house drains, and street forming and paving, though requiring a large per-centage of the estimate for materials and for skilled labour, will yet prove of full value to the property, and of great advantage to the inhabitants generally. Where towns have increased rapidly, streets remain unsewered, and unformed, and unpaved : the consequences are, great inconvenience, discomfort, and actual loss. There are miles of streets in some of the large towns totally impassable to wheeled vehicles in wet weather.

The rivers flowing through the several towns in Lancashire (and also through the manufacturing towns of other counties) have been up to this time abused.

To deepen, cleanse, and improve such rivers will be a great boon to the inhabitants on their banks, and will also improve the adjoining lands, mills, and house property.

The beds of many of the rivers in the district have been raised by accumulations of refuse, so as to cause injurious flooding, malaria, and disease.

The question of purification of the rivers must sooner or later be taken up locally. Isolated action will not be of much avail. The rivers flowing into and through Manchester are fouled by the several towns and manufactories situate above; as also by refuse from the boroughs of Manchester, Salford, and adjoining townships. Manchester and Salford, in conjunction with the other towns above, by combined action, may form intercepting sewers, and have jurisdiction or powers of conservancy over the rivers so as to restore the waters almost to their original brightness. The utilization of sewage refuse must necessarily be combined with such work; not so much with a view of commercial profit as of increased comfort and health.

The expenditure of so large a sum of money as one and a half million, will apparently only relieve the rates to the extent of 431,756*l.* in the direct employment of distressed operative labour. The actual relief will, however, be to a much greater extent, as all the money paid for skilled labour, and probably fully 75 per cent. of the money paid for materials, will be expended in the district, so that the local rates will be relieved to an extent much larger than the figures 28·8 per cent. on unskilled labour indicate. Stone, gravel, flags, bricks, paving stone, kerbstone, tiles, and similar materials will be provided, and the money paid will to a great extent be expended in the district.

Details showing the cost of main sewage in 10 towns where works have actually been carried out, with the amounts required per annum to pay the interest, and to repay the principal in 30 and 50 years are given in Appendix A.

The objections to the Local Government Act are answered in the letter from the town clerk of the borough of Preston, which is hereto appended (B.)

If the sum of 1,500,000*l.* is borrowed at 3½ per cent., and the interest paid and principal repaid in equal sums annually for periods of 30 and 50 years, the amounts required per annum will be, for a period of 30 years, 81,556*l.* per annum; for a period of 50 years, 63,951*l.* per annum.

Taking the rateable value at 4,556,722*l.*, the rate required to produce 81,556*l.* will be 4¼*d.* in the pound; and to raise the sum of 63,951*l.*, a rate of about 3¼*d.* in the pound will be required.

The advantages of borrowing money for private improvements may be shown as under:—

A cottage having a frontage to a street of five lineal yards, if paved with square sets, will cost a sum of 7*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* for half the street. The owner of such house in a distressed town may not be enabled to pay this sum down; but if allowed to be repaid in 30 years, an annual instalment of about 7*s.* 8*d.* will be sufficient to meet the interest and to repay the capital.

The evidence laid before me clearly established the facts that such works could not be paid for as they were executed in one lump sum; neither can permanent works on a uniform and comprehensive scale be paid for by rates raised during each year to the full extent of the works carried out during such year.

APPENDIX B.

BOROUGH OF PRESTON.

The Public Health Act, 1848, has been in force in Preston since August 1850, and the Local Government Act, 1858, since the passing of the same. The Corporation is the Local Board.

Previously to the introduction of the Public Health Act into Preston the control of the streets and the lighting and cleansing of the town were vested in commissioners under a Private Act passed in 1815. All owners and occupiers of property above certain rentals might act as commissioners, and there was no limit to the number of commissioners.

Such of the powers of the commissioners, as were beneficial and not inconsistent with the Public Health Act, were transferred to the corporation by an Order in Council, which was confirmed by Act of Parliament.

If the Public Health Act had not been adopted, it would have been necessary to have applied to Parliament for an amended Act, as the Act of 1815 was found to be very defective, and not suitable to the altered circumstances of the town; the population had increased from about 19,000 in 1815 to about 68,000 in 1850.

The Public Health Act worked very well; some defects were discovered which were in a great measure remedied by the Local Government Act, 1858: by that Act greater powers are given to Local Boards.

The most valuable provisions of the "Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847," "The Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847," "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," and the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," are incorporated with the Local Government Act, and the powers thereby given are conferred upon Local Boards.

If the Public Health Act and Local Government Act had not been in force in Preston the corporation could not have had the benefit of the above provisions without the expense of an Act of Parliament.

One valuable provision of the Local Government Act is the power given to local authorities to purchase property without the necessity of obtaining a Private Act of Parliament.

We have repeatedly found the advantage of being under the Local Government Act. I may mention that by the Public Health Act money borrowed for sewerage works had to be repaid within 30 years. By the Local Government Act power was given to extend this period to 50 years with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

This sanction has been obtained in Preston without any expense.

By the Preston Waterworks Act, 1853, a sinking fund was to be commenced within seven years from the passing of the Act to repay the money borrowed. It was found necessary not only that this period should be extended, but that the corporation should be enabled to borrow more money on the Waterworks account than was provided for by the Act. The Secretary of State under the powers given to him by the Local Government Act consented to extend the time for repayment of money borrowed, and also allowed the corporation to borrow a further sum of money, and all this has been done without any expense.

If we had not been under the Local Government Act a Private Act of Parliament would have been necessary for these purposes. It may be objected, that we are under the control of government and a centralizing system. From 12 years' experience we have found there is really nothing in these objections. We have carried out all the powers of the Acts of Parliament to a very great extent in repairing our public streets, cleansing the town, constructing a very extensive system of sewerage works through both public and private property, causing nearly all the houses in the town to have house drains, and a sufficient supply of water; sewering, repairing, and making good upwards of 200 private streets; lighting the town; supporting an efficient fire brigade; regulating the tolls of our markets; and in making and enforcing proper regulations in respect to slaughter houses, lodging houses, and street cleansing: and all these have been done without any interference by government.

Under the Local Government Act, Local Boards, with the sanction of a Secretary of State, have powers to borrow an amount not exceeding two years' assessable value of the premises assessable within the district, for the execution of certain works, such amount to be repaid within a period not exceeding 50 years.

By the Public Health Act Commissioners of Public Works may make advances to Local Boards.

We have had no difficulty in obtaining the necessary consent to borrow money. We have shown what works we intended to execute, and consent has been given. Instead of this being objectionable, we have found it advantageous; because upon more than one occasion we have received valuable suggestions and advice from the Engineer of the Local Government Act Office, which have been adopted, and considerable saving has been thereby effected.

Time and experience will discover defects in all systems. If you are under Private Acts of Parliament you can get the defects amended only by another Act of Parliament, which is of course attended with much expense; but if you are under the Public Health Act, you get the advantage of any public measure without expense.

I think more money should be placed at the disposal of the Commissioners of Public Works to make advances to Local Boards at a reasonable rate of interest for the execution of works.

I think the provisions with respect to the repair of private streets should be simplified. Instead of it being necessary to serve notices upon owners and occupiers, it should be sufficient to insert a notice in a public newspaper. We have not had one instance in upwards of 200 streets where the owners or occupiers have ever done the work required. Practically, it is impossible that they can do the work where there are several owners in a street.

(Signed) Robert Ascroft,
Town Clerk and Clerk to the Local Board of Health.

Preston, 28th May 1863.

Town Clerk's Office, Wigan,
29th May 1863.

My dear Sir,

I have perused the letter of Mr. Robert Ascroft, Town Clerk of Preston, of the 28th instant, and concur with the opinions contained therein, inasmuch as our case is almost parallel to his own, except that no portion of our borough has been in the hands of commissioners, and we have had litigation with the owners of property after private improvement work has been executed, and large sums of money expended. In one case of appeal from the justices' decision we had notice in which there were nineteen objections, all of which were purely technical, and not one of them on the merits of the case.

Such a state of things ought not to be allowed, but in case of appeal it should be to the Home Secretary, who should decide the question between the parties upon the merits of the case, as in the 120th section of the Public Health Act, 1848.

Yours truly,
(Signed) C. Hilton,
Town Clerk and Clerk to the Local Board of Health.

Cotton Manufacturing Districts Act.—Report of Robert Rawlinson, Esq., Civil Engineer, to the Right Honourable C. P. Villiers, M.P., President of the Poor Law Board.

Office of Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863, St. Peter's-square, Manchester, 20th January 1864.

Sir,

I beg to report upon the operation and progress of the Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863.

Table I., appended to this Report, shows the boroughs, townships, and district which have made application for loans, the local authority from which the application issues, the date of application, the amount of the several loans ordered by the Poor Law Board up to the 14th instant, the date of the Board's order, together with a statement of the estimated cost of the various public works among which it is proposed to apportion the loans.

Table II. shows the quantities and description of the various public works, in yards and miles and in acres respectively.

Table III. shows the number of persons, distinguishing the factory operatives from the skilled labourers, who were employed upon the public works at the date of my last return.

Table IV. contains a list of the places in the counties of Lancaster, Chester, and Derby, which have adopted the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858 (or portions of the Act), since the 1st January 1863. A number of these places have taken this step in order to constitute themselves a local authority within the meaning, and with power to carry out the provisions, of "The Public Works Act."

Table V. contains a list of places, together with the several amounts for which it may be expected that application will be made within the next two months. The total sum of this list is 494,000*l.* These amounts may vary, and there are probably other applications of which intimation has not reached me. I have little doubt but that these will, together, fully absorb the remainder of the 1,500,000*l.* set apart for the purposes of this Act.

With reference to Table I., the amount ordered by the Board on the 14th instant was 883,706*l.* In addition to this sum, applications to the amount of 46,100*l.* are now under the consideration of the Board. These totals, together with those portions of the several applications which were not considered by the Board to come within the meaning of the Act of Parliament, make up the gross sum of the applications upon which I have had the honour to report, amounting to 1,037,228*l.*

In respect, therefore, to the money devoted to the purposes of this Act, the present position is as follows:—

Amount ordered by the Poor Law Board	883,706
Amount of applications at present under consideration	46,100
Amount of intimated applications not yet sent in to the Poor Law Board	494,000
	1,423,806
Leaving for future applications	76,194

No application for a loan under the provisions of this Act has been entirely rejected. In three or four cases I have felt it necessary to advise the Board to refuse some portion of the amount applied for. Three of the applications included a sum which it was intended to devote to the erection or enlargement of town halls, which, though works of "permanent utility," did not fulfil the requirement of being "a sanitary improvement." In one case it was proposed to devote a portion of a loan to the drainage of a coal mine, but deeming this a questionable improvement to the estate, I advised that this portion be disallowed. In cases where the amount applied for has exceeded the estimates, the surplus has been disallowed, and also where the amount applied for has exceeded the rateable value of the property assessed to the relief of the poor, within the jurisdiction of the local authority making the application.

Of the twin purposes of the Public Works Act, the execution of works of public utility and sanitary improvement, and providing employment for indigent factory operatives, under all circumstances, the first is the more important. At the time of the passing of the Act, with the uncertain and dangerous prospect of the autumn and winter months, great anxiety was felt as to the latter purpose. But against the employment of such large numbers as were then calculated upon, many circumstances have militated, some of which perhaps are not now to be regretted. Chief among these must be mentioned the admirable and perfect system of relief administered so liberally, and yet so wisely, by the Central Relief Committee, aided by 170 local committees, whose action centred in, and whose bounty has been mainly drawn from, the Central Relief Committee. This liberal relief has spread a feeling of contentment throughout the superior classes, who by this means have been, to a great extent, disburdened of their responsibility—a feeling which operated prejudicially against the employment of the distressed cotton "hands" upon the public works. This feeling does not amount to apathy in the local authorities, but it has certainly influenced their decision as to the character of works to be undertaken in their respective neighbourhoods, and may have tended to prolong their deliberations.

With reference to the character of works undertaken, the great bulk of the expenditure will be upon sewerage and street improvement works, including the formation, paving, flagging, channelling, and kerbstones of streets. Of the 883,706*l.* already ordered by the Board, it is intended to expend 149,849*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* in the former, and 425,407*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* in the latter class of works; amounting together to 575,257*l.*, or 65 per cent. of the total sum. The length of sewerage works thus undertaken is 227,083 yards, or 129 miles. The area of paving and street works undertaken, in respect of the above-mentioned sum, is 2,411,109 square yards, or about 500 acres; the length of streets being 234,866 yards, or 145 miles.

In my Report dated the 30th of May 1863, I stated that "the class "of works which will require the largest expenditure in material and "in skilled labour will be main sewerage, house drainage, forming "and paving streets, flagging footwalks, and similar works." I then referred to this class of works as affording the minimum of employment for unskilled and indigent operatives. But these street and road improvement works do include an amount of earthwork equal to about 1,000,000 cubic yards, which is affording a considerable amount of employment, and will afford much more, for unskilled labour. In the construction of sewers, a rapidly increasing number will be employed; and as a striking instance of the skill some have already acquired, I may mention that an experienced guardian lately laid before his Board a complaint that the men at work near his residence were not factory operatives; but upon inquiry it was found that he had formed an erroneous conclusion from their healthy looking faces, and from the skilful manner in which they wielded their implements. A practical instance of their superior industry upon measured work came also under my notice, where, while the men were working as "a labour test," they had earned 7-8ths of a penny per day; but within two days after the change was made from "test" to "measured work," the same men earned wages exceeding 2*s.* per day—the work being measured and priced, on both occasions, at the same rate.

Considering the very defective sanitary condition of nearly all the boroughs, towns, and townships in the manufacturing districts, I cannot think it matter for regret that the local authorities have, in every application for loans to carry out public works, made the interests of the property to be affected their first consideration. The peace and order of the district has been completely maintained; relief for the destitute, in money, food, and clothing, has never been wanting; and now that it is felt the distress will soon be declining, never to return again in all its recent severity, there is reason for satisfaction in the reflection that the improvement of the district, rather than the employment of the operatives, will have been the useful and enduring result of "The Public Works Act."

Those street works to which I have referred afford indirect employment for a large number of men in quarries and in carting; they greatly benefit, by causing a large expenditure within the towns, the class of small shopkeepers, whose sufferings during this crisis have been hardly second to those of the operatives. And, besides this, they are sanitary works of the highest value. For it has been the custom, almost without exception, in the towns of this district, for the smaller class of houses to be built in parallel rows, without any care being taken to arrange the levels of the ground floors, or to prepare the surface of the streets. Very generally the space in front of each house has served as a common dirt heap, upon which refuse of all kinds has been indiscriminately thrown. In bad weather many of these thickly-populated streets are, except upon the footways, absolutely impassable, and the filthy roadways stand high above the doorsills of the houses. In such neighbourhoods it would be impossible to point to any work of greater public utility and sanitary improvement than the forming and paving of such streets.

Several causes have contributed to prevent a more rapid adoption of the Act. I can, however, report confidently that this delay has never been attributed to the mode of procedure, either at the office of the Poor Law Board or at this office. A want of sufficient skilled professional assistance on the part of the local authorities has retarded very many applications. With reference to this deficiency, I published a statement that the requirements of the Board, as to plans and estimates, are limited to the simplest possible identification of the proposed work, such as could be prepared by a surveyor's clerk in a few days after the nature and locality of the works were determined and the estimates prepared. I have also caused to be printed and circulated throughout the district, "Instructions and Suggestions," embodying the results of my experience upon sewerage works. The local authorities in many of the larger towns would have acted more wisely had they, for the purpose of carrying out these extensive works, increased their surveyor's staff. The town of Blackburn had submitted plans, and obtained an order for a loan of 78,300*l.* on the 19th August last; and besides carrying out a considerable portion of these works, the town council submitted satisfactory plans and estimates, and obtained an order for a further loan of 65,825*l.* on the 28th October. It is evident that what one borough could and did do might have been accomplished by others. In the case of private improvement works, it has been necessary to give the required notice, which, although shortened, is an obvious but necessary cause of delay.

In referring to Table II., it is shown that a large sum is devoted to the construction of waterworks and miscellaneous works. All of these, especially the waterworks and land improvement works, afford employment for a large per-centage of unskilled labour, amounting probably in quantity to as much as 2,000,000 cubic yards of earthwork. The works carried out by the Board of Guardians of Glossop, under contracts with Lord Edward Howard, M. P., have been for months past of great benefit to the poor of that much distressed Union. The Chorley and the Wigan Boards of Guardians have also undertaken drainage and other land improvement works upon the estates of Mr. Townley Parker and Sir R. T. Gerard, Bart. These instances will, I hope, be further useful as examples.

With respect to Table III., showing the numbers employed upon public works during the last week of the past year, it is shown that at some places the works are stopped for want of materials, and in others that, for the reasons stated, the works are not yet commenced. To the numbers mentioned in this list, there might be added upwards of 2,000 men also engaged in out-door labour, under the direction of local authorities, but the wages of these men are not drawn from funds furnished by the Public Works Act. There might also be added a considerable number who are indirectly employed under the Public Works Act, being engaged in procuring materials furnished by contractors, and needed for carrying out the public works. This return also does not include those now employed upon works which, at its date, were stopped for want of materials or other causes, or those where in several places they have anticipated their application for a loan.

The Public Works Act has not hitherto been made a means of employing a very large number of indigent operatives, but the numbers so employed are now daily increasing; and should the present state of the cotton trade continue, the rate of increase will be rapid. The Public Works Act has been of very great service in affording an honourable and efficient test of indigence. Many men have found work and wages who, but for these public works, would have remained idle at home, existing upon public bounty. It has also been of great benefit in proving to the unemployed, and to their employers, that the previous mode of life of the operatives does not incapacitate them for another mode of getting their livelihood, and it has popularized out-door labour among the honest and willing poor of this district—which had in this respect suffered from being so extensively used as a "test" —in a manner which could not have been effected but by a special Act of the Legislature.

It has been thought by some that the Government ought to enforce upon local authorities, to which loans have been granted under the provisions of this Act, an expenditure in precise accordance with the words of its preamble, and to compel them to employ a required number of operatives. But with reference to this point, I beg to observe that the "Public Works Act" is not a charitable measure; that it does not carry with it anything like a national grant for the benefit of the manufacturing districts. Considering that the Metropolitan Board of Works could at the same time borrow 2,000,000*l.* of the Bank of England at $3\frac{3}{4}$ per cent., giving security of the same nature as that given for loans under this Act; and considering that the loans under this Act are advanced by instalments, each of which necessitates some trouble and expense on the part of local authorities; and further, that the works are subject to official inspection—I feel convinced that any further interference like that suggested would have had the effect of preventing a large number of applications from being made. The Act has provided these boroughs, townships, and districts with the means of employing their able-bodied poor for wages. The chief result, however, will be the sanitary and general improvement of the manufacturing districts.

My next Report will, I confidently hope, show a large addition to the numbers of men employed, and increasing benefits to the district, from the construction of useful public works,

I have, &c.

(Signed) Robert Rawlinson,
Civil Engineer.

No. 16.

COTTON MANUFACTURING DISTRICTS ACT. — REPORT of ROBERT RAWLINSON, Esq., Civil Engineer, to the Right Honourable C. P. VILLIERS, M.P., President of the Poor Law Board.

Office of Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863, St. Peter's-square, Manchester, 7th April 1864.

SIR,

I BEG again to report as to progress made under the powers of the Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, 1863.

Table I. is a list of boroughs, townships, and districts which have, up to this date, made application for loans, the local authority from which the application issues, date of application, amount of the several loans ordered by the Poor Law Board up to the 14th instant, date of Board's order, together with a statement of the estimated cost of public works among which it is proposed to apportion loans.

Table II. shows quantities and descriptions of the various public works, in yards, in miles, and in acres respectively.

Table III. shows the number of persons (distinguishing factory operatives from skilled labourers) who were employed upon public works at the date of my last monthly return, 26th March 1864.

With reference to Table I., the amount ordered by the Board on the 5th instant was 1,147,865*l.* In addition to this sum, applications to the amount of 209,527*l.* are now under consideration. These totals, together with those portions of the several applications which were not considered by the Board to come within the meaning of the Act of Parliament, make up the gross sum of applications upon which I have had the honour to report, amounting to 1,479,459*l.*

In respect, therefore, to the money devoted to the purposes of this Act, the present position is as follows :—

Amount ordered by the Poor Law Board -	1,147,865
Amount of applications at present under consideration - - - -	209,527
	1,357,392
Leaving for future applications -	142,608

Of the works undertaken, the great bulk of expenditure will be upon town sewerage and street improvements, including the formation of roads, paving, flagging, and channelling of streets. This class of works will improve the several districts to the greatest extent. Of the 1,147,865*l.* already ordered by the Board, it is proposed that 229,558*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* shall be expended on main sewers, and 555,082*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* on street improvement works, amounting together to 784,641*l.*, or 68 per cent. of the total sum.

The length of main sewerage thus undertaken is 344,760 yards, or 195 miles. The area of paving and street works undertaken in respect of the above-mentioned sum of 555,082*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*, is 3,186,768 square yards (about 3*s.* 6*d.* per square yard). This area makes 658 acres, the length of streets being 341,187 yards, or 194 miles, and costing about 2,861*l.* per mile.

The local authorities fully appreciate the advantages of the Act, as there are but few places in the cotton district that have not or will not ultimately avail themselves of its provisions.

The local authorities have, in most cases, wisely selected works which will be of enduring benefit to the population of this district, both as facilitating means of traffic and as promoting comfort and health.

In some places to which loans have been granted the local authorities have not yet commenced work, but as will be seen from Table III., annexed to this Report, there are now 49 places in which works are actually progressing. With reference to employment afforded by the Act, my last monthly return, March 26th (Table III. of this Report), shows that during the last week in March there were 4,838 men directly engaged upon works, of whom 3,435 had been factory operatives, the average wages of such factory operatives amounting to about 12*s.* 6*d.* per week. Two places make no return. To these 4,838 men must be added, as previously intimated, the large number who are directly employed under the Public Works Act in obtaining and conveying materials furnished by contractors, which both experience and inquiry lead me now to estimate at not less than 3,000 additional. This makes a total of 7,838 men employed directly and indirectly, and receiving payment from funds provided by the Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act.

Some doubt having been thrown upon my estimate of the numbers dependent upon these men, the surveyor of one of the most important towns (Oldham) was good enough, at my request, to make special inquiry, when it was found that 141 men working in that borough represented 684 persons, or 4·85 each man. Adopting this estimate, with reference to the numbers employed under the Public Works Act (7,838), the result would show that there are about 38,014 persons supported by means of the public works.

The measure of the benefits of the Act are however but very partially represented by this statement. The public works are popular with those who are employed, and the moral effect of the work, in prospect as well as in action, has been very valuable in its influences upon the unemployed population.

A number of small shopkeepers have been delivered from a condition little above the level of pauperism by the timely expenditure of large sums now paid in weekly wages through the provisions of the "Public Works Act."

There are more than 1,000 men (besides those I have now mentioned) engaged in out-door labour in the towns of this district, whose wages are derived from private funds or from public funds obtained before the passing of this Act; 629 men are so employed and paid at Preston.

This experiment in Lancashire ought to inculcate a lesson for future use, namely, that unskilled men may soon be taught the use of tools, where practical means are found to furnish employment.

The work must, however, be necessary and useful; the men must have reasonable treatment and equitable payment, if possible, by measurement. All notion of work as a punishment must be removed, and the men must be intelligently and kindly taught. Many of the Lancashire operatives, who never worked outside the walls of a cotton mill before this period of distress, can now execute sewer and drain trenching in a workmanlike manner, and can even lay and joint sewer and drain pipes equal to any skilled labourer.

The men have, for the most part, striven to be useful, and to escape from living on the dole of charity. More men might have been earlier at work if in every town and district there had been that diligence and willingness which the crisis demanded; but I do not think any additional external interference or assistance by Government, or even remonstrance, would have done so much as the quiet and silent force of local example has done.

Government provided legal powers and money under certain specified and favourable conditions, but did not, in any respect, meddle or dictate as to the sort of works to be executed, other than as the Act requires, namely, that works must be locally necessary ; nor has Government interfered as to the manner of executing such works. Advice has been given by myself when asked for.

The Central Relief Committee has rendered most material assistance to the successful working of the Act. This committee has provided and distributed to distressed cotton operatives going on public works, 3,000 suits of warm woollen clothing for winter wear ; as also, 300 pairs of stout water-tight boots for men working in water ; such wise expenditure of money has encouraged men to go on the works ; has enabled them to bear up against the severity of this severe winter ; and, in my opinion, has prevented much sickness and misery, as also, saved many lives.

The works are generally progressing in a very satisfactory manner, and the operatives, in increasing numbers, are becoming skilled in the labour of carrying them out.

The returns do not give the actual state of the works in hand. The "skilled" and "unskilled" men are in many cases mixed ; but there are instances of town sewers and land drains being completely executed as respects trenching, timbering, and earthenware pipe laying, by so termed unskilled men ; that is, by men who previously earned their living within the four walls of some cotton factory. Before the coming summer is far advanced, I may strike out of my future reports the terms "unskilled labourers."

When the vast amount of work now commenced under the Public Works Act shall have been accomplished, and the 195 miles of main sewers are in work, discharging sewage into the nearest watercourse or river, other equally necessary and beneficial improvements will require to be added ; cesspools and cesspits, now crowded in amongst houses, must be abolished, and the refuse must be intercepted from the rivers and streams in such manner as to prevent nuisance, and, where practicable, improve agriculture. The high death-rate prevailing in Lancashire towns has its main cause in the foul cottage cesspit. An inspection of any town in the district will show this ; and medical returns indicate that the prevailing diseases in Lancashire towns are those due to foul air. In the Metropolis, the number of waterclosets exceeds the number of houses ; cesspools and cesspits have, within the last 30 years, been abolished by thousands, even over the flat areas of Lambeth and Bermondsey ; soil-pans and waterclosets have been substituted ; the river Thames has been fouled, but sickness has been prevented ; and many lives have been prolonged by the simple abolition of the putrid cesspool, and dilution of fermenting refuse in the open river. The intercepting sewers now in course of formation in the Metropolis will improve the state of the river, and the Metropolis will then continue to show a comparatively low death-rate. If the population of Lancashire is placed in a sanitary state only as favourable as that of the Metropolis there will be an annual saving of some ten thousand lives, and an improved state of health throughout the entire population.

I have, &c.

Civil Engineer.

Thus the total decrease of pauperism has been 112,761, and to this number may be added a decrease of 132,170 in the numbers aided by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 244,931. But at the same time, although this decrease has taken place, there are still 159,222 paupers, and 104,140 persons not in receipt of parochial relief, who are still being relieved by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 263,362 persons who subsist at present either on the poor rates or on charity; while, under ordinary circumstances, the total number of paupers at this season of the year in the 27 Unions, comprising the cotton manufacturing districts, is about 47,400.

I have just received the following note, to which I beg to direct your attention:—

" My dear Sir, 10*th July* 1863.

" With respect to 'The Public Works (Manufacturing Dis" trict) Bill' I am satisfied that loans will be asked for by the several " distressed towns, and that works of public and permanent utility
" will be executed under its powers.

" The Blackburn Town Council are preparing the necessary legal " notices in anticipation of the Bill becoming law. The Wigan Town " Council have arranged for the necessary land on which to extend " waterworks.

" At Ashton-under-Lyne, at Burnley, at Rochdale, and indeed at all
" the places visited and reported upon, I have reason to think that " works will be undertaken.

" The example of a few places in work will incite others to follow.

" Yours, very truly,

COTTON MANUFACTURING DISTRICTS.—The REPORT of H. B. FARNALL, Esq., Special Commissioner, to the Right Honourable C. PELHAM VILLIERS, M.P., President of the Poor Law Board.

SIR, Manchester, 4th November 1863.

I BEG to inform you that on the 19th ultimo I addressed a letter to the Medical Officers of the 27 Unions comprising the Cotton Manufacturing Districts, of which the following is a copy.

" DEAR SIR, Manchester, 19th October 1863.

" I AM desirous of giving the Poor Law Board and the Central " Executive Committee of Manchester an accurate and immediate " report on the state of the health of the Operatives in the Cotton " Manufacturing Districts ; I shall therefore be much obliged to you " to be so good as to let me have a report on this subject from you, " relative to your District.

" I am, &c.,
(Signed) " H. B. FARNALL,
" Special Commissioner."

I have received one hundred and seventeen Reports from the officers to whom I have referred, and it affords me great pleasure to assure you, on their authority, that the people are in good health.

I annex a Table containing Extracts from the Reports of the Medical Officers of the most important Districts, to which I beg to direct your attention.

You will observe that scarlatina, of a virulent nature, is reported to be prevalent in some Districts, which is not ascribed to the distress, and you will also observe that there is a remarkable absence of typhus fever ; and further that the statements of all the Medical Officers as regards the general health of their respective Districts are of a satisfactory character.

I have, &c.
H. B. FARNALL,
Special Commissioner.

You will observe that there has been a slight increase of pauperism for the last week ; this increase may be fairiy attributed to the fact that at this period of the year pauperism usually increases, and also to the fact that in the Union of Rochdale and elsewhere the Local Relief Committees have latterly been, to some extent, transferring able-bodied men to the books of the Guardians of the poor.

It will no doubt be remembered that for the week ended the 8th of November 1862 the increase of pauperism was 13,031.

I have the satisfaction of adding that the provisions of the Public Works' Act are coming generally into operation; that they received the cordial support of the Central Executive Committee at Manchester, and that they are acknowledged by the local authorities within the district to be very serviceable because they are calculated not only to give employment for wages to many unskilled operatives now out of work, but to confer permanent benefits on the district generally.

No. 20.

Cotton Manufacturing Districts.—Report of H. B. Farnall, Esq., Special Commissioner, to the Right Honourable C. Pelham Villiers, M.P., President of the Poor Law Board.

Sir, Manchester, 4th January 1864.

I beg to present you with the following Report on the state of the 27 Unions within the Cotton Manufacturing Districts.

The total net rateable value of the 27 Unions adverted to was, in the year 1861, 6,036,659*l.*

The population of these Unions in 1861, was 1,984,955.

For the week ended the 26th ultimo the Guardians of the poor relieved 133,889 paupers - -	133,889
During the same week the several Local Committees of Charity aided, within the same Unions, 57,006 persons who were not in receipt of parochial relief - - - - - -	57,006
Total - - -	190,895

or 9·6 per cent. on the population.

For the corresponding week in 1862 the Guardians of the poor relieved 260,506 paupers - -	260,506
During the same week the several Local Committees of Charity aided, within the same Unions, 236,310 persons who were not in receipt of parochial relief - - - - - -	236,310

or 25·0 per cent. on the population.

There is, therefore, a decrease of 305,921 persons (or 61·6 per cent.) who were either receiving parochial relief, or were maintained solely by Local Committees of Charity.

The cost of out-door relief administered by the Guardians of the Poor for the week ended the 26th ult. was - - - - -	8,362
The expenditure by the Local Committees of Charity in relief during the same week was - -	7,665
Total - - -	£ 16,027

For the corresponding week in 1862 the cost of out-door relief administered by the Guardians of the Poor was - - - - - -	17,934
During the same week, the several Local Committees of Charity expended in relief - - -	24,743
Total - - -	£ 42,677

There is, therefore, a decrease in the weekly expenditure of the Guardians of the Poor and of the Local Committees of Charity of 26,650*l.*, or 62·5 per cent.

The total weekly cost on the 26th ultimo of out-door relief administered by the Guardians of the Poor and by the Local Committees of Charity, viz., 16,027*l.*, is at the rate of 833,404*l.* per annum, or 2*s.* 9*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the 27 Unions adverted to.

In the corresponding week of 1862, the total weekly cost of out-door relief administered by the Gurdians of the Poor and by the Local Committees of Charity was 42,677*l.*, which was at the rate of 2,219,204 per annum, or 7*s.* 4¼*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the 27 Unions.

It may now be safely assumed, as it seems to me, that Lancashire is undoubtedly mastering her difficulties : and when I remember the predictions of disaster and the cry of distress which accompanied the first alarm of the cotton famine, it is a satisfaction to me to be enabled to state that the manufacturers have passed the climax of this grave calamity without much difficulty, and that the unemployed operatives have been saved from excessive indigence and demoralization by the diligent and gentle care of the Guardians of the Poor and the Local Committees of Charity, and by the salutary provisions of those Acts of Parliament which were proposed by the Government for the immediate benefit of these districts.

One of those Acts was the Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Act, and it is impossible for me to convey to you more clearly or truly the estimation in which that Act is generally held in Lancashire than by quoting the following passages of a leading article in the "Manchester Guardian" newspaper :—"The public works undertaken under "the sanction of the late Act of Parliament will prove of wonderful "advantage to all the localities which have seized the opportunity, "and thus the temporary distress will have resulted in permanent "benefit. But, beside this, the execution of the works has been "found, as was anticipated, a most powerful means of arresting the "progress of poverty and rescuing the unemployed operatives from "the danger of falling into pauperism. Whatever apprehensions once "existed that the cotton districts would require a national subsidy, "involving an increase of taxation, have entirely vanished, and, "according to the soundest calculations, we may confidently hope that "the distress has passed its climax."

I am enabled to state that there need be no difficulty in now providing work for wages for from 10 000 to 12,000 labourers upon public works of a permanently beneficial and necessary character within the cotton manufacturing districts, for which loans have been already ordered by the Poor Law Board ; and I can further state that intimations have been received from other localities within the same districts of forthcoming applications amounting to about 750,000*l.*, making, with the orders already issued, a sum of nearly 1,200,000*l.* Thus, then, not only might works of public utility and sanitary improvement be carried out, but they might be made now, when great numbers of the labouring and manufacturing classes are thrown out of work, and in a manner to afford the local authorities a ready and wholesome means of setting to work factory operatives for wages on measured work near their own homes.

I regret to be obliged to inform you that, although the whole of the fund at the disposal of the Public Loan Commissioners for the purposes of the Public Works Act will, without doubt, be forthwith absorbed, yet the local authorities, generally speaking, move slowly in the matter; and works which, as I think, should be immediately undertaken are unnecessarily delayed.

I will endeavour, as briefly as possible, to state some of the prominent grounds on which this conclusion appears to be based, because they very materially affect the prospects of the factory operatives.

You will remember that in November last Mr. Edmund Ashworth estimated the supply of cotton which might reasonably be expected in this year at about 2,675,000 bales, being, I believe, upwards of 740,000 bales over the import of 1863, and you will also remember that other competent authorities produced other estimates, all of which were conscientiously made and closely canvassed; but that, notwithstanding a considerable difference of opinion on this point, it became apparent that there was reliable authority for expecting a great enlargement in the supply of raw cotton, and the practical conclusion was properly drawn that there would be sufficient cotton to yield either four or four and a half days' work per week for all the factory operatives during this year.

No one now disputes the truth of these inferences, and all fear of an inadequate supply to secure the number of days' work named may be dismissed; and thus it is admitted that the cotton trade, although by no means about immediately to resume its normal prosperity, is about to rise rapidly above the calamity that has so sorely oppressed it.

After closely examining the estimates of supply to which I have alluded, I am inclined to adopt that which will afford four-and-a-half or five days' work per week, because, after an investigation made for me by the relieving officers of the Unions in the Cotton Manufacturing Districts, there are good grounds for presuming that fully 60,000 operatives (inclusive of their families), who were paupers in December 1862, have found other employment, or have otherwise disposed of themselves.

It should be remembered that there are two distinct opinions now prevalent in Lancashire relative to the prospects of the cotton trade, and consequently relative to the prospects of employment for the operatives: one opinion is, that the increased cost of goods will check the consumption; the other opinion is, that cotton goods are a necessity, and that the increased charge to each individual consumer is so unimportant that the consumption will not be impeded.

It is computed that each person in Great Britain consumes annually, on the average, 8 lb. of raw cotton, the rich consuming from 20 lb. to 30 lb., and the poor from 2 lb. to 3 lb.; so that when the price of cotton is 6*d.* per lb., a poor man spends 1*s.* 6*d.* per annum, and when it is 2*s.* per lb. he spends 6*s.*

Again, it is argued that the countries now principally supplying the world with raw cotton, viz., India, China, Egypt, Turkey, and Brazil, are large consumers of cotton goods, and that half our total export of those goods is to those countries; and that those countries, therefore, are quite willing to pay high prices for cotton goods, because where they buy 1 lb. of cotton goods they sell 4 lb. or 5 lb. of raw cotton, and because the price they pay for such goods must regulate the price at which they can sell their raw cotton.

No doubt much may be advanced in favour of this view of the subject—such, for instance, as the low price of food consequent on our excellent harvest, the great prosperity of the country at large, and the almost absolute exhaustion of stocks of cotton goods, both at home and in most foreign markets.

But, as I have before intimated, there is another mode of reasoning on this important question, originating in the knowledge that the price which must be paid for the estimated supply of cotton for this year, if the present rates are maintained, is nearly 90,000,000*l.*, and that when that supply is converted into manufactured fabrics it will be fully worth 130,000,000*l.*; and that if there was not over-competition among speculators, the same supply could be obtained for about 70,000,000*l.*; and, further, that the countries from which these supplies are received cannot suddenly enlarge their demands for our manufactures.

It is also remembered that there has been an immense increase in the production of linen and woollen goods, which are being substituted for cotton fabrics.

These considerations of the subject have induced many experienced persons, after an anxious and full inquiry, to conclude that the price of cotton is now higher than can be maintained through this year, and that, with the reduction of the price, a financial crisis must occur some time during the year, because the country has not the means of paying the great cost of the expected supplies at the present enormous prices.

The manufacturers are generally of opinion, as I am informed, that the present prices cannot be maintained, and therefore they now buy only for pressing wants.

I have brought these facts and opinions thus fully under your notice, in order to assure you that it is the uncertainty of maintaining the present prices of cotton which creates that want of confidence which now pervades the trade, and which is the real difficulty of the manufacturers, and consequently of the mill hands.

That there has been a diminution of capital, and almost a cessation of wages, accompanied by a great augmentation of poor rates, in the Cotton Manufacturing Districts, is most true, and it is also true that this province cannot yet be said to be out of its difficulties; but nevertheless it is, I am happy to say, equally true that, through the coming enlarged supplies of cotton, and through the medium of the Public Works Act, it is in a position to meet this winter season with confidence and fortitude, and to anticipate that in the spring the great burden of its distress will be removed; and I will venture to assert, on my own personal observation, that the character of its working classes will be elevated by the stern trials they have so long and so patiently endured, and which they are, I am happy to say, now on the eve of overcoming.

I cannot conclude this Report without offering you my deliberate opinion that the Central Executive Committee of Manchester will be in a position to abandon their onerous duties at the expiration of next March, and that, by so doing, they will consult the true interests of the working classes in Lancashire, who, on account of the enlarged supplies of cotton and the provisions of the Public Works Act, may be then safely and properly thrown on their own resources.

I am, &c.

Special Commissioner.

I will now give you the position of these districts when the distress was at its maximum :—

For the week ended the 6th of December 1862 (when the pauperism of these districts reached its maximum), the Guardians relieved 271,983 paupers - - - - - -	271,983
For the week ended the 27th of December 1862, the several Local Committees of Charity, within the same Unions, aided 236,310 persons who were NOT paupers - - - - - -	236,310
Total - - -	508,293

Or 25·6 per cent. on the population of 1861.

* In addition to this number, 42,965 persons relieved by the Guardians, and included in the above number of 144,391, received also supplemental relief from the Local Committees.

There is, therefore, now a decrease of 294,812 persons who were either receiving parochial relief, or were aided by Local Committees of Charity, which decrease is equal to 58·0 per cent. as compared with the number relieved when the distress was at its maximum.

But although these districts are now in a far better position than they were in December 1862, a comparative statement as regards their present position, and their position under ordinary circumstances, will convince you that they are still heavily burthened. For instance, I find that the number of paupers relieved by the Guardians of the 27 Unions adverted to, for the week ended the 31st of January 1861, was 48,425, or 2·5 per cent. on the population of 1861; but the total number of persons who are now being either relieved by the Guardians or aided by the Local Committees of Charity is 213,481, which is 340·9 per cent. in excess of the normal state of pauperism in these districts.

I now pass on to the cost of relief:—

For the week ended the 30th ultimo, the cost of out-door relief given by the Guardians was	9,122
The average weekly expenditure by the Local Committees of Charity during the month ended the 30th ultimo was	*10,704

For the week ended the 6th of December 1862 (when pauperism reached its maximum), the cost of out-door relief given by the Guardians was	18,728
For the week ended the 27th of December 1862, the Local Committees expended in relief	24,743
Total	£43,471

There is, therefore, now a decrease in the weekly expenditure by the Guardians, and by the Local Committees of Charity, of 23,645*l.*, or 54·4 per cent., as compared with the weekly expenditure when the the distress was at its maximum.

But although this decrease in expenditure has taken place, the normal expenditure upon pauperism within these districts is much less than the present expenditure: for the Guardians of these 27 Unions expended in out-door relief, for the week ended the 31st of January 1861, 2,375*l.*; while the present weekly expenditure by the Guardians and by the Local Committees of Charity is 19,826*l.*—so that there is now an increase of 734·8 per cent.

The present weekly expenditure by the Guardians in out-door relief (viz., 9,122*l.*) is at the rate of 474,344*l.* per annum, or 1*s.* 6$\frac{7}{8}$d. in the pound on the total net rateable value of the property within these districts; and the present weekly expenditure by the Local Committees of Charity; viz., 10,704*l.*, which is met wholly by public subscriptions, is at the rate of 556,608*l.* per annum, or 1*s.* 10$\frac{1}{8}$d. in the pound on the total net rateable value of the property within these districts; so that the total expenditure, both by the Guardians and by the Local Committees of Charity, is now at the rate of 1,030,952*l.* per annum, or 3*s.* 5*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the property within these districts. But the total expenditure, both by the Guardians and by the Local Committees of Charity, when pauperism was at its maximum was at the rate of 2,260,492*l.* per annum, or 7*s.* 5⅞*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the property within these districts.

I have already informed you that the amount expended by the Guardians of the 27 Unions in out-door relief, for the week ended 31st January 1861, was 2,375*l.* This expenditure was at the rate of 123,500*l.* per annum, or 4⅞*d.* in the pound on the net rateable value of the property within these districts; so that the present expenditure of the Guardians and of the Local Committees is 3*s.* 0⅛*d.* in the pound on the net rateable value in excess of the usual rate of expenditure in out-door relief within the 27 Unions in the cotton manufacturing districts.

I subjoin a Table showing the relative burthen of each of the 27 Unions adverted to, as regards the number of persons who are now either receiving parochial relief, or who are now aided by the Local Committees of Charity :—

Name of Union.	Present per-centage of Persons relieved by Guardians and by Local Committees on Population.	Name of Union.	Present per-centage of Persons relieved by Guardians and by Local Committees on Population.
1. Ashton-under-Lyne	20·9	15. Leigh	4·0

12. Glossop	30·6	26. Warrington	4·9
13. Haslingden	8·2	27. Wigan	11·8
14. Lancaster	5·7

The cash in the hands of the treasurers of the 27 Unions named in this report, was, on the 30th ultimo, 91,310*l.* 15*s.* 1*d.*

On the 25th ultimo, the treasurer of the Central Executive Committee in Manchester reported as follows :—

Balance standing in the Bank to the credit of the Committee	203,174
In the hands of the Treasurers of the Cotton Districts and Liverpool Funds	128,612
Cash balance in the hands of the Local Committees (less liabilities for food and clothing distributed) is reported to be	23,490
Amount of subscriptions promised to Local Committees, but not yet paid, is reported to be	14,514
Total	£ 369,790

If, therefore, the present rate of expenditure (viz., 10,704*l.* per week) by the Local Committees should continue, the above sum of 369,790*l.* will be sufficient to meet that expenditure for upwards of 34 weeks.

In my last report to you, dated the 4th ultimo, I developed, to the best of my ability, the views entertained as to the immediate future prospects of these districts; and it is, therefore, unnecessary for me to say anything further upon that subject, excepting that I have every reason to believe that the statements which I then made will be verified.

* In addition to these numbers, 28,837 persons relieved by the Guardians, and included in the above number of 108,038, received also supplemental relief from the Local Committees.

The present weekly expenditure by the Guardians in out-door relief (viz., 6,554*l.*) is at the rate of 340,808*l.* per annum, or 1*s.* 1½*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the property within the district; and the weekly expenditure by the Local Committees (viz., 7,662*l.*) is at the rate of 398,424*l.* per annum, or 1*s.* 3⅞*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the district.

There is, therefore, now a decrease in the weekly expenditure by the Guardians and by the Local Committees of Charity of 9,990*l.*, or 50·4 per cent., as compared with that for the week ended the 30th January 1864.

The present weekly expenditure by the Guardians in out-door relief (5,534*l.*) is at the rate of 287,768*l.* per annum, or $11\frac{3}{8}d.$ in the pound on the total net rateable value of the property within the district; and the weekly expenditure by the Local Committees (viz., 4,302*l.*) is at the rate of 223,704*l.* per annum, or $8\frac{7}{8}d.$ in the pound on the total net rateable value of the district.

No. 23.

Select Committee on Poor Relief, 1864.—Resolutions.

Your Committee have come to the following Resolutions on various points connected with the present state of the law and its administration, and have agreed to report the same to the House :—

Metropolitan Distress in 1860–61.

That with respect to the extraordinary prevalence of distress in the Metropolis in the winter of 1860–61, to which the attention of your Committee was particularly directed, they received strong evidence that the duty of relieving such distress could have been relieved by the Poor Law authorities, inasmuch as the legal machinery of administration was sufficient, and the Guardians possessed the requisite powers for raising the necessary funds for the purpose ; but the legal charge would have pressed very heavily on some parishes within the Metropolis.

The regular action, however, of the Poor Law was, to a considerable extent, rendered unnecessary by voluntary contributions ; and however desirable it is that in great emergencies destitution should be relieved by spontaneous charity, your Committee find that, on the occasion in question, evils resulted from the want of a sufficient organization for the investigation of the cases of the persons relieved.

Continuance of a Central Authority.

That the continuance of a Central Authority is essential for securing the due and uniform administration of the laws for the relief of the poor ; and your Committee are of opinion that it would contribute to its efficiency if it were placed upon a permanent footing.

Power of the Poor Law Board to issue General Orders.

That the power of issuing General Orders now possessed by the Poor Law Board is salutary and useful, and should be continued.

Continuance in Office of paid Officers.

That in order to secure the due discharge of their duties by the principal officers of unions and parishes, it is, in the opinion of your Committee, essential that their tenure of office should not be terminable without the concurrence of the central authority ; and it is not expedient, therefore, that the power which the Guardians already possess of dismissing the subordinate officers should be further extended.

Superannuation of paid Officers.

That it was shown to your Committee that inconvenience resulted from the continuance in office of persons, who, by reason of infirmity of body or mind, had become incapable of efficiently discharging their duties, but whose removal had been postponed from personal considerations; and your Committee therefore recommend that a power should be conferred upon Boards of Guardians to provide at their discretion for the superannuation of certain Union officers, the exercise of such power to be subject to the control of the central authority.

Medical Relief.

That there are no sufficient grounds for materially interfering with the present system of medical relief, which was made the subject of special and lengthened inquiries by Select Committees of this House in the years 1844 and 1854.

The recommendations of those Committees were for the most part carried out by the orders of the Poor Law Board, and the system of medical relief appears to be administered with general advantage. Your Committee, however, recommend that in future cod-liver oil, quinine, and other expensive medicines shall be provided at the expense of the Guardians, subject to the orders and regulations of the Poor Law Board.

Audit of Union and Parish Accounts.

That the Committee, having regard to the recommendation contained in the reports of the Select Committee of this House on the Poor Law Amendment Act in 1838, and of the Committee of Inquiry appointed by the Treasury in 1852, and also to the anomaly now existing of the appointment of the auditors being vested in the Chairmen and Vice-chairmen of Boards of Guardians, consider that the power of appointing district auditors should in future be vested in the central authority. The Committee are further of opinion that the time of those officers when appointed should be wholly devoted to the public service, and that with this view their numbers should be reduced as vacancies occur, and the vacant districts incorporated with others.

That the Poor Law Board should be invested with power to define the incidental expenses incurred by Guardians, which should be charged on the rates.

Unions and Parishes under Gilbert's Act and Local Acts.

Your Committee are of opinion that it is necessary to the uniform action of the Poor Law that the central authority should have the same powers in unions and parishes now acting under local statutes, or under the Gilbert Act, as in unions or parishes constituted under the Poor Law Amendment Act.

Religious Rights of the Inmates of Workhouses and District Schools.

That, with the view of giving full effect to the obvious intention of the Legislature in regard to the religious rights of those inmates of workhouses and district schools who are not members of the Church of England, your Committee recommend as follows:—

That there shall be kept in all workhouses and in all district and separate pauper schools, a creed register, separate from other registers, which shall be open to the inspection of all clergymen and ministers of religion officiating within the Union.

That any such clergyman or minister shall be at liberty, subject to regulations sanctioned by the Poor Law Board, to visit the inmates of his own creed in such workhouse or school, whether sent for or not; and shall, under like regulations, be allowed to assemble such inmates in some convenient place for a reasonable time on such days, not being less than one day in each week, as may be appointed by the Guardians.

That every inmate for whom a religious service, according to his own creed, shall not be provided in the workhouse on Sundays, and on any other days required by his religion to be kept sacred, shall be permitted, under regulations sanctioned by the Poor Law Board, to attend once on such days some place of worship of his own denomination, if within a convenient distance.

That the Poor Law Board may require, on application to them, and on being satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so, that orphans under twelve years of age, not belonging to the Established Church, shall be sent to any school of their own denomination, either certified as an industrial school, or licensed by the Poor Law Board, under the Act 25 & 26 Vict. c. 43., the managers of which shall be willing to receive such children, upon being paid at the rate of the average cost of the maintenance of the inmates of the workhouse of the Union or district or separate school from which they shall be sent; but the Guardians shall not be required to pay any travelling expenses respecting such orphan child.

That the following regulations shall be substituted for those contained in the order of the Poor Law Board, dated the 23rd day of August 1859, and made the subject of legislative enactment:—

Article I. That whenever there shall be in the workhouse or district school any child, whether the parents or surviving parent of such child be in the workhouse, or whether such child be an orphan or deserted child under the age of fourteen years, the master or superintendent of the workhouse or district school shall enter in such creed register list as the religious persuasion of such child, the religious creed of the father, if the master know or can ascertain the same by reasonable inquiry, or if the same cannot be so ascertained, the creed of the mother of such child, if the same be known to the said master, or can be by him in like manner ascertained. The religion of an illegitimate child shall be considered as that of his or her mother.

Article II. Such child, while an inmate of any workhouse or district or separate school, visited by a minister of his or her religious creed for the purpose of religious instruction, shall not be instructed in any other religious creed, or permitted to attend any other religious service than that so entered, unless he or she, being above the age of twelve years of age, shall desire to receive instruction in some other creed, and unless he or she be considered by the Poor Law Board to be competent to exercise a reasonable judgment upon the subject.

Article III. The master of the workhouse or the superintendent of the district or other pauper school, shall, subject to the directions of the Guardians of the Union, permit the attendance at the workhouse, from time to time, for the purpose of affording religious instruction to such child, of some minister of the religious persuasion of the said child, as ascertained according to the provisions of this order.

Provided always, that such attendance shall take place at such times as shall not be inconsistent with the discipline and good order of the workhouse or school.

Article IV. Failing other evidence, a certificate of the baptism of the child, authenticated by the minister who has lawful custody of the register in which the baptism of such child has been recorded, shall be deemed sufficient evidence of that child's religion ; and the evidence on which the entry of religion has been made shall also be recorded. In the case of all entries, the correctness of which is called in question, the Poor Law Board shall have the power to examine into the case, and to direct the amendment of the entry, if they shall think proper.

That the inmates of the workhouse shall be allowed the use of such religious books as may be sanctioned by the Poor Law Board.

That in workhouses and schools of unions or parishes where there is a numerous body of paupers of any particular religious denomination, not being members of the Established Church, and requiring spiritual ministrations, it would be desirable, in the opinion of this Committee, that some remuneration should be provided for the ministers attending in such cases.

Education of Pauper Children.

That, making reasonable allowance for the low condition, physical, moral, and mental of a large proportion of the children when they first enter workhouses, and for the necessarily frequent changes in their admission and discharge, the state of workhouse education is upon the whole satisfactory in its character and result.

The Committee think that it would be inexpedient, and in many cases impracticable, to enforce the general establishment of district or separate schools ; but they are of opinion that schools entirely distinct from the workhouse should continue to be encouraged, as being attended with beneficial results to the children, and affording the most effectual means of separating them from the other classes of paupers.

The proposal of the Education Commissioners to compel Guardians to insist upon the education of the child as a condition of out-door relief to the parent, is, in the opinion of your Committee, inconsistent with the principles upon which the relief of the poor is established.

That the 6th Section of the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 105., restricting to 20 miles the distance within which children may be sent to a district or separate school from other unions, be repealed or altered, so as to admit of children being sent to such schools from a greater distance than 20 miles, subject to such regulations as the Poor Law Board may make.

Classification in Workhouses.

That it appears to your Committee that in many cases the Union workhouses are insufficient for the purpose of the proper classification of the inmates, and your Committee consider it desirable that greater power should be given to the Central Board than that which they now possess, to require Guardians to make adequate arrangements for such classification.

Casual and Houseless Poor in the Metropolis, and Vagrants.

That, in order to secure sufficient and convenient means for the relief of the casual and houseless poor within the Metropolis, as defined by the Metropolitan Local Management Act, it is expedient that the charges incurred for the support of such poor should be paid out of a rate assessed on the annual rateable value of the whole of the said Metropolis.

That, in the opinion of this Committee, the machinery adopted under the Metropolitan Local Management Act might be made available for raising the amount of such charge, and your Committee recommend that authority be given to the Metropolitan Board of Works for such purpose.

That the Poor Law Board be empowered to prescribe and enforce all necessary arrangements for providing the requisite accommodation in the several unions and parishes, and otherwise carrying the foregoing resolutions into effect.

That, with the view of suppressing vagrancy, as far as practicable, the Committee are of opinion that the central authority, when invested with adequate power for that purpose, should direct Boards of Guardians to provide suitable and sufficient wards for the reception of the wayfaring and wandering poor, and that the regulations for their management and relief should be on a uniform system throughout the country. The Committee approve of the employment of police constables as assistant relieving officers for vagrants, and think it desirable that the arrangement should be generally adopted.

Equalization of the Poor Rate.

That much evidence was adduced showing the unequal pressure of the charge for the relief of the poor in different parts of the Metropolitan district, and various plans were submitted to your Committee for the equalization of the poor rate; and your Committee recommend the general question of extending the area of rating to the further consideration of the House; but the circumstances of the Metropolis are so peculiar, that in any legislation to extend the area of charge or management, it would be necessary to have regard to those circumstances.

That any measure for extending the area of rating should, in the opinion of the Committee, embrace provisions for making the whole cost for the poor in each Union chargeable on the common fund of the Union.

Poor Rate Return.—Remarks on the Annual Poor Rate Return, Year ended Lady-day 1863. [No. 431. (D.) Sess. 1863.]

Series of Returns.

The present Return is the fifty-sixth annual publication of the Poor Rate Returns.

Extent of the Return.

This Return is, in respect of the number of places which it represents, the most complete of the Statistics of pauperism; for in it the sums levied and expended as Poor Rates throughout the whole of England and Wales are exhibited; excepting only some small Parishes, which are stated by the overseers either to have "No poor," or to make no levy "yet."

Valuations to the Poor Rates.

The net annual value of property assessed to the Poor's Rate has been returned in respect of four parochial years. "The Gross Estimated Rental" is also returned for the last of these years.

* The details of these Valuations will be found in the following papers, printed by order of the House of Commons, viz., No. 235 "Real Property," 1842; No. 735 "Poor Rates, &c.," 1848; No. 539 "Poor Rate Assessment," 1852; No. 63 "Population, &c. of Parishes," 1858; and No. 251 "Population, Inhabited Houses, &c.," 1859. The "Gross Estimated Rental," and the "Rateable Value" for each Parish is given with respect to the Parochial year 1856 in No. 491 "Poor Rates, &c.," Session 1861.

Receipts and Expenditure in 1861, 1862, and 1863.

The Returns, in a contracted shape, are exhibited in the next Table, for the last three years, with the rate per head, on the estimated population, of the amount levied as Poor's Rate, and of the amount expended in relief:—

Large proportion of expenditure for purposes unconnected with relief.

Four fifths of the expenditure, described in the last Table as for "All other Purposes," consists of payments which have no connexion whatever with relief to the poor. This part of the Poor Rate Expenditure, which is foreign to the object originally contemplated in the enactment of the rate, has greatly increased since the passing of the Poor Law Amendment Act in 1834, in consequence of the imposition of new and the augmentation of old charges. The next Table exhibits, separately, all the charges referred to, so far as the returns permit. The heaviest item is the disbursement in respect of the "County, Hundred, or Borough Rate, or Police Rate."

Considerably more than one fourth of the whole Poor Rates now levied are expended for purposes unconnected with relief to the poor. Besides the charges here shown, there are some others paid out of the Rate, but which are not discriminated, such as the expenses incurred for sanitary purposes, and the cost of providing new burial grounds.

The column in the Return, which succeeds that of "Total Expenditure," contains the expense of Medical Relief only; this consists of salaries to the Medical Officers; extra Medical Fees paid to them under the General Consolidated Order; also, the cost (if any) of medical and surgical appliances, and drugs. The sums in this column are not additional to those given in Column 4. § A, of the Return; because, the various items of Medical Relief are included in sub-columns (e) or (f), as forming a portion of the "Relief to the Poor :" the "Medical Relief" is printed separately, as indicating an important and special subject of Poor Law administration. Medical Relief.

The sums expended under this head during the last three years were as follows :

For 1860–61 - - - -	£238,233
1862–63 - - - -	248,286

Twenty-six Unions and single Parishes, chiefly Metropolitan, are combined into School Districts; the contributions which each Union makes to the treasurer of its district are included in the other items of relief, and, as such, entered in the proper columns of the Poor Rate Return; this, then, like the Medical Relief, does not represent any additional expenditure, having been heretofore properly included in the amounts printed opposite to the respective Unions concerned. School Districts.

The sums contributed by each Union to the School District; and, the sums expended by each district and for each Union during the parochial year 1862–63, are contained in the subjoined Table :—

IN-MAINTENANCE AND OUT-DOOR RELIEF.—REMARKS on the Returns of In and Out door Relief, Half Year ended Lady-day 1863. [No. 307 (c. 1.) Sess. 1862.]

Number of Unions returned.

THE Returns of In-maintenance and Out-door Relief, printed at pp. 18–60,* have been received from 654 Unions and single Parishes under Boards of Guardians; but two of that number, namely, Shrewsbury, and Montgomery and Pool, give the cost of In-maintenance only; and two, namely Wetherby and Wharfedale, and the Townships of Holbeck and Hunslet, are now entered for the first time in this statement.

The amount expended in the 654 Unions and Parishes during the half year was, for—

In-maintenance.	Out-door Relief.	Total.
£ 577,080	£ 1,887,779	£ 2,464,859

The population of the places referred to was 19,877,257, according to the Census of 1861; the entire population of England and Wales being 20,066,224.

Irremovable Paupers.

The sum expended for irremovable paupers can be shown for 609 Unions and Single Parishes only, as the other places keep no separate account of their disbursements in respect of this class of poor.

The 609 Unions and Parishes contain about 17-20ths of the entire population of the Kingdom; the sum expended in them for relief during the half-year was, in respect of—

	In-maintenance.	Out-door Relief.	TOTAL.
Irremovable Paupers -	105,578	715,891	821,469
Other Paupers - -	330,697	1,026,395	1,357,092
TOTAL -	436,275	1,742,286	2,178,561

The cost of relief to the Irremovable Paupers was 37·7 per cent. on the cost of relief to the other Paupers during the half-year; but during the half-year ended at Lady-day 1862, the ratio was 35·5 per cent.; so that the proportion has risen 2·2 per cent. comparing the former period with the latter.

Expenditure, Lady-day half years 1862 and 1863.

The following Table is a comparative statement of the Expenditure for the half years ended at Lady-day 1862 and 1863 in 650 Unions and Single Parishes.

No. 37.

Remarks on the Industrial Statistics of 1861; and on the Pauperism of the 1st July 1863. [No. 431 (B.) Sess. 1862.]

The Industrial Statistics of 1861.

Industrial Statistics.

The publication of the Occupations Census of 1861 has rendered it necessary to effect a change both in the form and the matter of the "Industrial Statistics," which, since 1857, has formed part of the series of papers periodically laid before Parliament by the Poor Law Board under the title of "Poor Rates and Pauperism."

New classification of the Occupations of the People.

An explanation of the classes under which the occupations of the people in 1851 were arranged has prefaced the previous numbers of this series, and therefore need not be repeated. The classification of 1861 differs in several important particulars from that previously employed by the Commissioners of the Census. The new system can be best explained in the words of its author,* premising that, in Dr. Farr's Report on the "Classification of Producers," the lowest groups, termed "Sub-Orders," are marked with a small Arabic numeral (2); that, these Sub-Orders are gathered up into "Orders," marked by a larger numeral (2); and, that the Orders are collected into "Classes," marked by a Roman figure (II.)

CLASSIFICATION OF PRODUCERS.

I.—Professional Class.

"This great class includes those persons who are rendering direct service to mankind, and satisfying their intellectual, moral, and devotional wants.

"The three first Orders consist of civil servants, national or local; the army and navy; the learned professions, with their immediate subordinates; literary and scientific men, as well as artists in the widest sense.

"The first Order (1; 1) includes the members of the Government, and the civil service; (2) the police and other local officers; and (3) the East India and Colonial Service.

"The army (2; 1) and navy (2; 2) are in the service of the Government; and are intimately connected with it in all states. And the clergy in the Established Church, as well as the lawyers in the courts of justice, are in official subordination to the Sovereign; but the great majority of the members of these professions are neither nominated nor paid by the Crown. Like the medical, the literary, and the scientific professions, which were at one time included in the Church, and were supported by its livings, the clergy and lawyers assert their independence, and are, therefore, made separate sub-orders. So are authors, artists, musicians, actors, teachers, and scientific men. Nearly all the members of the class are paid directly for their services; and these services have no intermediary, being rarely fixed in any commodity. The pay varies in each Order, and it is either proportional to the time (salary, wages, pay), the job (fees), or the quality and quantity of work done (piecework)."

Order 1. Persons engaged in the General or Local Government of the Country.

„ 3. Persons engaged in the Learned Professions or engaged in Literature, Art, and Science (with their immediate Subordinates).

II.—Domestic Class.

"The persons in this Class are all employed, if they are employed at all, in houses. Some supply simply service, others with it supply board and lodging (Order 5.) They are paid wages (servants), or they are paid for the board and lodging and attendance which they supply, The publicans and beersellers are so much associated and so often confounded with hotel and innkeepers that they are retained in the same Order; although the Order dealing in 'drinks' may claim them. The wife and grown-up children (Order 4.) perform at home for the bulk of the population the same duties as the persons in Order 5.; but they are not paid directly in money for their services, as they form a part of the natural family; consequently they are distinguished in a separate Order. The very young children properly belong to the non-productive class, and they may there constitute a section; scholars and other children are learning the elements of their future occupations; but until that occupation is determined they remain in the same Order as their mothers."

* See Dr. Farr's account of the "New Classification of the People according to their Employment."—Census of England and Wales, 1861, Vol. III., pp. 225 et seq.

ORDER 4. Persons engaged in the Domestic Offices or Duties of Wives, Mothers, Mistresses of Families, Children, Relatives (not otherwise returned).

III.—COMMERCIAL CLASS.

"The merchant buys any article like tea abroad, transports it to England, and there sells it. He performs the like operation at home. But as a merchant he effects no change in any of the commodities in which he deals. He buys and sells, and is paid for his services by a varying but rated profit on the goods.

"The carrying order convey commodities, passengers, and messages by land or water, from one place to another. They also warehouse goods. They are paid for their services in fares, freight, and charges, which bear some proportion to the weight, bulk, and other properties of the goods. They are all in Order 7, and are closely related to the Order preceding; hence the two Orders (6–7.) together may be called the Commercial Class."

ORDER 6. Persons who buy or sell, keep or lend, Money, Houses, or Goods of various Kinds.

IV.—AGRICULTURAL CLASS.

"We now come to a great class which is employed in producing grain, fruit, grass, animals, and other products from the soil. They may be called Growers; for their products grow and are obtained from the living kingdoms of nature. The heads of the Class are paid, not directly for their services, but indirectly in the price of the products which they sell in the market or elsewhere. Thus the price of a quarter of wheat includes the pay of the services of all the persons employed in its production as well as the cost of the tools and machines, including the land, by means of which it is produced and brought to market. Agricultural servants and labourers are paid in wages which the farmers advance. The persons engaged in gardens or woods are in separate Sub-orders.

"The men in Order 9. are employed in catching, training, or dealing in living animals of various kinds. They are the representatives of the hunters of the early stages of civilization, and may be considered an appendage to the previous pastoral and agricultural class, so forming Class IV., which thus includes hunting tribes, the pastoral clans, and the agricultural people of the world."

ORDER 8. Persons possessing or working the Land, and engaged in growing Grain, Fruits, Grasses, Animals, and other Products.

V.—INDUSTRIAL CLASS.

"This is the Class of makers or artisans. They deal in matter that is either no longer living, or that never lived. They alter the form, texture, or composition of the materials in which they work, so as to produce a great variety of goods, instruments, and machines. Their pay and profits are charged in the price of commodities; the wages of the workmen being advanced by their masters.

"This Class is grouped according to the materials, distinguishing those derived from the three kingdoms of nature.

"The first Order (10.) of the Class includes artisans, making products of various materials, derived from the three kingdoms, such as coaches, ships, workshops, factories, houses, and their furniture or other contents.

"Then follow the persons engaged in the textile fabrics (Order 11.) Wool, silk, cotton, flax, and hemp are durable and divisible; their manufacture admits of the sub-division of labour and the application of machinery. The workers in these materials are the essentially manufacturing class. In a Sub-order (4.) are the artisans who convert the manufactured fabrics, and some other matters, into dress.

"Human food, drinks, and stimulants, derived from the animal and vegetable kingdoms, occupy a distinct Order (12.), sub-divided into three Sub-orders.

"Then follow (13.) the persons chiefly or exclusively working and dealing in other animal substances than food (14.), those working and dealing in vegetable substances, and (15.), those working and dealing chiefly in minerals and metals. The first Sub-order of the latter Order (15.) includes the mining population of every kind; the other thirteen Sub-orders include the chief workers in the metals and minerals, beginning with coal, and ending with steel."

ORDER 10. Persons engaged in Art and Mechanic Productions, in which Matters of various Kinds are employed in combination.

VI.—INDEFINITE AND NON-PRODUCTIVE CLASS.

(Orders 16, 17, and 18.)

"The last Class includes the numbers returned in a vague way, so as to scarcely admit of classification among either the professional, the domestic, the commercial, the agricultural, or the industrial classes.

"It embraces the totally distinct Orders of general labourers (16.), persons of property returned as of no occupation (17.), and persons supported by the community (18.) Many of the persons in Orders 16. and 17. properly belong to the other classes.

ORDER 16. Labourers and others—Branch of Labour undefined.

„ 18. Persons supported by the Community, and of no specified Occupation. Other Persons of no stated Occupation or Condition.

The relation of the new to the old classification is briefly exhibited by the following Synoptical Table:—

Selected Occupations.

In considering the occupations of the people in connexion with pauperism, the first class has been rejected, because, although it participates in the general welfare of the country, it experiences the vicissitudes of trade less directly than the others; and the last class, because it is indefinite, and therefore but little adapted to form any useful term of comparison within the field of pauper statistics. The ratio per cent. of persons aged 20 years and upwards ascribable to each of the six classes of occupations for all the Unions has, in the present instance, been computed for every Union by the Commissioners of the Census. The ratios of the four selected classes are printed opposite to the respective Unions in the following pages; at the same time, the special designation of the chief industries pursued in the various Unions according to the Census of 1851, has been retained in the place it originally filled in these Returns.

Ratio of Occupations.

The absolute as well as the proportional numbers of the adult population under the six industrial classes are shown in the subjoined table for each Division and for each Union-County, as published in the third volume of the Census of England and Wales.

The Returns of Pauperism, 1st July 1863.

The present publication contains the Tabulated Returns of 655 Unions and Single Parishes under Boards of Guardians; but in respect of two places, namely, the Incorporation of Shrewsbury and that of Montgomery and Pool, the Returns are limited to the number of In-door paupers relieved.

Pauperism, 1st July.

The aggregate population of the 655 places by the Census of 1861 is 19,885,921; and the total number of paupers on the 1st July 1863 is,

In-door.	Out-door.	Total.
125,368	874,606	999,974

This gives the proportion of paupers as 1 in 20, or 5·0 per cent. on the actual population.

Comparison of 1st July 1863 and 1862.

Comparing the numbers returned on the 1st July 1863 with those at the same date in 1862, the figures stand thus:—

DATE.		Number of Unions, &c.	In-door Paupers.	Out-door Paupers.	TOTAL.
1st July -	1862	652	123,432	802,826	926,258

WEEKLY RETURNS OF PAUPERISM FOR THE YEAR ENDING JANUARY 1864, AND FOR THE CORRESPONDING WEEKS OF THE PREVIOUS YEAR.

[No. 307. (A. X.), Session 1862, and No. 431. (A. to A. IX.), Session 1863.]

Memorandum as to the Arrangement of the Weekly Returns of Pauperism.

The Returns of the Number of Paupers relieved on the last day of each Week do not include the "Lunatic Paupers in Asylums and Licensed Houses," nor the number of "Vagrants" relieved. These classes form only a small portion of the entire pauperism of the country. According to the latest Returns (1st January 1863), the number contained in the two classes was 2·2 per cent. of the total pauperism.

The Pauper Lunatics in Asylums are not generally subject to variations in number to the same degree as the other classes of Paupers, and the number of Vagrants relieved by the Unions throughout the country has become too small to need a return so frequently as once a week. These considerations led to the exclusion of the two classes.

There are at present 14,886* parishes, inclusive of the Scilly Islands, in England and Wales maintaining or liable to maintain their own poor: returns of pauperism are received weekly in respect of 14,681 of that number; 205 parishes, incorporated under Gilbert's Act, or still under the provisions of the 43d Elizabeth, make no return of the number of paupers which they relieve.

The Returns are arranged under eleven divisions. The Union-counties which fall under each are shown in the following view:—

Quarterly Statement as to Pauperism.—Midsummer 1863.

(Paupers in Lunatic Asylums and Vagrants not included.)

The present Return completes the Monthly Series for the Quarter ended at Midsummer 1863. The four following Tables are given in continuation of those prefixed to the monthly publication for March last.

The Tables are—

1st. England and Wales; the pauperism in the consecutive weeks of the quarter.
2d. ——————————— the comparative pauperism of the quarter.
3d. North Midland, North Western, and York Divisions; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.
4th. The Metropolis; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

1. In the first Table, each week, compared with its predecessor, shows a decrease in the number of paupers: 1,061,508 were the numbers relieved in the last week of March (Lady-day); but in the fourth week of June (Midsummer) they had fallen to 969,187, which is a decrease of 92,321, or 8·70 per cent. less at Midsummer than Lady-day.

The paupers in 1863, as compared with those in 1862, have increased 77,971 or 8·76 per cent.: but compared with 1861 the increase is 151,269, or 18·51 per cent.

Quarterly Statement as to Pauperism.—Michaelmas 1863.

(Paupers in Lunatic Asylums and Vagrants not included.)

The present Return completes the Monthly Series for the quarter ended at Michaelmas 1863. The four following Tables are given in continuation of those prefixed to the monthly publication for June last.

The Tables are—

1st. England and Wales; the pauperism in the consecutive weeks of the quarter.

2d. ——————— the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

3d. North Midland, North Western, and York Divisions; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

4th. The Metropolis; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

1. In the first Table each week is compared with the one immediately preceding it: 969,187 were the numbers relieved in the last week of June (Midsummer); but in the fourth week of September (Michaelmas) the numbers were 930,585, which is a decrease of 38,602, or 3·98 per cent. less at Michaelmas than Midsummer.

2. The next Table exhibits the comparative pauperism during the Michaelmas quarter of 1861, 1862, and 1863.

The paupers in receipt of relief on the last day of the last week of September were—

In 1861 - - - -	808,189
„ 1862 - - - -	943,655
„ 1863 - - - -	929,653

The paupers in 1863, as compared with those in 1862, have decreased 14,002, or 1·48 per cent.; but compared with 1861, there was an increase of 121,464, or 15·03 per cent.

 The numbers given for 1862 and 1863 respectively differ slightly from the Totals entered in the Returns for October, November, and December; this arises from the circumstance of Pontefract and Tadcaster being excluded from Table II., as those places were not in the Returns for 1861.

3. The third Table comprises the three divisions of England and Wales, in which the principal manufactures are carried on. Taking the returns of paupers relieved on the last day of the last week of December, the numbers were—

„ 1862 - - - - -	422,119
„ 1863 - - - - -	288,159

The decrease in 1863, compared with 1862, was 133,960, or 31·74 per cent.; but in comparison with 1861 there was an increase of 69,568, or 31·83 per cent.

No. 47.

Remarks on the Return of Insane Paupers, chargeable on the 1st January 1863. (No. 307. (E.) Sess. 1862.)

Source of Information.

1. The Statistics of Pauper Insanity contained in this paper have been compiled from the lists of "Lunatics, Idiots, and other Persons of Unsound Mind" who were chargeable to the Poor Rates on the 1st January 1863. These lists are made out annually by the Clerks to the Guardians, and transmitted to the Poor Law Board, in compliance with the 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. s. 64., and in the form prescribed by Schedule D. of that Statute.

Places returned.

2. Returns have been received from 660* Unions and Single Parishes under Boards of Guardians; the Population of these places, according to the Census of 1861, is 19,338,364. The number of Insane Paupers chargeable to the Poor Rates in those places on that day is shown below :—

Number of Paupers on 1st January 1863.	Whereof were Insane Paupers.	Namely :—
		Lunatics.	Idiots.
1,142,624†	36,158	23,032	13,126

Thus 3·17 per cent. of the pauperism on the 1st January last is ascribable to Insanity; the Lunatics being 2·02 per cent., and the Idiots 1·15 per cent.

Proportion of the Sexes.

3. In regard to the sexes, 15,790 were Males, and 20,368 Females :—

Insane.	Males.	Females.	Total.

The whole of the Union-County of Lancaster is given in the following Tables, except the 26 parishes which are comprised in the Caton Incorporation, or which are still under the 43d Elizabeth; the population of these amounts to 11,293 only.

The Unions marked with an asterisk (*) have not hitherto been regarded by the Poor Law Board as suffering any peculiar pressure upon their rates in consequence of the present derangement of the Cotton Trade.

The whole of the Union-County of Lancaster is given in the following Tables, except the 26 parishes which are comprised in the Caton Incorporation, or which are still under the 43d Elizabeth; the population of these amounts to 11,293 only.

2. The figures in the preceding table indicate, as usual, the fluctuations in the degree of distress prevailing among the indigent classes in Ireland at different parts of the period embraced. A comparison of the summaries from February to September in the last year, with the same in the three preceding years shows a progressive increase; the year ended 29th September, 1863, being the third of a series of years marked by unfavourable seasons, each of which accordingly exceeded its predecessor in the amount of pauperism, sickness, and relief expenditure. Thus while the maximum daily number of workhouse inmates in the series 1859–60 was only 46,545, the maximum numbers in the three succeeding series were 52,103, 61,791, and 66,976 respectively; and while the minimum number in 1859–60 was 33,796, the minimum numbers of the three following series were 36,107, 39,580, and 45,201 respectively.

3. In the figures relating to the out-door relief a corresponding progressive increase will be found; but as already remarked in paragraphs 13 and 14 of our Annual Report, 1862, the fluctuations in this branch of relief in Ireland are not so certain an indication of the condition of the indigent classes as those which occur in the statistics relating to relief in the workhouse. This arises from the fact that out-door relief has not for several years past been afforded to much extent in Ireland, a large majority of the Boards of Guardians having given relief in the workhouse only. The question, however, as to which of the two forms of relief is the more expedient in certain cases is not unfrequently under discussion, and the occasional changes of opinion adopted on this question increase or diminish the aggregate returns of out-door poor to some extent independently of the influence of the seasons. The accidental circumstance also of the workhouse accommodation falling short in one or two large and populous Unions has sometimes had the effect of largely increasing the small aggregate return of out-door poor for the whole country, without indicating anything more than some local cause of distress or partial epidemic sickness. On the other hand the aggregate return is often sensibly diminished by a sudden decrease in one or two Unions which have been affording out-door relief on a larger scale. For example, the irregularities observable in the out-door relief diagrams, hereafter mentioned, as occurring in the beginning of the years 1861, 1862, and 1863, are due—the first to a sudden decrease of 780 in the Drogheda and Ardee Unions; the second to an addition of 404 in Skibbereen Union for one week; and the third to a decrease, on 4th April, of 1,011 in Ardee and Navan Unions, and of 411 in Kilkenny Union, on 2nd May, 1863.*

4. The number of recipients of out-door relief, though fluctuating somewhat with the seasons, is now likely to increase year after year, while on the other hand the returns of workhouse inmates, showing, as they do, a greater degree of fluctuation in the course of the year will, to judge by experience, be less or more in each succeeding year according to the favourable or unfavourable character of the preceding harvest. Thus, for example, it will be found in the latest week given for 1864, there is a decrease in the number of workhouse inmates of 1,131 as compared with corresponding week of 1863, in consequence of a better season supervening on three successive bad seasons; at the same time the number of out-door poor exceeds by 1,469 the number at the same period last year, in consequence of the greater tendency of the Guardians of Unions to adopt, to some extent, out-door relief.*

5. This comparison has appeared to us of so much importance that we have caused the annexed diagrams† to be made, representing the fluctuations of in-door and out-door relief respectively during the last five years. With the aid of these diagrams the different degree of elasticity in the two systems will be easily measured by the eye, and the fact made apparent that while both rise and fall with the season of the year, the one does so in a much more marked degree than the other; and secondly, that while the in-door relief is diminished or increased in each succeeding year according to its favourable or unfavourable character, the out-door relief shows at present no tendency to decline, notwithstanding the superiority of the present year over the three preceding ones. Our object in dwelling on this circumstance is, to show that the Workhouse Returns are those which must be looked to as indicating most correctly at any time the comparative condition of the indigent classes in Ireland.

6. The accumulation caused in the workhouses through the three years ending 29th September, 1863, will require some time to disperse, probably not less than three favourable years, in order to bring it back to the level of 1859-60. The success of the last potato crop, and the low price of breadstuffs, have already told most favourably on the number of inmates, even during the season when pauperism is invariably progressive, and the comparison is now in favour of the present over the preceding year; so that we are enabled to foresee with certainty that the twelve months ending 29th September, 1864, will be a year of lower expenditure and less extensive pauperism than the year which ended 29th September, 1863. It must be borne in mind too that this improvement is occurring notwithstanding the matured operation of the Hospital sections of the Amendment Act of 1861, and notwithstanding the considerable numbers of removals of pauper families which are taking place from England and Scotland.

7. The operation of the Hospital sections above referred to

* On the 26th March the decrease of in-door poor, in comparison with the previous year was 1,952; the increase of out-door 1,780.

takes effect in regard to the non-paying classes on the columns which indicate the numbers admitted into Hospital during the year, and will more particularly be pointed out in a subsequent paragraph.*

The columns which relate to the paying classes show in the last line of the present Table, 117 daily in Hospital, in comparison with 86 at the corresponding date last year; and seventeen Constabulary cases, in comparison with only five last year. On the whole it may be stated that the legalization of the practice of admitting poor persons into hospital in cases of accident or serious sickness, not dangerous and contagious, has not, so far, had any very large effect on the number treated, and has not produced any general necessity for increase of accommodation, such as was anticipated by some who opposed that measure when passing through Parliament.

8. We have recently obtained returns to show what number of Irish-born persons have been removed to Ireland from England and Scotland since the close of the last Session of Parliament, when an Act was passed to amend the law of removal from England to Ireland.

The principal amendments in that Act (26 and 27 Vict., cap. 89) are contained in the second, third, fourth and fifth sections, and were intended to provide for the continuous safe custody of the person removed until delivered by the person in charge of him at the Workhouse of the Union in Ireland to which he had been directed by warrant to be removed; and, in the next place, to secure by penalty a strict observance of the section prohibiting females and children under fourteen to be removed as deck passengers in the interval between the 1st October and the 31st March. In the few months which have elapsed since the Act was passed, the provisions above mentioned appear to have been less carefully attended to by the Guardians of English Metropolitan Parishes and Unions than by the removing authorities in other parts of England. We place in the Appendix a series of correspondence which will serve to throw further light on the subject.

9. Considering the long continuance of the distress in Lancashire, the rare occurrence of removals from that county into Ireland is remarkable, and cannot be owing altogether to the operation of the change as to the term and area of the residence which constitutes irremovability, but rather to the liberality of the relief afforded from private as well as public sources.

10. The number of persons who become chargeable and appear likely to remain so in the Irish Workhouses after removal from England and Scotland is not a large proportion of the number actually removed, so far as may be judged from returns recently supplied to us from the Workhouses to which they were removed. Thus, we find that of 222 persons removed from England between the 1st September and the present time,

* Paragraph 17, Table III., page 10.

100 only remain chargeable in the Unions to which they were removed; and of 116 persons removed from Scotland in the same period, 32 were so chargeable. There were, during the same period, 156 persons placed under orders in England who had not arrived at their destination; and 70 under orders from Scotland who had not so arrived.

11. When it is considered that the Irish poor rates are still suffering from the effects of three successive bad seasons, and that the burthen still rests upon Ireland of maintaining Irish-born subjects removed in a destitute state from Great Britain, without any reciprocal right of removing to Great Britain British-born subjects falling destitute in Ireland, it is satisfactory to find that in the first beginning of what we trust may prove to be a series of favourable seasons, so decided a relief has been obtained in the pressure of pauperism and in the burthen of relief expenditure, as we confidently expect will be found to have occurred at the termination of the present financial year.

12. The tide of emigration from Ireland to America, which has set in with increased force during the last twelve months, we believe to have little effect one way or the other on the expenditure of the poor rates in Ireland, beyond the increased amount which the Guardians of Unions may expend in assisting the emigration of such poor persons wishing to emigrate as might otherwise remain, or become chargeable on the rates. By a comparison of the sums contained in the instruments authorizing such expenditure we find that in the twelve months ending 25th March, 1864, the expenditure (viz., £4,770 4*s.* 5*d.*) exceeded that of the preceding twelve months (viz., £2,541 3*s.* 8*d.*,) by £2,229 0*s.* 9*d.*

The parties emigrating at their own expense are of such a class that if they remained in Ireland they would not be likely to become chargeable, and their departure therefore is no relief to the Unions in that respect. It is possible, on the other hand, that some increase to the rates may occur by reason of the emigrant, in a few cases, leaving dependents or relations behind him, who may by his departure be rendered destitute either for a time or permanently; but it is difficult to ascertain the extent to which this may be occurring throughout the country.

13. It will be seen from the last of the series of weekly summaries in paragraph 1, that there were on the 20th of February, 98 persons under treatment at the expense of the poor-rates in fever and other hospitals, not connected with the workhouse; 230 blind in blind asylums; and 144 deaf and dumb in deaf and dumb asylums. The number of "orphans" and "deserted children" out at nurse at the same date was 152.

14. The number of lunatics, idiots, and epileptics in the workhouses of Ireland, on 31st December last, according to a return obtained by us for the Inspectors of Lunatics, was 2,455; consisting of 300 requiring curative treatment; 900 incurable, but requiring medical care and attendance; and 1,255 incurable, but harmless. This number shows an increase in all classes compared with previous returns. When the lunatic asylums now in course of construction are complete, it is hoped the workhouses may be relieved to some extent from a class of inmates for which they are not suited.

We may state in connexion with this subject, that our attention has lately been drawn to institutions established elsewhere, though not yet in Ireland, for the purpose of imparting instruction and alleviative treatment to persons afflicted more or less with idiocy, and it has been proposed to establish one or more institutions in Ireland for similar purposes. Should at any time such institutions be established here, either from private or public funds, we should be disposed to recommend a power to be given to Boards of Guardians to send to them persons capable of receiving improvement there, analogous to the power now possessed of sending blind and deaf and dumb to blind and deaf and dumb asylums respectively.

15. We now submit the statistics relating to the collection of the poor-rate, the poor law relief expenditure, and the number relieved, in-door and out-door, for the year ended 29th September, 1863, in comparison with the same for the preceding year:—

* Not distinguished. † Estimated.

Hence it will be seen that the expectation expressed in the 13th paragraph of last Report, that an increase of numbers relieved, and a small increase of expenditure would take place in comparison with those of the previous year, has been realized but not exceeded.

16. Notwithstanding the degree of distress indicated by the relief returns for the past year, the alleged cases of death from want have been fewer than in former years.

A great facility is now universally afforded to all classes of poor persons in Ireland, not excepting even the holders of land, to obtain admission into the workhouse infirmaries or hospitals for medical treatment in sickness of any description; and we believe that this state of the law, liberally and carefully administered, is the best safeguard which could be furnished against the occurrence of casualties like those referred to. It is satisfactory, at the same time, to observe that much more than half of the out-door relief afforded in the year ended 29th September, 1863, is found from the returns to have been afforded to the families of male or female adults disabled from labour by sickness or accident.

17. The following series of returns are in continuation of similar ones given in our last Annual Report.

The comparative number of deaths in workhouses for ten years past is shown in the succeeding Table, and shows an increase in the last year of 144 in comparison with the previous year, as might be expected from the increased number of persons admitted in sickness, and the increased average daily number throughout the year.

18. We place in the Appendix a copy of a Manual prepared under our authority, for the purpose of enabling the Guardians of Unions to deal more readily with the questions of chargeability on electoral divisions which often come before them in the execution of their duty.* The appeal against the decisions of the Board of Guardians in these cases is subject to our assent; and although we have never refused such assent when pressed for by the parties competent to appeal, no such appeal has ever gone to trial in the course of the twenty years during which this part of the Poor Law has been in operation. The Guardians of Unions, being desirous to avoid the expense of litigation, have taken advantage of the condition attached, as above mentioned, to the privilege of appeal, to apply to the Central Office for advice in all doubtful and difficult cases, and thus a very unsatisfactory description of poor-rate expenditure has, so far, been avoided. The present publication gives at one view all the provisions bearing on the chargeability of electoral divisions, which are scattered through the original Irish Poor Law Act, and the Amendment Acts; and is followed by a selection from the precedents accumulated since the passing of the Act 6 and 7 Vic., cap. 92, which gives the right of appeal.

In another part of the Appendix will be found, with other circulars, one which we addressed to the Guardians of all Unions, explaining the exact state of the law of relief, under the 1st section of 10 Vic., cap. 31, and the 2nd and 3rd sections of 25 and 26 Vic., cap. 83, the recent Amendment Act.† There is a circular also relating to a case of death in Naas Union, in which a Relieving Officer was dismissed by us for gross neglect of duty.‡

We now proceed to submit to your Excellency the Report of our proceedings, under the 14th and 15th Vic., cap. 68, the Medical Charities Act, and the Vaccination Extension Acts of 1858 and 1863.

It appears from this Table that there has been an increase, in some cases considerable, for the last of these years compared with the preceding year, in the number of patients treated, both of those prescribed for at the Dispensaries, and of those visited at their homes in each of the four provinces of Ireland. The comparison of these two years shows an increase in the four provinces for the latter year of 37,231 Dispensary cases, and of 13,206 domiciliary cases—giving a total increase of 50,437 cases. Again, comparing the year ended September 30th, 1853, the first during the whole of which the Medical Charities Act was in full operation, with the last year in the above Table, we find the number of cases prescribed for at the Dispensaries greater for the latter than the former year by 140,654; and the number of cases attended at the patients' homes greater for the latter than the former year by 59,551—giving a total increase of 200,205 cases.

20. The detail of the Medical Relief afforded during the last year in each Dispensary District in Ireland, giving the numbers of cases attended in each, at the Dispensaries and at the patients' homes respectively, will be found in the Appendix.

21. The next Table exhibits the Annual Expenditure for the last ten years under the Medical Charities Act for each province, and for all Ireland. The expenditure for the five last of these afforded by the Dispensaries under the Medical Charities Act for each of the last ten years, in each province, and in the whole of Ireland; distinguishing the cases prescribed for at the Dispensaries from those of a more serious nature requiring attendance at the patients' homes:—

years includes, besides, the expense incurred in carrying out the Vaccination of the poor at the Dispensaries and Vaccination Stations, under the Act for the further promotion of Vaccination of 1858, accounting for the considerable increase of expenditure observable in the Table for the year 1859 compared with 1858.

This Table shows an increased expenditure under the two Acts for the last year, compared with the preceding year, of £2.348. There is an increase for each province, but above two-thirds of it have fallen upon Leinster and Ulster.

Expenses under the Medical Charities Act, year ended 29th September, 1863:—

1.	Medicines and Medical appliances,		£20,552
2.	Rent of Dispensary buildings,		7,139
3.	Books, forms, stationery, printing, and advertising,		1,247
4.	Salaries of { Medical Officers,		67,841
	{ Apothecaries,		2,161
5.	Fuel, porters, and incidental expenses,		5,555
Expenses under Vaccination Act:—
6.	Vaccination fees and other expenses:—
	Fees to Medical Officers,	£4,050	4,711
	Other expenses,	661
			£109,206

The increased expenditure of the last year appears under each of the above heads except the third and fourth, comprising books, forms, stationery, printing, and advertising, and the salaries of Apothecaries; in each of which there has been a slight decrease. The increased expenditure under the remaining heads is not considerable, except the medicines and medical and surgical appliances, and the salaries of Medical Officers. The largest item of increase, that for medicines, &c.—viz., £842—is fully accounted for by the increase in the number of patients treated during the year.

The expenditure incurred for the maintenance of the Dispensary in each Dispensary District, during the last year, is given, under the above heads, in the Appendix.*

23. The average poundage on the valuation of Ireland to provide for the total expenditure was 2·08*d.*, which is slightly above that of the previous year, which was 2·04*d.* in the pound.

24. During the year 1863 the following alterations were effected in the Dispensary Districts, or in the arrangements for conducting the Dispensary medical relief:—

In the Castlederg Union we acceded to the request of the Guardians to revert to the original arrangement of the Dispensary Districts of the Union, by uniting the recently formed Castlederg District with the Killeter District, so as to reconstitute the original Castlederg and Killeter District. In the original District, the four western Electoral Divisions formed an extensive portion of the District remote from the town of Castlederg, where the Medical Officer resided, and the principal motive to form from them the Killeter Dispensary District was, to secure for the sick poor residing within them the services of a resident Medical Officer. In restoring the original District, the Medical Officer of the late Killeter District has been retained, so that the change has been attended with no detriment to the sick poor, while the rate to provide for the support of the Dispensary has been lightened on this part of the District, in which it had been, owing to the very low valuation of the four western Electoral Divisions, disproportionately high, so long as they constituted a separate Dispensary District.

In the course of last year new appointments of midwives have been made in the Kilmackevoge, Portaferry, Coal Island, and

* Appendix D, No. 2, page 180.

Glenarm Dispensary Districts. There are now sixty-four Dispensary Districts in which appointments have been made of midwives, many of whom have received instruction in midwifery in lying-in hospitals, and all of whom have been approved of by the Medical Officers of their Districts. We have assigned, in the 35th paragraph of the Annual Report for 1862, what we consider very strong reasons for looking with favour on these appointments, which are certain, by superseding the ignorant midwife of the peasantry by instructed women, often materially to mitigate the sufferings, and not unfrequently to preserve the lives of mothers and children in childbirth.

The numbers of members of Committees of Management have been increased during the past year in fifteen Dispensary Districts, for the purpose of affording increased facilities to the sick poor for procuring Dispensary relief tickets.

In the Aughnacloy Dispensary District, Clogher Union, the appointment of a second Medical Officer was sanctioned.

25. In 1862, in consequence of having repeatedly received complaints from Boards of Guardians of exorbitant charges by druggists, when medicines not contained in the contract-lists were applied for in the requisitions of Medical Officers, we issued a list, to be used in contracting for the supply of drugs, containing all the medicines which it was at all likely the Medical Officers would at any time require. Since the issue of that list we have received no complaint of this kind.

26. The following table exhibits the numbers of vaccinations performed by the Dispensary Medical Officers, for the first six years in the table, under the Medical Charities Act; and for those since 1858, under this Act and the Act of that year for the further promotion of vaccination.

It will be observed, on inspection of this table, that the vaccinations for each year since 1858 afford satisfactory proof of the beneficial operation of the Vaccination Extension Act of that year, the numbers of persons vaccinated being greatly above those of the six preceding years, with the exception of 1856, the number of vaccinations for which was unusually large, owing to small-pox panic, caused by an epidemic visitation of the disease which extended over all Ireland. Under the operation of both Acts, it appears that the annual numbers of vaccinations have been diminishing from 1859 to 1862, inclusive. For 1863, we have for the first time an increase—that year, compared with 1862, showing an excess of 16,647 vaccinations.

27. Notwithstanding the very beneficial operation of the Act of 1858, we are not disposed to modify in any manner the opinion we have repeatedly expressed in former Reports in favour of compulsory vaccination, which has been established by the Act of last session of Parliament, and is now in operation. Adopting the assumptions of the 12th paragraph of the Report of 1856, which are probably not very wide of the truth, there were about 193,285 children born in Ireland last year, of whom at least 128,850 should have been vaccinated gratuitously by the Dispensary Medical Officers. The number of persons actually vaccinated by these officers last year falls short of this number by 22,340. Thus the vaccinations of last year do not provide for the vaccination of the children born within the year, not to mention the very large number of persons in the general poor population still unvaccinated. But we have good reason to believe that a large majority of the 106,510 vaccinations of last year, were those of persons aged one year or upwards, frequently ten or twelve years, and not unfrequently twenty years or more; while without doubt, of a considerable number of persons never vaccinated, those may be considered fortunate who have not lost their lives by small-pox.

This large number of persons unprotected by vaccination from small-pox, maintained hitherto by an annual contribution of certainly more than 50,000 from the births of the year, is continually exposed to the dangers connected with the frequently recurring epidemic prevalence of small-pox, such as for some weeks last summer raised the mortality from that disease in London to more than eight times its present amount, and the mortality for 1863 to nearly six times that of 1862; and to the danger, which is never absent, of infection from sporadic cases of small-pox continually produced by itinerant inoculators aided by the prejudices, which it is the interest of the inoculators to maintain, of the peasantry in favour of small-pox inoculation in preference to vaccination. The complete success of the Act for compulsory vaccination would cut off the supply of subjects liable to these dangers, and be in consequence productive of great public benefit. If we cannot expect this measure of success, we at least entertain sanguine hopes, that with the earnest co-operation of the Boards of Guardians, the Dispensary Committees of Management, and the Dispensary Medical Officers, the operation of this Act will in a few years greatly diminish amongst the poor of Ireland the number of cases of pure or unmodified small-pox, a disease of great virulence, which has been till now producing every year many cases of blindness, many of constitutions debilitated and unfitted for active labour by the effects of the disease, and many deaths—all preventible.

28. Soon after the passing of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 52, to further extend and make compulsory the practice of Vaccination in Ireland, we issued circulars, with copies of the Act enclosed, to the Boards of Guardians and Dispensary Medical Officers, calling their attention to the provisions of the Act, to the new duties imposed on them by it, and especially to the powers conferred by it on the Guardians to enforce obedience to its provisions.*

29. In anticipation of the increased demand for vaccine lymph which would be created by compulsory Vaccination, and the increased supply necessary for carrying it out, we addressed circulars, in the end of last October, to the Guardians and Dispensary Medical Officers, recommending the Guardians to keep the Medical Officers supplied, at the expense of the rates, with Dr. Husband's capillary tubes, as the best means hitherto proposed for the preservation of vaccine lymph; and pointing out to the Medical Officers the advantages that would accrue from their supplying themselves, in the event of failure of the means of vaccinating from arm to arm, as far as possible, with lymph, selected by themselves, from their own patients. We explained to them the method of charging and hermetically sealing the capillary tubes, and the manner of using them in vaccinating from them; at the same time pointing out the greater satisfaction to themselves, and the greater success in their operations which they might confidently expect from using vaccine lymph, which they were assured, of their own knowledge, was pure, taken from perfect vesicles, and from children in a condition of perfect health, in preference to that procured from the London or Dublin Cow-pock Institutions.† Finally, shortly before the coming into operation of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, we issued, and caused to be extensively posted through the whole country, a placard, shortly and plainly informing the people of the duty imposed by the Act on the parent, or other person having the charge of any child born after the 31st December, 1863, to cause it to be vaccinated within six months after birth, and of the penalty to which such persons would subject themselves by neglect of this duty.

30. In our last Annual Report, in adverting to the sanitary condition of Ireland, we directed attention to the progressive increase in the number of cases of fever recorded by the Dispensary Medical Officers for the three previous years. The numbers for the years ended September 30th, 1860 (in which year the increase commenced), 1861, and 1862, being respectively 10,822, 12,386, and 19,736. We expressed the opinion that the increase in question might be considered as probably the consequence of three successive bad seasons, from which the poor of Ireland generally had suffered much, and in some localities severely. In accordance with this view, the number of Dispensary cases of fever registered for the year ended September 30th, 1863, during nearly the whole of which the bad season of 1862 was producing its unfailing results on the sanitary state of the poor, rose to 23,732. We observe in the same year a considerably increased number of

* Appendix C. II., Nos. 2 & 3, page 167.
† Appendix C. II., No. 5, page 169.

Dispensary cases of scarlatina—the numbers being 4,819 against 2,630 for the year before. In a certain number of particular localities, one or other of these diseases became, for a short time in the course of the year, so rife as to give rise to apprehension or alarm among the Boards of Guardians. We, however, retain the opinion expressed in our last Report, that the increase of fever which has taken place for some years past may be regarded as the natural consequence of three bad seasons in succession; and there is reason to hope that the disease will decline, in proportion as the present more favourable state of the country tells on the condition of the poor.

DEPARTMENTAL ARRANGEMENTS.

31. One of the Medical Inspectors, Dr. Geary, having retired from the service, in consequence of the state of his health, we appointed, as his successor, Dr. Charles Croker King, late Professor of Anatomy and Physiology in the Queen's College at Galway, to be a Medical Inspector under the Medical Charities Act, and also an Inspector under the Poor Law Acts; and in the latter capacity we have assigned to him the Superintendence of a District of Unions in the West of Ireland.

APPENDIX (A).

CIRCULARS OF INSTRUCTIONS AND CORRESPONDENCE UNDER THE POOR LAW ACTS.

I. Circulars.

No. 1.—Annual Revision of Rateable Property.—Valuation Lists.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
April 13, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have received a communication from the Commissioner of Valuation, in which he draws attention to the importance of paying strict attention to the provisions of the 6th sec. of the Valuation Act, 23 Vic., c. 4, in reference to the Valuation Lists and the rates made by Boards of Guardians thereon.

The Commissioners accordingly transmit to you a copy of the section in question; and desire to point out to you that, while the Guardians can, as stated in the Commissioners' Circular Letter, dated the 14th April, 1860,* make any departure in the Rate Book from the particulars contained in the Valuation Lists which may be necessary to make a valid rating in any case, it is necessary, in every such case, to report the alteration which may have been made, whatever its nature may be, whether in the name of the person rated, or in any other respect, to the Commissioner of Valuation.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

Copy of Sec. 6 of the Act 23 Victoria, cap. 4, referred to in the foregoing Circular.

"The lists of Valuation, and of every revision thereof, which the said Commissioner of Valuation is by the said Acts, or either of them, required to make out and transmit to the Guardians of any Union, or to the Town Council of any Borough, or to the Treasurer of any County, shall be in the form specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or in such other form as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from time to time approve of; and such lists may be wholly or in part in print or writing; and no Alteration shall be made in any such list or lists, or in the name of any Occupier or Lessor named therein, save by the Commissioner of Valuation, or by some person duly authorized by him for that purpose, or by the Order of a Court of General or Quarter Sessions upon appeal, or other Court of competent jurisdiction: provided, that for the purpose of any Poor Rate, the Guardians of any Union may make such departure, not affecting value, from the particulars contained in the said lists, as may be necessary, at the time of making the rate, to enable them to make a valid rating under the laws in force for the Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland, subject to such appeal as is now by law provided, and any such departure shall be forthwith reported by the Guardians to the Commissioner of Valuation."

* See Fourteenth Annual Report, page 25.

No. 2.—Registration of Births and Deaths.—Provision of Register Office.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
May 20, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit herewith for the information of the Board of Guardians a copy of the Act for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Ireland (26 Vic., c. 11), which received the royal assent on the 20th ultimo.

The Guardians will no doubt receive, in due course, from the Registrar-General, such instructions as may be necessary with a view to putting the Act into operation ; but in the meantime the Commissioners think it right to draw the attention of the Guardians to the fact that they are required by the 20th sec. of the Act to provide a Register Office according to a plan to be approved by the Registrar-General, and that such Register Office may, with the sanction of the Commissioners, and if the Guardians think fit, be made in some part of the existing Workhouse.

The Commissioners request the Guardians will at once take into consideration the question whether it will be desirable to have a Register Office provided in some part of the Workhouse, or whether it will be better to provide one elsewhere.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 3.—Mode of charging Expenses incurred under the Acts for Registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Ireland.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 15, 1864.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have received several communications containing inquiries as to the mode in which expenses incurred under the Act (26 Vic., c. 11,) for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Ireland, and under the Act (26 and 27 Vic., c. 90,) for the Registration of Marriages in Ireland, should be charged in the Union accounts, and entered in the Abstracts ; and the Commissioners desire therefore to state that an account should be opened in the ledger for this purpose, the expenses incurred being entered on the debit side, and the apportionment of the charge to the several Electoral Divisions, according to net annual value, on the credit side, thus balancing the account.

The charge, as apportioned, may be entered in the Abstract (Form 5 B), in the column immediately following that provided for expenses under the Medical Charities Act.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 4.—Mode of charging Expenses incurred in providing Register Offices, and under the Compulsory Vaccination Act.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, February 8, 1864.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have been informed that, notwithstanding their Circular Letter of the 15th ultimo, doubts are entertained as to what account in the Union Ledger should be debited with the cost incurred in providing Register Offices, under the provisions of the Act 26 Vic., c. 11, and that it is proposed, in some cases, to debit the expenses in question to establishment account. The Commissioners think it right, therefore, to state that they do not think such expenses should be included under the head Establishment, and that it was their intention that the new account, to be opened in accordance with the instructions contained in the Circular above referred to, should comprise all the expenditure incurred under the provisions of the Acts 26 Vic., c. 11, and 26 and 27 Vic., c. 90.

The Commissioners think also that the payments to Registrars, under the 9th sec. of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, for registering Vaccinations, may be debited to the same account, though the payments to the Dispensary Medical Officers for Vaccination should be charged as heretofore.

By order of the Commissioners,
B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 5.—The Law of Relief:—Powers of Boards of Guardians as to In-door and Out-door Relief respectively.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, June 15, 1863.

Referring to the Circular Letter of the 14th August last,* accompanying a copy of the Poor Law Amendment Act of last Session, and drawing attention to the various changes made in the law by that Act, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that, notwithstanding the explanations then afforded, misapprehension and uncertainty as to the actual state of the law of relief have been shown to exist on the part of individual Guardians, and even, in some instances, on the part of Boards of Guardians.

The Commissioners think it may be useful, therefore, to place before the Guardians of Unions, at one view, the several provisions of the law in this respect, the powers which the Guardians have in relation to in-door and out-door relief, respectively, and the discretion they possess in particular classes of cases.

The only ground on which relief can legally be afforded, either in or out of the Workhouse, except in cases requiring medical treatment in hospital, is destitution; and the Guardians are required by the 1st sec. of the 10th Vic., c. 31, to make provision for the due relief (either in or out of the Workhouse, as they shall think fit in each individual case,) of all destitute poor persons of the following classes:—

1. Persons permanently disabled from labour by reason of old age, infirmity, or bodily or mental defect.

2. Persons disabled from labour by reason of severe sickness or serious accident.

* See Sixteenth Annual Report, page 60.

3. Widows having two or more legitimate children dependent upon them.

The same section requires the Guardians to take order for relieving and setting to work in the Workhouse such other persons, not included in any of the three classes above defined, as they shall deem to be destitute; but by the 10th section of the same Act, called the Quarter-acre Section, it was declared that no person in the occupation of more than the quarter of a statute acre of land should be deemed to be destitute, and that it should not be lawful for any Board of Guardians to grant relief within or out of the Workhouse to any such person.

When the Poor Law Amendment Bill of last session was introduced, a clause was inserted repealing the Quarter-acre Section absolutely, but in the progress of the Bill through Parliament the clause was modified and although the section in question has been repealed by the 2nd section of the 25 and 26 Vic., c. 83, a proviso has been added, to the effect that persons occupying more than a quarter of an acre of land shall not be relieved by the Board of Guardians otherwise than in the Workhouse. The Guardians cannot, therefore, give out-door relief to persons occupying more than a quarter of an acre of land, even though they may fall within one of the three classes above mentioned as those in which out-door relief may be given if the Guardians think fit; but the provisional powers of the Relieving Officers in regard to cases of sudden and urgent necessity are equally applicable in cases of persons holding more than a quarter of an acre of land as in other cases where sudden and urgent necessity occurs.

By the 16th section of the 6 and 7 Vic., c. 92, the Guardians were empowered to provide relief in the Fever Hospital for "poor persons" (as distinguished from destitute poor,) affected with fever, or other dangerous contagious disease, and this power has, by the 3rd section of the recent Act, been extended, so as to enable them to admit into the infirmary of the Workhouse "any poor persons" requiring medical or surgical aid in hospital; and a proviso is added to the effect that it shall not be made a condition of admission to the Workhouse that the person requiring admission shall be accompanied by any member of his or her family.

The effect of the provisions above referred to may be shortly stated as follows:—Out-door relief may be given, if the Guardians think fit, to destitute poor persons permanently disabled from labour; to destitute poor persons disabled from labour by reason of severe sickness or serious accident; and to destitute poor widows having two or more legitimate children dependent upon them; provided such persons do not occupy more than a quarter of a statute acre of land; but in the case of any person, even when comprised in any of the above classes, holding more than a quarter of an acre of land, relief can only be given to the occupier himself in the Workhouse or Workhouse hospitals; but on the admission of such occupier, being destitute and disabled by sickness, to the Workhouse, it is considered that, while he is so receiving relief, the Guardians can, if they see fit, afford out-relief to the family.

The Commissioners have to observe, in conclusion, that it is the province of the Guardians assembled at the meeting to which application for relief may be made, to decide on the mode of relieving the applicant; and no resolution, passed by a previous meeting of the Guardians, which purports to determine the mode in which applicants generally, or in which applicants of any particular class shall be relieved, has any binding effect on the Guardians assembled at any future meeting.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 6.—Duties of Relieving Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
December 5, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state, for the information of the Board of Guardians that a case has recently occurred in Naas Union, in which a poor woman died shortly after her admission to the Workhouse, and in which, a Coroner's inquest having been held, the Jury expressed an opinion that the Relieving Officer had been guilty of neglect of duty in not visiting her and affording relief more promptly than he did.

On this coming to the knowledge of the Commissioners, they instructed the Inspector in charge of the Union to institute an inquiry on oath into the circumstances of the case, and the facts elicited at the inquiry are so strongly illustrative of the great importance of a strict attention on the part of the Relieving Officers to their duty, as laid down in the General Regulations, of visiting the cases of all applicants for relief, and of affording immediate relief in cases of urgent necessity, that it has been deemed advisable that the case should be made generally known to Boards of Guardians for the information of their respective Relieving Officers.

The case referred to was that of one of the unfortunate women who frequent the neighbourhood of the Camp on the Curragh of Kildare, residing in what is termed a "Bush," which is described by one of the witnesses as a space among the furze protected at the sides by sods and by bushes, but without any roof. The poor woman, becoming ill, made her case known to one of the caretakers of the Curragh, by whom, after some delay, it was reported to the Police, who promptly reported it to the Relieving Officer. This proceeding, it appears, was, so far, in accordance with a practice which had grown up in the District, by which the women on the Curragh, when in need of relief, were in the habit of applying to one of the caretakers or to the Police, instead of applying direct to the Relieving Officer, the Relieving Officer acting upon the information received from the caretaker or the Constabulary, without making any inquiry himself. The conduct of the Relieving Officer in thus permitting one of the most important parts of his duty to be performed by persons not in any degree responsible under the Poor Law for the performance of those duties, was highly culpable, and in the present case there was the further and still greater culpability of omitting to take any effectual steps by which relief would be afforded until a period of thirty-six hours had elapsed from the time when the case came to his knowledge. According to the medical evidence there was reason to suppose that the poor woman had been suffering from fever, and that her death was caused by prostration of the vital functions from want of necessary care and treatment in her illness, and that it was accelerated by wet and exposure to cold. It is therefore probable, that, although relief was finally afforded, the delay which occurred in affording it may have led to the fatal consequences which ensued, and hence the Commissioners felt it to be their duty to dismiss the Relieving Officer by a Sealed Order.

The Commissioners' Circular Letter of the 29th December, 1858,* in which the Guardians were requested to furnish information to each Constabulary Station, in order to enable the Constabulary to bring promptly under the notice of the proper party any case of destitution of an urgent character which might come under their observation, does not in any way lessen or interfere with the responsibility of the Relieving Officers, the recommendation in that Circular being intended merely to increase the facility of conveying information possessed by the Police, as to cases of distress, to the persons responsible for affording relief according to the Relief Acts in force and the regulations of the Commissioners.

The Guardians are aware that the General Regulations of the Commissioners, prescribing the duties of Union Officers, are printed and published separately, and may be purchased from the Queen's Printer in Dublin, the supply provided in this Office, to the extent of upwards of 6,000 copies, being nearly exhausted. The Commissioners request that the Guardians will take care that the Clerk of the Union is never without a sufficient stock to enable him to keep the Officers of the Union, and most especially the Relieving Officers, supplied with copies for their guidance in the performance of their respective duties.

The Commissioners request that a copy of this Circular may be handed to each of the Relieving Officers, for which purpose copies are enclosed.*

No. 7.—Costs of Maintenance of Illegitimate Children.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,

Sir, June 17, 1863.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of the Act 26 Vic., c. 21, (which received the royal assent on the 8th instant,) to amend the law enabling Boards of Guardians to recover costs of maintenance of illegitimate children.

This Act, it will be observed, repeals the provisions contained in the Poor Law Amendment Act of last session, relating to the recovery of the cost of maintenance of illegitimate children from the putative fathers, except so far as relates to any proceedings already taken, or the continuance of any proceedings already commenced, under those provisions, and prescribes the mode of proceeding in future cases.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 8.—Removal of Poor Persons, Natives of Ireland, from England.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,

Sir, August 25, 1863.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of an Act which received the royal assent on the 28th ultimo, for the further amendment of the law relating to the removal of poor persons, natives of Ireland, from England.

It will be observed that, by the first section, the provision of the existing law, which enabled the removing authorities in England to cause the delivery of the person to be removed, at the Workhouse of the Union containing the port nearest to the place of his ultimate destination, is repealed from the 28th instant, and that according to section 4 the person employed in the execution of the removal warrant is bound, under a penalty, to convey the person named in the warrant to the place of destination. For this purpose the 3rd section of the 8 and 9 Vic., c. 117, which gives the person to whom the removal warrant is delivered the powers of a constable in reference to the person to be removed, is by the 2nd section declared to apply to Ireland as well as to England.

* See also the letter addressed to the Board of Guardians of the Union in which the case occurred. Page 26.

The 5th section renders any person violating the provision of the previous Act which prohibits the removal of women and children at certain seasons of the year as deck passengers, liable to a penalty.

By the 7th section provision is made for inquiring into the circumstances attending any case of removal in which the Guardians shall think themselves aggrieved by the removal, and in which the Commissioners are satisfied that it will be expedient to make such inquiry; and the Commissioners are empowered, if they think fit, to appeal, on behalf of the Guardians, against the removal in any case so inquired into.

It will be observed that the present Act relates exclusively to removals from England, and that the law relating to removals from Scotland to Ireland has not been altered.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 9.—Vaccination.—Mode of procuring Vaccine Lymph.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,

Sir, October 28, 1863.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, forward, for the information of each Board of Guardians in Ireland, a copy of a Circular Letter, which is now in course of being issued by them to the Medical Officers of the Dispensary Districts,* recommending them to adopt the use of Dr. Husband's Capillary Tubes, as a means of supplying themselves with vaccine lymph from eligible cases within their own practice as public vaccinators, and of preserving the lymph in a fluid state.

The Guardians will observe that the cost of procuring the empty tubes is about 1*s.* per hundred, and that the Commissioners consider the expense of a proper supply for each Medical Officer is a legal charge upon the Poor Rates, in the same way as the cost of medical or surgical appliances, under the Medical Charities Act.

The Commissioners recommend the Guardians not to hesitate to incur the small cost of furnishing these tubes for use by the Medical Officers, whenever a requisition is sent in to that effect by a Dispensary Committee.

The Medical Officer of the Workhouse will probably wish to be furnished occasionally with the same appliances for taking and preserving lymph for use in the Workhouse, and a copy of the circular and a box of empty tubes is sent herewith for his use and information.

The tubes now forwarded were obtained from Mr. Robert Somerville, of No. 10, Spring Gardens, Stockbridge, Edinburgh, from whom a supply can be at any time obtained.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

II.—CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the BOARD of GUARDIANS of NAAS UNION in REFERENCE to the CASE OF ROSANNA DOYLE.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
SIR, November 16th, 1863.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, have received Mr. Robinson's Report of the Inquiry which he held on the 6th inst., respecting the death of a woman named Rosanna Doyle, which occurred at the Workhouse of Naas Union on the 19th ult., a few minutes after her admission, and whose death was considered by the Jury on the inquest to have been accelerated by neglect and exposure to cold ; the Jury at the same time expressing an opinion that Patrick Cosgrave, Relieving Officer, was guilty of neglect in not visiting and relieving her, when informed by the Police of her sick and destitute state on the 17th October.

From the evidence taken by Mr. Robinson, it appears that on Friday, the 16th October, James Greany, who is one of the deputy rangers or caretakers on the Curragh, went to the shop of a woman named Dolan, and there learned from her that there was a girl in her house who was sick. He then went into the kitchen, where he found Rosanna Doyle, who told him she wanted to get into the Workhouse, and he promised to report her ; he did not, however, do so until the following day, when he went to one of the Police stations, and reported the case to Constable Best, in order that he might send for the Relieving Officer, who resides at Kildare, a distance of about three miles from the station. This was about four o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, the 17th of October, and there is no doubt that the report which was made by Constable Best was delivered at the Relieving Officer's house between five and six o'clock the same afternoon ; the Relieving Officer, however, being absent from home at the time, did not see the note until about seven o'clock in the evening. The note stated that the woman was sick and in a destitute state, that Mr. Greany thought her a bad case, and it also indicated where she was to be found, viz., "in a furze bush opposite Greany's house." A "Bush" is described by one of the witnesses to be a space among the furze, protected at the side by sods and by bushes, but without any roof. Notwithstanding the urgent nature of the case, as shown by Constable Best's note, the Relieving Officer took no step in the matter until the following morning about eight o'clock, when he went to a person named Bergin, who is employed by him in conveying sick persons to the Workhouse, and asked him to go for Rosanna Doyle ; this, however, Bergin expressed himself unwilling to do at that time, in consequence of having been out late the night before on similar business. The Relieving Officer did not press him to go, nor did he endeavour to obtain the services of some other person, but arranged with Bergin that he should go for the woman next morning ; neither did he visit the woman himself, nor does it appear that he made any further inquiries, or took any further step in the case.

On the following morning (Monday) Bergin went to the Curragh, arriving there about eight o'clock. He found Rosanna Doyle lying in a bush. He states that she was lying on her side, with very bad clothing on, and a sack over her ; and that she was as wet as if she had come out of a river ; that she was not able to stand from weakness, and when removed had to be lifted into the cart. From the evidence of a woman named Bridget Lyon, it appears that Rosanna Doyle had remained in the same bush from the Saturday previous, and had been exposed to the weather, which had been very inclement, during the two nights of Saturday and Sunday. When Bergin arrived it was proposed by some of the women who were with Rosanna Doyle, that she should have breakfast before she left, and he waited while it was cooked, and saw her eat a little and drink some tea ; she was then placed upon the donkey cart, with some straw under her and a sack over her, and after a journey of about three hours, she arrived at the Workhouse. The Assistant Matron of the Workhouse states, that when she arrived she had very little clothing on, and was wet to the skin ; that she could not get out of the cart, and was carried into the house, and was dying at the time. She expired in about ten minutes, notwithstanding the efforts made to revive her by giving her hot punch, and placing a hot brick at her feet. The Medical Officer was sent for immediately on her arrival, but she died before he could reach the Workhouse, and there is no doubt that medical aid would have been then unavailing. The Medical Officer is of opinion that she had been suffering from fever, with which he thinks she must have been attacked about the Wednesday previous ; and he states that his impression is, that her death was caused by prostration of the vital functions, from want of necessary care and treatment in the illness under which he conceives she was labouring, and he has no doubt that her death was accelerated by exposure to wet and cold.

On a review of the evidence given in this distressing case, it appears to be impossible to arrive at any other conclusion than that expressed by the Medical Officer ; and although it does not appear that Rosanna Doyle suffered from want of food, there can be no doubt that her sufferings from exposure to wet and cold in the open air for two nights and a day while she was labouring under serious illness, and after her case had been made known to the Relieving Officer, must have been very great, and that her death was hastened by her failure to obtain that relief which should have been afforded her at a much earlier period, and which she herself sought for on the Friday previous.

In regard to the conduct of the Relieving Officer, the Commissioners feel bound to state that they entirely concur with the Jury at the inquest in the blame which they attach to him, and they are unable to agree with the Board of Guardians that he has explained the circumstances satisfactorily. The case was brought under his notice on Saturday evening ; it was stated to him that the woman was destitute and sick, that it was believed to be a bad case, and that the woman was lying in a bush—that is, she was exposed to the inclemency of the weather. Notwithstanding the manifest urgency of the case, he made no inquiry and took no step in the matter until the following morning, and even then he did not make any inquiries, but merely went to a person whom he is in the habit of employing to convey paupers to the Workhouse, and requested him to go to the Curragh to fetch the woman ; and on that person's expressing himself unwilling to do so at that time, he contented himself by arranging with the man that he should go for her on the following morning. His excuse for not endeavouring to find another conveyance on Sunday morning, when he found that Bergin was unwilling to go, and for not pressing Bergin to do so, is, that the woman had been admitted to the Workhouse only a short time before on the plea of illness, when she was found not to be ill, and left in three days after her admission ; and further, that he had been often disappointed when he sent for women of this class, who, when sent for, would not go into the Workhouse. These grounds of excuse would be wholly insufficient, even in an ordinary case, for the omission to make prompt inquiry into the circumstances of the applicant ; but in a case like the present, when the application made to him clearly showed that the case was one requiring the exercise of his provisional powers—the woman being stated to be sick and destitute, a bad case, and without shelter—the omission, not only to make any inquiry, but to make any arrangements whatever by which relief would be afforded until after an interval of nearly thirty-six hours from the time when the application reached him, is so gross a violation of the ordinary duties of a Relieving Officer, and of the common dictates of humanity, that the Commissioners feel bound to mark their sense of Mr. Cosgrave's conduct in the severest manner in their power, and they have accordingly issued an order, a copy of which is herewith enclosed, dismissing him from his situation.

In connexion with this case it seems necessary to consider the existing arrangements for affording relief to applicants from this part of the Union. A practice appears to have grown up, and to have been countenanced by the Relieving Officer, under which the women on the Curragh, of the class to which Rosanna Doyle belonged, have been in the habit of applying for relief through the caretakers or the Police, instead of direct to the Relieving Officer. It is stated in evidence by James Greany, that Mr. Browne (the Ranger) told him, if he found any of the prostitutes sick or in a bad way, to report them to the Police or Relieving Officer, and that he mostly reported them to the Police. Constable Best states that the deputy rangers made a practice of reporting such cases to him, and that he went to the Relieving Officer, as he wanted to know if there were any special rules for the Curragh Camp, and that he asked him whether he depended upon him to report cases of destitution and illness among the Curragh women; that the Relieving Officer did not give him any very direct answer, but said he would at once attend to cases mentioned by the Constable in his note to be bad ones; and the Constable promised that he would, when he could do so, inquire into the condition of the woman before reporting the case. Mr. Cosgrave admits that if Greany or the Police send to say that a woman is sick he sends the cart at once, but does not usually visit such cases. It thus appears that one of the most important duties of the Relieving Officer has, with his concurrence, been constantly performed by caretakers or the Police, and that, trusting to this assistance, the Relieving Officer has neglected his own duty of visiting and ascertaining for himself the particulars of the cases requiring relief. It was undoubtedly a humane proceeding on the part of the Ranger to direct his caretaker to report cases of sickness among the women on the Curragh, and the conduct of the Police in endeavouring to obtain relief for the sick and destitute was most praiseworthy; and it is very desirable that both the caretakers and the Police should continue to notify to the Relieving Officer any cases of sickness and destitution which come under their observation, and should inform him of any particulars of such cases with which they may be acquainted, as to their fitness to be removed or otherwise; but it should be distinctly understood that the Relieving Officer is responsible for making inquiries, and for affording prompt relief in cases of urgency, as it cannot be permitted that the efficiency and promptitude with which relief is afforded in urgent cases should be dependent upon the voluntary action of persons not legally responsible, either to the Board of Guardians or the Commissioners. The practice referred to may have been occasioned in some degree by the fact that the Relieving Officer's residence is by no means conveniently situated, having regard to the condition and wants of the unfortunate women who live near the Curragh Camp, his residence being at Kildare, about three miles from the Camp, in the opposite direction from the Workhouse; so that persons on the Curragh requiring admission to the Workhouse, and going to Kildare to apply for it, have six additional miles to travel.

From a return furnished to Mr. Robinson, it appears that during the year ended the 31st ult. there were 422 applicants for relief in Mr. Cosgrave's Application and Report Book, and that of this number 163 were from the Curragh. It seems important, therefore, not only from the wretched condition of these unfortunate women, but also from the fact that the number from that locality requiring and receiving relief greatly exceeds the number in any other division of the district, that the Relieving Officer of the district should be required to reside as near as possible to the Camp; and the Commissioners suggest, therefore, that the Relieving Officer who may be appointed in place of Mr. Cosgrave should be required to reside at Newbridge, which is much nearer to the Camp than Kildare, and directly on the road from the Camp to the Workhouse, and is more accessible for the women on the Curragh, and for those who are in the neighbourhood of the Barracks at Newbridge, than Kildare. It is also in about as central a position in regard to the rest of the district as Kildare, and the return above mentioned shows that the place from which, after the Curragh, the greatest number of applications is received is Kilcullen; and as that place is nearer to Newbridge than Kildare, the change would also be convenient in that respect.

It would also be desirable that the Relieving Officer residing at Newbridge should visit the Curragh at least three times a week, and that he should be provided with an office there.

Another point which the Commissioners think it necessary to notice in connexion with this case, is the mode of conveyance adopted for sick paupers. It appears that Rosanna Doyle was removed on a common ass's cart, and that she was three hours on the journey, a mode of conveyance which must have added much to her sufferings, considering the state in which she was at the time. The Commissioners observe by an entry on the Guardian's Minutes of the 28th ult., that the Jury not only recommend that a proper covered vehicle be provided, but express regret that a similar recommendation of a former Jury was not attended to. The Commissioners do not find any record of such a recommendation on any former Minutes of the Guardians, but they find an entry on the Minutes of 29th January, 1862, from which it appears that Mr. Hamilton, Poor Law Inspector, forwarded to the Guardians the plan of a van which he had referred to at his previous visit, with which it is stated "the Guardians were much pleased, but they have one already which they consider sufficient for the wants of the Union."

The Commissioners are glad to observe that the Guardians have now ordered a covered spring-cart for the conveyance of sick persons to the Workhouse, and the Commissioners suggest that it should be kept by the Relieving Officer at Newbridge, and that the Guardians should make arrangements to have it horsed by contract, the contractor to be bound to send it out at any hour of the day or night, on the order of a Relieving Officer or the Master of the Workhouse.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

III.—CORRESPONDENCE ON THE SUBJECT OF THE REMOVAL OF POOR PERSONS FROM ENGLAND TO IRELAND.

No. 1.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
December 24, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to report for the information of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the accompanying cases of removal of persons, born in Ireland, from Unions and Parishes in the London Metropolitan District, under the provisions of the Act passed in the last session of Parliament, "for the further amendment of the law relating to the removal of poor persons, natives of Ireland, from England:" 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89.

The main objects of that enactment the Commissioners believe to have been, firstly, the removal of the parties in continuous safe custody from the place in England in which they received relief to the Workhouse of the Union in Ireland to which they were considered to belong, as indicated in the warrant of removal; and, secondly, to give effect by a penalty of £5 to a previously existing enactment, by which the removal of a female, or of any child under fourteen years of age, as a deck passenger was prohibited, during the period from the 1st October to the 31st March following.

Previously to the passing of the present Act the mode of removing Irish-born subjects from the Metropolitan Unions and Parishes to Ireland, and more especially to the South of Ireland, was to place them in the hands of a person named Frost, resident at Wapping, who contracted to have them conveyed to the port nearest the place of destination. This port, in regard to the Unions in the South of Ireland, was, in almost all cases, the port of Cork, and here the London contractor, Frost, had an agent representing him, named Fitzgerald, whose business it was to receive the paupers and forward them to their destination.

Neither of the two persons referred to was the officer of any Union or parish, and neither of them therefore in the discharge of their respective agencies was under any official responsibility; and in regard to the frequent violations of the provisions of the Removal Acts (as set forth in the Appendices to the Annual Reports for 1862 and 1863), both the persons referred to were equally out of the reach of the authority of the Poor Law Board in England and that of the Poor Law Commissioners in Ireland, and thus the Union and parochial authorities in London were accustomed to transfer, in the removal of paupers to Ireland, all the legal obligations imposed on them to persons not officially responsible for the proper discharge of those obligations.

In their letter to Sir Thomas Larcom, of the 29th January, 1862, the Commissioners observed as follows:

"The more serious irregularities noticed occur in the cases of removal from parishes and Unions in the London Metropolitan District, inasmuch as those provisions of the recent Act which were introduced to secure a proper custody and delivery of the pauper in Ireland, and to prevent women and children being sent by deck passage during the winter season, appear in that district to be almost uniformly neglected.

In the Amendment Act passed subsequently to this Report, the following sections were included, with a view, apparently, to remove these causes of complaint, and to secure a continuous safe custody of the person removed from the place of arrest in England to the place of destination in Ireland.

Thus the 2nd section of the new Act provides that "Section 3 of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of her Majesty, chapter 117, shall be deemed to have applied and to apply to Ireland as well as to England." That is to say—"every person to whom any warrant made in pursuance of this Act shall be delivered for the purpose of being carried into execution, shall detain and hold in safe custody every poor person mentioned therein until such poor person have arrived at the place to which he is ordered to be removed, and shall for that purpose in every county and place through which he may pass in the due execution of such warrant, have and exercise the powers with which a constable is by law invested, notwithstanding such person may not otherwise be empowered to act as a constable for such county or place."

By the 4th section of the present Act it is further provided that "any person, being employed in the execution of a warrant duly issued under the authority of the said Acts, or any of them, who shall wilfully desert any person mentioned therein, before he or she shall have been conveyed to the place of destination, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £10."

With regard to the deck-passage for women and children in the winter season, it is enacted that "any person guilty of violating the provisions contained in the 6th section of the Act of 24th and 25th Vic., cap. 76, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5; to be recovered on a summary conviction before two Justices, or a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, and the offence shall be deemed to have been committed at the port where the poor person shall be landed."

As already observed, these provisions have every appearance of being intended to provide for a continuous safe custody of the person removed in the hands of some responsible person selected by the Guardians, to whom "the warrant is delivered for the purpose of being carried into execution."

The annexed abstract, however, of a few of the cases removed from London to Ireland shows that the same practice is still pursued by the removing authorities as before the passing of the Act, that the obligation of causing the poor persons under warrant to be safely removed is transferred by the Guardians to the contractor for deportation, resident at Wapping; that the same neglect regarding the deck-passage for women and children continues to be complained of; and that the parties are not conveyed in continuous custody to the place of destination, but generally left to find their way to it during the latter portion of the journey in Ireland.

In consequence of the improper transfer of their obligations by the removing authorities to irresponsible persons, it is very difficult to determine to what party the penal provisions of the recent statute, when violated, may be applicable, and the Commissioners have thought it the better course not to suggest prosecution in the first instance, but to represent the cases in question to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with the view of having them brought, if his Excellency should see fit to cause them to be so brought, under the notice of the Secretary of State for the Home Department; by which course it is possible the evils complained of may be obviated without litigation, as it is difficult to suppose that the Guardians of the Unions and parishes in the metropolitan district would desire to persist in a course of action pointed out to them on competent official authority to be at variance with the provisions recently enacted.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Right Hon. Sir Robert Peel, Bart., M.P.

Enclosure in foregoing Letter.

Memorandum of some Cases of Removal since the passing of the Act 26 & 27 Vic., Cap. 89.

Cork Union.—Warrant, dated 27th August, 1863, directed to Samuel George Tett, Constable to the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the parish of St. James's, Westminster, requiring Samuel George Tett, or some proper person or persons to be employed by him, to remove and convey Ellen Mason from the parish of St. James's, Westminster, to the parish of Lower Glanmoyle, in the county of Cork, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of Cork Union. She was taken from the Workhouse of St. James's, Westminster, by the Pass-master, Mr. Tett, to the house of Mr. Frost, who took her on board a steamer next morning. Mr. Frost gave her the address of Mr. Fitzgerald, in Cork, and said that he (Fitzgerald) would meet her at the boat, which, however, he did not; but having the address she went to his house and slept and breakfasted there, and was then taken by Fitzgerald to the Workhouse. She was sent from London as a deck-passenger.

The warrant in this case is not in accordance with the form given in the Act of last session.*

North Dublin Union.—Warrant, dated 11th September, 1863, directed to Samuel George Tett, Constable of the parish of St. James's, requires him, or some proper person or persons to be employed by him, to remove Thomas Connor from the parish of St. James's, Westminster, and to cause him to be conveyed to the city of Dublin, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of North Dublin Union. There is no doubt the man was legally removable, but the removal was not conducted in accordance with the 4th section of the 26th and 27th Vic. cap. 89. He was taken by Tett (the person named in the warrant), to St. Catherine's Dock, and given in charge to Mr. Frost, who placed him on board a Dublin steamer and paid his fare; but no person accompanied him or had charge of him on the voyage. He landed in Dublin on a Tuesday evening, and came (by himself) to the workhouse on the following morning.

The warrant in this case is not in accordance with the form given in the Act of last session.†

Rathkeale Union.—Warrant, dated 12th September, 1863, addressed to the Guardians of the city of London Union, orders the Guardians to cause Catherine Ray, with her family to be safely conveyed to the Union of Rathkeale, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union. There is no doubt that she was legally removable, but the 4th section of the Act appears to have been violated. She was sent from the Workhouse to the London Docks in charge of one of the Workhouse inmates, where they were met by a person whom she does not know, but who she thought was one of the Guardians. This person put her on board a steamer, and gave her in charge to the steward. On the arrival of the steamer at Limerick the steward placed her in the train, and paid her fare to Rathkeale, giving her at the same time 1*s.* 6*d.*‡

Tralee Union.—Warrant, dated 29th September, 1863, directed to the Guardians of the Strand Union, requires them to cause Margaret Ryan to be safely conveyed to the Tralee Union and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union. She was forwarded by steamer to Cork, and thence sent on by a Mr. Fitzgerald by rail to Tralee, but she was not accompanied by any person directly in charge of her. She was sent as a deck-passenger.§

Skibbereen Union.—Warrant, dated 7th October, 1863, addressed to the Guardians of Whitechapel Union, requires the Guardians, or some proper person or persons to be employed by them, to remove and convey Margaret Casey from the parish of Christchurch, "and to cause her to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Skibbereen Union, in the county of Cork, in Ireland, such Union containing the port of Cork." She was sent from London as a deck-passenger, and was not delivered at the Workhouse, having been taken by the Removing Officer to Bandon, where he hired a cart to convey her and some other paupers to Drimoleague. but did not accompany them there. Drimoleague is eight miles from the Workhouse of Skibbereen Union, and the pauper had to walk by herself that distance.

In this case the warrant is not in accordance with the form given in the Act of last session.‖

Cork Union.—Warrant, dated 21st October, 1863, addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of Whitechapel Union, requires the Guardians to cause Ellen Johnson to be safely conveyed to the Union of the city of Cork, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union. She states that an officer accompanied her to Cork, and there gave her in charge to a man named Fitzgerald, who brought her to the Workhouse.¶

Cork Union.—Warrant, dated 28th October, 1863, addressed to James Evers, assistant Relieving Officer of the Guardians of Whitechapel Union, requires said James Evers, or some proper person or persons to be employed by him, to remove Mary Cronin and four children to the county of Cork, to be delivered at the Workhouse of Cork Union. She states that she had lived nineteen years in Crown-court, Whitechapel, where she became chargeable. She was delivered at the Workhouse by Mr. Fitzgerald, to whom she was given in charge by a man who was sent from London by Mr. Frost with her and four other persons.

In this case the warrant is not in accordance with the form given in the Act of last session.*

Tralee Union.—Warrant, dated 11th November, 1863, directed to Peter Dixon, Removing Officer, and the Guardians of the parish of St. Luke, orders the removal of Bridget Sullivan and one child to the parish of Castleisland, to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Kerry Union. She was brought by the Removing Officer to Castleisland (the place of her birth). He paid for her lodging there for one night, and she was sent on to the Workhouse next day by the Relieving Officer of Tralee Union. She was sent from London as a deck passenger.

The warrant in this case is not in accordance with the form given in the Act of last session.†

Killarney Union.—Warrant, dated 20th November, 1863, addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of Hackney Union, requires the Guardians to cause Julia Sweeney to be safely conveyed to the port of Cork, and to the Union of Killarney; and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union. She was taken by the Passmaster to Mr. Frost's house at Wapping, where she slept, and next day was put on board a steamer, and sailed for Cork. Mr. Frost put her in charge of a man called "William," who is in Mr. Frost's employment. On landing at Cork the man referred to (William) took her to Mr. Fitzgerald, who, next day, took her to Killarney Workhouse. She was sent from London as a deck passenger.‡

Killarney Union.—Warrant, dated 23rd November, 1863, addressed to the Guardians of the Holborn Union, requires the Guardians to cause Mary Sullivan and her family to be safely conveyed to the Union of Killarney, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union. They were taken from the Workhouse to Mr. Frost's house at Wapping, where they slept, and next day were put on board a steamer by Mr. Frost, and placed in charge of a person in his employment called "William," who, on arriving at Cork, gave them in charge to Mr. Fitzgerald, who found a lodging for them for the night, and next day took them to Killarney Workhouse. They were sent from London as deck passengers.§

North Dublin Union.—Warrant, dated 24th November, 1863, addressed to Peter Dixon, Removing Officer, and to the Guardians of the parish of St. Luke, requires Peter Dixon, or some proper person or persons to be employed by him, to remove Ellen Farrell and her children to the city of Dublin, to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Dublin Union. She was taken, with her children, by an officer of St. Luke's to Mr. Frost's depôt, where they remained that night. Next morning Mr. Frost put them on board the Dublin steamer, and gave them in charge to the Stewardess, who, on the arrival of the vessel in Dublin, brought them to the North Dublin Workhouse. The following memoranda are indorsed on the warrant:—

"Memorandum.—The within-named persons was received into the South Dublin Union from the Passmaster, John Frost, 46, High-street, Wapping."

"Copy.—Ellen Farrell, adult; Mary, 8 years; Francis, 6 years. From St. Luke to Dublin ~~South~~ North Union—Eliza De Gurdice."

This appears to be the signature of the Stewardess, and the change of the word "South" to "North" appears to be in the same handwriting.

In this case the warrant is not in accordance with the form given in the Act of last session.‖

Scariff Union.—Warrant, dated 24th November, 1863, addressed to the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, requires the Governors and Directors to cause Anne Thornton to be safely conveyed to the Union of Scariff, to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union. She was taken by the Removing Officer to Mr. Frost's, where she remained one night, and was then put on board a Cork steamer as a deck passenger. Was accompanied from London to Cork by a boy believed to be a servant of Mr. Frost's. This boy gave her some provisions, and on arriving at Cork, paid her fare by train to Limerick, and gave her two shillings to take her from Limerick to Killaloe, her place of birth, in Scariff Union, but made no provision for her conveyance from thence to Scariff.¶

She was accompanied from London by a young man sent by Mr. Frost, and on arriving in Cork was given in charge to Mr. Fitzgerald, who provided her, as she says, with lodging, but no food, and on the following morning she went to the Workhouse, and Mr. Fitzgerald followed her.*

Cork Union.—Warrant dated 8th December, 1863, addressed to the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the parish of St. James, Westminster, requires the Governors and Directors to cause Margaret Murgeth, and her daughter Amelia (aged seventeen years), to be safely conveyed to the Cork Union, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union. The next morning they went to the Workhouse, and were followed by Mr. Fitzgerald with the warrant.†

No. 2.—Copy of Correspondence between the Poor Law Board in England and the several Boards of Guardians mentioned in the foregoing Memorandum in reference to the Cases of Removal therein set forth.

Catherine Ray's Case.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
January 12, 1864.

Sir,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to state that Secretary Sir George Grey has forwarded to them a letter addressed to the Irish Government by the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, accompanied by memoranda of cases of removal of persons born in Ireland, from Unions and parishes in the London Metropolitan District under the provisions of the Act 26 & 27 Victoria, cap. 89, in which it is alleged that the provisions of the law have been disregarded.

A copy of the memorandum relating to the case of Catherine Ray and her family, removed from the City of London Union by warrant dated the 12th September, 1863, is herewith enclosed ; and the Board request that you will lay the same before the Guardians of the City of London Union, and that the Board may be furnished with any observations which the Guardians may deem it necessary to make thereon.

I am, &c.,

To J. Bowring, esq., Clerk to the Guardians of the City of London Union, St. Mary-Axe, E.C.

51, Saint Mary-Axe, E.C.,
January 21, 1864.

Sir,

I am directed by the Board of Guardians of the City of London Union to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 12th instant, enclosing for the observations of the Guardians a copy of a memorandum relating to the removal of Catherine Ray and her family from this Union to Rathkeale in Ireland.

As the observations of the Guardians upon this memorandum, I am directed to state, that the circumstances attending the removal, as detailed therein, are, in the main, true ; that the removal was conducted in the same manner as all Irish removals have been conducted since the passing of the Act 8 & 9 Vic., cap. 117—viz., by employing the person appointed by the Justices of the City of London under regulations made by them on the 20th of January, 1846, and approved by the Secretary of State on the 24th of January, 1846; and that this person is the person alluded to in the memorandum as "one of the Guardians."

* See explanation given by the English Board of Guardians, page 51.

And I am also directed to observe that the Guardians do not gather from the memorandum that any inconvenience has resulted to the pauper from the way in which she was sent from London to Rathkeale; on the contrary, they are led to believe, from the absence of any complaint, that she arrived at her destination perfectly safe and well provided for.

And I am directed further to observe that the attention of the Guardians having been drawn to this statute, they, on the 29th of September last, ordered that the Master of the Workhouse be instructed not to apply for orders of removal of Irish paupers without the sanction of the Board, as had, up to that day, been the practice. Since that day no order for an Irish removal has been applied for.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

JOHN BOWRING, Clerk.

C. Gilpin, esq., Poor Law Board,
Whitehall, S.W.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
February 6, 1864.

SIR,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st ultimo, in reply to their letter of the 12th ultimo, relative to the case of Catherine Ray, who, with her family, were removed from the City of London Union to Rathkeale, in Ireland.

As regards your reference to the regulations of the Justices under which the paupers were removed, the Board direct the attention of the Guardians to the statute 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 89, sec. 3 of which repeals the 4th section of the statute 8 & 9 Vic., cap. 117, whereby the Justices were empowered to make regulations for the removal of Scotch and Irish poor.

According to the information before the Board the paupers were put on board a steamer and given in charge to the steward, and on the arrival of the steamer at Limerick the steward placed them in the train and paid their fare to Rathkeale, giving the woman at the same time 1*s.* 6*d.* The Board do not think that by adopting such a course of proceeding the Guardians have carried out either the letter or the spirit of the statutes which have been passed on the subject of Irish poor removals. The paupers appear to have been delivered to a person on board the steamer, who had no legal obligation to take charge of them, and who was not responsible for their reaching the place of their ultimate destination, and they were left by him, after having paid their fare, to reach Rathkeale by railway as they might, whereas the statute 24 & 25 Vic., cap. 76, sec. 4, requires the person charged with the execution of the warrant to cause the paupers to be safely conveyed to the place of their destination.

The Board desire me to recall the attention of the Guardians to their circular letter of the 5th November last, and to request that the subject of the removal of Irish paupers may receive the careful attention of the Guardians in future.

I am, &c.,

ANN THORNTON'S CASE.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
January 12, 1864.

SIR,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to state that Secretary Sir George Grey has forwarded to them a letter addressed to the Irish Government by the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the poor in Ireland, accompanied by memoranda of cases of removal of persons born in Ireland from Unions and parishes in the London Metropolitan District, under the provisions of the Act 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 89, in which it is alleged that the provisions of the law have been disregarded.

A copy of the memorandum relating to the case of Ann Thornton, removed from the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, by warrant dated the 24th November, 1863, is herewith enclosed; and the Board request that you will lay the same before the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, and that the Board may be furnished with any observations which they may deem it necessary to make thereon.

I am, &c.,

Saint George, Hanover-square,
Board Room, Mount-street,
January 21, 1864.

SIR,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 541/1864 C, dated the 12th instant, and find from inquiry that Ann Thornton was sent from this parish under a legal order of removal. She was taken by Mr. Rogers, our Relieving Officer, to the recognised agent, Mr. Frost, with instructions to properly execute the order. I have called upon Mr. Frost for an explanation of the complaint, and enclose a copy of his reply, received this morning.

I have the honour to remain, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed), T. B. CHAPPELL, Clerk.

To Chas. Gilpin, esq., M.P., Secretary,
Poor Law Board.

46, High-street, Wapping, E.,
January 20, 1864.

SIR,

In reply to yours of the 13th instant, I have to inform you that Ann Thornton told me, before leaving the depôt, that she would not go to the Union house in Ireland, as she had friends in Killaloe who would assist her. I, however, instructed my agent, Mr. Fitzgerald, to deliver her according to the order of removal; but, upon leaving the train, she refused to go to the Union house, then distant five miles, upon which my agent gave her two shillings. I regret that this should have occurred; but, it will be seen, it was at the express wish of Ann Thornton herself that she was not delivered at the Union house. I, however, will in future see that all the persons intrusted to my care shall be delivered at the several Union houses, in conformity with the orders of removals.

I have also to state that the man who acted as conductor in this case is twenty-five years of age; and further, that Ann Thornton was not sent as deck passenger, I having paid extra fare to secure her a berth below.

I am, sir, yours respectfully,

J. FROST.

MARGARET RYAN'S CASE.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,

A copy of the memorandum relating to the case of Margaret Ryan, removed from the Strand Union by warrant dated the 29th September, 1863, is herewith enclosed; and the Board request that you will lay the same before the Guardians, and that the Board may be furnished with any observations which they may deem it expedient to make thereon.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

Strand Union, 6, Bow-street, London, W.C.
January 20, 1864.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

I am directed by the Guardians of the Poor of the Strand Union to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th instant, No. 541/1864 C, relative to the removal of Margaret Ryan from this Union to the Tralee Union, and in which it is stated that the provisions of the statute 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89, have been disregarded.

In reply, I am to acquaint you that the Guardians have always employed Mr. John Frost, of 46, High-street, Wapping, as their agent in the removal of Irish paupers, and that he has been directed to comply in all respects with the provisions of the statute referred to. The Guardians have given instructions that Mr. Frost be communicated with upon this particular case. Upon the receipt of his reply they will report the result to your Board.

I have the honour to be, my Lords and Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

I am directed by the Guardians of the Poor of the Strand Union to transmit to you the accompanying copy of a letter received by them from Mr. John Frost, in explanation of the circumstances attendant upon the removal of Margaret Ryan to Ireland, referred to in your letter of the 12th ultimo, No. 541/1864 C, and to acquaint you that they have directed that a letter be addressed to Mr. Frost, to impress upon him the necessity of a strict compliance with the provisions of the statute, as the Guardians are particularly desirous that no cause should be given for complaint in any case wherein they are concerned.

I am, &c.,

James Kilner, Clerk.

The Poor Law Board, Whitehall.

Enclosure.

46, High-street, Wapping, E.,
January 28, 1864.

Sir,

I am in receipt of your communication of the 20th instant, respecting Margaret Ryan, who was sent to Ireland in October last.

In reply, I beg to express my regret that she was sent as a deck passenger. The order being dated 29th September, it quite escaped my attention that the voyage could not take place until after the 1st of October. It will be observed that the accident was unintentional, as I did not make the extra charge which my printed terms specify for passengers after the 1st October.

With regard to Margaret Ryan being unaccompanied to Tralee, I have to express my great regret that my conductor should have omitted to deliver her at the Workhouse himself; and I beg to assure you that in future the strictest regard shall be paid to the delivery of the paupers committed to my charge.

I am, &c.,

J. Frost.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am directed by the Guardians of the Holborn Union to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th instant, relating to the removal of Mary Sullivan and her family from the Holborn Union to the Killarney

Union, under warrant dated the 23rd November, 1863, which letter was accompanied by a copy of a memorandum of the case, forwarded to the Poor Law Board by Secretary Sir George Grey, in which it is stated that Mary Sullivan and her family were sent from London as deck passengers. Upon the receipt of such letter and memorandum the Guardians communicated with Mr. Frost, the removing agent employed by them, on the subject, and he peremptorily denies that Mary Sullivan and her family were sent from London as deck passengers. The Guardians further direct me to enclose a copy of the correspondence with Mr. Frost on the subject.

SIR,

The Guardians of the Holborn Union have received a communication from the Poor Law Board, requiring an explanation respecting the removal of Mary Sullivan and her family, under an order of removal, from this union to Killarney, in Ireland, in the month of November last. It is represented that they were sent from London to Cork as deck passengers, in contravention of the 6th section of the 24th and 25th Vic., cap. 76. The Guardians request you to explain whether the representation in question be true or not; and they desire me to call your attention to your printed table of charges, dated 16th September, 1863, in which you provide for the extra expense attending the removal of women and children from the 1st October to the 31st March, in accordance with the above statute, by charging an additional 8*s.* for adults and 4*s.* for children during those months. On the other side is a copy of the memorandum the Guardians have received through the Poor Law Board.

I am, sir, yours obediently,

Remarks.

These paupers were placed under the charge of William Lyons, aged 25 years, in the employ of Mr. Frost. On leaving London they were provided with provisions sufficient to last them over four days. On the morning after the arrival of the vessel Mr. Fitzgerald told the paupers to get ready, and he would procure a car for the purpose of conveying them to the Union, but they refused to go until the evening; and afterwards on Mr. Fitzgerald leaving the Workhouse, where he had been to deliver another family, he found the paupers at the gate, and he then gave them in charge of the Porter, Cogan, at the Workhouse of the Cork Union.

Remarks.

This pauper was taken to the house of Mr. Frost, at 46, High-street, Wapping, who placed him under the charge of the steward on board the "Leda," who was paid by Mr. Frost to conduct the pauper to the Workhouse of the North Dublin Union.

The warrant in this case should have been in the form adopted in the case of Margaret Murgeth and daughter, but the Act 26 and 27 Victoria, cap. 89, having only come into operation a few days before the warrant was obtained, the old form was inadvertently used.

REMARKS.

This pauper was placed under the charge of a conductor in the employ of Mr. Frost; the address of Mr. Fitzgerald, his agent in Cork, being also given, in order to meet any unforeseen circumstance. The pauper was under the charge of the conductor during the whole of the voyage; but on the ship's arrival at Cork, at eleven o'clock on the night of Sunday, the 6th September, Mr. Fitzgerald, who had been waiting some hours, had left, thinking that the ship would not come in until the morning, and Ellen Mason, thereupon, quitted the ship without leave, and proceeded to the house of Mr. Fitzgerald, where she remained during the night, and was conveyed by him, in the morning, to the Workhouse of the Cork Union.

By 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76, s. 6, no woman or child under the age of fourteen, are to be removed as deck passengers from the 1st October to the 31st day of March following. Ellen Mason was removed on the 2nd day of September.

The warrant in this case is defective. It should have been in the form adopted in the case of Margaret Murgeth and daughter, but the Act 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89, having only come into operation a few days before the warrant was obtained, the old form was inadvertently used.

Sir,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to state that Secretary Sir George Grey has forwarded to them a letter, addressed to the Irish Government by the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, accompanied by memoranda of cases of removal of persons born in Ireland from Unions and parishes in the London Metropolitan District, under the provisions of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89, in which it is alleged that the provisions of the law have been disregarded.

A copy of the memorandum relating to the case of Margaret Casey, removed from the parish of Christchurch, by warrant dated the 7th October, 1863, is herewith enclosed ; and the Board request that you will lay the same before the Guardians of the Whitechapel Union, and that the Board may be furnished with any observations which the Guardians may deem it necessary to make thereon.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am directed by the Board of Guardians of this Union to acknowledge your favour of the 12th January last, No. 541/64 C., and 22nd February last, No. 1640/64 C., and the copy memorandum which accompanied that of the former date, and to transmit for your information a copy of a report they have received from Mr. John Frost, the person employed by them to remove persons to Ireland, for whose removal to any part of which the Guardians may have obtained the necessary warrant.

At the time the warrant for the removal of this person was obtained, the Relieving Officers had not found it practicable, in consequence of the great demand for them, to obtain any printed forms of warrant, in accordance with the Act of last Session, and inconsiderately used those in their possession, prepared according to the former Act.

I have the honour to be, my Lords and gentlemen,

I beg to state that Margaret Casey was not sent as a deck passenger—a room below the deck of the passage boat, for which an increased rate of fare was paid to the proprietors of the boat, being provided for her and the other persons removed with her. I regret, however, that my conductor should have neglected to accompany the woman to the Workhouse himself, and beg to assure you that in future the strictest attention shall be paid to the delivery of all paupers removed to Ireland.

In both cases the orders were made in conformity with the 24 and 25 Victoria, cap. 76. The sending a copy to the Clerks of the Guardians in Ireland, as required by the 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89. sec. 3, has not been complied with, but in all future cases due regard shall be had thereto.

In reply to your letters numbered as in the margin, I am desired to state that the Board of Guardians of this parish have for some years past had a contract with Mr. Frost (of Wapping) to remove all Irish and Scotch paupers chargeable to this parish, at the charges contained in the accompanying statement.

With respect to Ellen Farrell and two children, there does not appear to be any complaint as to the removal of this family, beyond the fact that, instead of being conveyed by the officer to whom the warrant was directed, Mr. Frost engaged with the stewardess of the steam-boat to deliver the paupers at the Dublin Union, which she did.

In both cases the orders were made in conformity with the 24th and 25th Victoria, cap. 76. The sending a copy to the Clerks of the Guardians in Ireland, as required by the 26th and 27th Vict., cap. 89, sec. 3, has not been complied with, but in all future cases due regard shall be had thereto.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

I am directed by the Board of Guardians of this Union to acknowledge your favours of the 12th January last, No. 1,641 C./64, and the copy memoranda which accompanied that of the former date, and to transmit for your information a copy of a report which they have received from Mr. John Frost, the person employed by them to remove poor persons to Ireland, for whose removal thereto warrants have been obtained by the Guardians.

I am also to state, that it is quite possible that the woman, Mary Cronin, may have resided the time she states in Crown-court, in this Union; but from all the inquiries the Guardians have been enabled to make, they do not believe it was for any so lengthened a period. This (however long the residence) is some time back, and she has since resided in several other places; and her own statement to the Relieving Officer was, "That she had for several years past been in the habit of leaving her residence, and going into the country, hopping" (viz., hop-picking), and did so in the autumn preceding her removal, her children accompanying her; and the fact of her intention to return is negatived by the fact of her giving up her residence, and returning to other lodgings. I may observe, that the removability of this woman and her family formed the subject of communications from you to the Guardians, by letters of 13th August, 1862, No. 29,340 A./62, and 29th October, 1863, No. 38,192, A./63, to which they then replied.

The Guardians regret that the printed form of warrant for the removal of this woman and her family was inadvertently used by the Relieving Officer in error, being at the time unable to obtain any printed forms in accordance with the Act of last session.

I have the honour to be, my Lords and Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

G. ADAMS FARR, Clerk.

Copy Correspondence referred to in the foregoing Letter from the Clerk of Whitechapel Union.

Gentlemen, October 21, 1863.

I am a widow for nearly six years, and have supported my four children (of the ages of twelve, ten, eight, and six years of age), all this time as well as I could, without assistance from the parish. I have been in the parish of Whitechapel for nineteen years, and I applied for relief, after selling all I had to keep my children. They told me to go in the house, and I went in for one week ; and I attended the Board yesterday, and they told me I must be passed to Ireland. I told them I did not belong there, and they told me I must either do so or I must go out ; so they ordered me and my children out this morning without even a loaf of bread ; and from there I went to the Relieving Officer, Mr. Plaistow, and asked him for a loaf of bread, and he told me he should not give me any. I asked him what I should do, and he said he did not care ; so I am now without a home to shelter my children, and I shall be glad if you could help me to keep me in the house for the sake of my children, for they are starving without some assistance. I hope you will take this to your kind consideration.

From your humble servant,

Mary Cronin,

Mary Cronin,

The Poor Law Board direct me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st instant, and to inform you that they are unable to interfere for the purpose of ordering relief in any individual case, being expressly prohibited by law from so doing.

The Board, however, will send a copy of your letter to the Guardians of the Whitechapel Union for their consideration.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to forward, for the consideration of the Guardians of the Whitechapel Union, the enclosed copy of a letter which has been addressed to the Board by Mary Cronin, and to request that they may be furnished with any observations which the Guardians may desire to make on the subject of her complaint. The Guardians will observe that Mary Cronin states that she has been turned out of the Workhouse, and that she and her children are without shelter.

November 10, 1863.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

I am directed by the Board of Guardians of this Union to acknowledge your favour of 29th October, 1863, No. 38192/1863, A, together with the copy of a letter which had been addressed to you by Mrs. Mary Cronin; and am directed to inform you, in reply, that Mary Cronin is an able-bodied woman, and has not resided, as her letter would infer, for nineteen years consecutively in Whitechapel, or even one year. Her practice has been to obtain admission into the Workhouse, and appear before the Board of Guardians at its then next meeting, when she would most probably be ordered to be passed to Ireland with her children, or leave the Workhouse. The next day she would refuse to be passed and take her discharge, to be again readmitted, probably the next day, or within a day or two; and the same course would be again adopted, and has been repeated at least twenty times.

She, however, at length consented to be passed, and was, with her children, passed to Ireland on the 28th ultimo.

I beg to transmit, for your information, a copy of the report of the Relieving Officer in reference to this woman and her children.

I have the honour to be, my Lords and Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

G. ADAMS FARR, Clerk.

The Poor Law Board.

November 6, 1863.

RE MARY CRONIN.

On the 13th October last this person applied for relief and was taken into the Workhouse; she went before the Board on the 20th October last, when the Board ordered that she should be passed to Ireland. She refused to go, and left the Workhouse on the 21st October. She was again admitted on the 23rd October, came before the Board on the 27th, when she consented to be passed, and was sent to Ireland on the 28th October last.

A copy of the memorandum relating to the case of Mary Ann Honeywood and four children, removed from the Parish of St. George-in-the-East, by warrant dated the 2nd December, 1863, is herewith enclosed; and the Board request that you will lay the same before the Guardians of the parish of St. George-in-the-East, and that the Board may be furnished with any observations which the Guardians may deem it necessary to make thereon.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am directed by the Guardians of the poor of this parish to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th January last, accompanied by a copy of a memorandum from the Poor Law Commissioners in Ireland, relating to the case of Mary Ann Honeywood and four children, removed from this parish to Ireland, by warrant dated 2nd December, 1863; and to inform you that the execution of the order referred to was intrusted to Mr. John Frost, of No. 46, High-street, Wapping; who states that he despatched a young man, named William Lyons, to accompany the paupers to their place of debarkation. That the paupers arrived safely at Cork on the 13th December, where a lodging was procured for them by a Mr. Fitzgerald, an agent of Mr. Frost; and four loaves and tea and coffee and sugar remained of the provisions supplied her. That on the following morning Fitzgerald called for the pauper, for the purpose of conveying her and her children to the Workhouse, but he found she had left the lodging. After he had waited some time she returned and told Fitzgerald that she had sold three of the loaves for whisky, because she knew the bread would be taken from her at the Workhouse; that Fitzgerald then accompanied her and her children to the Workhouse, where they were then received.

I have the honour to be, my Lords and Gentlemen,
Your most obedient, humble servant,
Thomas Stone, Clerk.

To the Poor Law Board,
Whitehall, London, S.W.

No. 3.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, 5th March, 1864.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to acknowledge the receipt, on the 12th and 15th ultimo, of the files of papers conveying the result of the inquiries, caused to be made by the Poor Law Board in England, into some of the cases of removal reported for his Excellency's information, in the letter addressed to you by the Commissioners, on the 24th December last.*

The Commissioners have communicated the result of the inquiries in question to the several Boards of Guardians interested; and from the Guardians of Rathkeale Union they have received a resolution expressing their entire satisfaction in regard to the steps which have been taken, as being likely to lead to careful attention in the removal of Irish paupers from England in future.

From the Boards of Guardians of the other Unions—namely, Scariff, Killarney, and Tralee—no observation has yet been received which it is necessary to communicate.

The Commissioners, however, think it right to observe, in reference to those parts of the correspondence which relate to the agency of Mr. Frost as a contractor for the conveyance of persons under warrant of removal to Ireland, that the explanations given are not, in their opinion, satisfactory; and that in none of the cases of persons removed under Mr. Frost's agency was there that continuous custody of the persons under removal which the Legislature, according to the 2nd section of the recent Act, intended should be maintained by the person to whom the warrant is intrusted for execution; and that in every one of these cases of women and children removed under Mr. Frost's agency, in the interval between the 1st October and the present time, the 6th section of the Act 24 and 25 Vic., c. 76, which prohibits a deck-passage, has been violated. The Commissioners are further bound to add, that in several cases of removal under Mr. Frost's agency, which have occurred since the date of their report of the 24th December last, the same course has in both respects continued to be pursued, and from the tenor of Mr. Frost's statements is likely to be persisted in by him.

With regard to the continuous custody of the persons under warrant, a precaution which is necessary, not only for the protection and safe-keeping of the person removed, but for the protection of those Unions and places in Ireland through which the removal may take place from any undue burthen which might otherwise arise in regard to the pauper, the Commissioners submit that when the removing authorities in England employ Mr. Frost under such a contract as he himself describes, placing the warrant of removal in his hands, he must be regarded as the person to whom "the warrant is delivered for the purpose of being carried into execution;" and that he should therefore himself "detain and hold in safe custody such poor person until such poor person have arrived at the place to which he is ordered to be removed." For this purpose the 2nd section of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, has invested him, and no other person, with the powers of a constable in every county and place in Ireland, through which he may pass in the due execution of the war-

* This refers to the explanations given in the cases of Catherine Ray, Ann Thornton, Margaret Ryan, Mary Sullivan, and Julia Sweeney; the explanations given in the other cases were not received by the Commissioners until after this letter was written.

rant. It has appeared, however, that in no instance does Mr. Frost himself conduct the person removed to the place of destination, but that in every case he transfers the charge intrusted to him to some other person, that is, either to his servant or to some officer of the steam-boat. On the arrival of the vessel, in two or three days, in an Irish port the parties under removal are usually met by Mr. Frost's agent. This last mentioned person it is not possible to regard, any more than the steward of the steamer, in the light of a person to whom the warrant has been delivered for execution, under the provisions referred to in the 2nd section of the recent Act, or as the person who is thereby invested, for the purpose of executing the warrant, with the powers of a constable. The promise, therefore, which Mr. Frost has made, that in future cases the persons under warrant shall be conveyed by his agent or agents in the Irish ports to the Workhouses of the Unions named in the warrant, cannot be performed in opposition to the will of the parties themselves, otherwise than by an unauthorized infringement, in each such case, of the liberty of the subject.

With regard to the "deck-passage," it appears from the letter of the Clerk of Holborn Union to Mr. Frost, that Mr. Frost has issued to the London Unions a printed table of charges, in which he provides for the extra expense attending the removal of women and children, from the 1st October to the 31st March, by charging an additional 8*s.* for adults and 4*s.* for children during those months; and in the letter of the Clerk of Stepney Union to the Poor Law Board is given the form of receipt by which Mr. Frost is accustomed to acknowledge the sum received by him for the performance of his contract, which is as follows:—

"46, High-street, Wapping, E.

"Received the 14th day of October, 1863, of the Removing-officer of the Ratcliffe Stepney Union, in the county of Middlesex, with the pauper, Margaret Regan, sent according to Act 24 and 25 Vic., c. 76, and 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, including mileage, for pauper and conductor from the port, and two days' keep, the sum of three pounds fifteen shillings and — pence, which I hereby undertake to refund, pursuant to contract, on failure of her being sent to Skibbereen parish, in Ireland.

14/10/63
L.S.

In Mr. Frost's own letters he denies in all cases, with one exception, that he has sent the parties as deck-passengers, asserting that he has in each case provided them with "berths below deck," or that he has provided "a room for them below the decks, for which accommodation" he pays "an increased amount of fare."

As these statements appeared to refer to the steam-boats plying between London and Cork, in most of the cases which are complained of in the Commissioners' report to his Excellency of the 24th December, the Commissioners thought it right to obtain from Mr. O'Brien, the Inspector in the Cork district, a special report on the subject, after due inquiry from the officers of the Company to which the boats in question belong. The following extract from Mr. O'Brien's report describes the nature of the accommodation to which Mr. Frost refers, as well as the nature of his engagement with the proprietors of the steam-boats.

"The Company's fares between London and Cork are—cabin fare, 25*s.*; deck, 12*s.* 6*d.* There is no intermediate scale recognised as regards the ordinary passengers by the Company's boats; but it is understood (from the returns received from the London agent) that a special fare of 14*s.* 6*d.*, or 2*s.* over the usual deck fare, is paid by agreement by Mr. Frost for the persons transmitted by him to Ireland; and for this extra payment the passengers become entitled, as a matter of right, to the use during the voyage of what is called the 'barrack,' or the soldier's room.

"I had some time since an opportunity of personally inspecting this barrack-room on board the 'Cormorant.' It is a plain room or cabin beneath the fore-deck, from which you descend to it by a short flight of steps. It is quite sheltered from the weather, and is provided with a seat, running round, but has neither a fire nor any accommodation for sleeping. It has been constructed specially for the accommodation of soldiers, who are primarily entitled to the use of it when crossing the Channel; and in reply to an inquiry as to how, in the event of this accommodation being at any time thus absorbed, Mr. Frost's cases would be dealt with, I was informed that the Company's servants would be then bound by their agreement with him to place them in the cook's room, or elsewhere under cover; but that this contingency could scarcely ever arise in fact, as few soldiers cross in this way."

It would appear from this account that there are two, and only two, descriptions of passages on board these boats, viz., an after-cabin passage and a deck passage.

Notwithstanding, therefore, the explanation relating to the barrack-room, the females and children removed under Mr. Frost's agency since 1st October last, have been, in point of fact, sent as deck-passengers, in violation of the 6th section of 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76; and while it must be admitted that some mitigation of the severity of the deck-passage of two or three days and nights has been afforded under the provisions of that Act, those provisions have most clearly had the effect at the same time of enabling Mr. Frost to increase the profits made by him in the performance of his contracts with the Guardians of London Unions for the deportation of Irish paupers, receiving, as he appears to do, 8*s.* additional and paying 2*s.* additional in the case of each adult, and charging mileage and other expenses of the conductor in each case, and sending one and the same conductor in charge of several cases. It has been suggested that a fit mode of trying the propriety and sufficiency of Mr. Frost's arrangements in regard to the accommodation provided by him on board ship for the Irish women and children consigned to him for deportation, would be to prosecute him for the penalty of £5 under the 5th section of the 26th and 27th Vic., cap. 89; but, as already mentioned, the Commissioners are anxious to avoid litigation, and they remain in hope that the discontinuance of Mr. Frost's agency may be effected in some other way. They fear also that under the terms of the section referred to, which states that "the offence shall be deemed to have been committed at the port where the poor person shall be landed," no legal process exists by which Mr. Frost, for an offence which he is alleged to have committed at Wapping, could be made amenable to justice in Ireland.

The Commissioners cannot but think that the Boards of Guardians of Unions and parishes in the metropolitan district, when they contract with Mr. Frost for the deportation and safe delivery in Ireland of Irish-born subjects in the manner described in this and preceding reports, are losing sight of the nature of the legal process by which such removals are authorized to be conducted, each case being in the nature of a forcible arrest followed by forcible detention, and each person removed being regarded as a prisoner under legal custody until arrival at the placed named in the warrant.

In such cases it does not appear too much to expect that the person so arrested and detained should be placed for security in the hands of some trustworthy servant or officer of the Board of Guardians, with instructions to proceed, in accordance with the provisions of the statute, to the place of destination, and not to lose sight of his charge until their arrival there, or to transfer the execution of his task to any other person.

No. 4.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 25, 1864.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, desire to state, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that their attention having been drawn by the Board of Guardians of Kilmallock Union to the circumstances under which a young female, named Margaret O'Brien, aged nineteen, was removed to Ireland from the parish of St. Mary Abbotts, Kensington, and who died two days after her arrival at Kilmallock ; the Commissioners have made inquiry into the facts, so far as they can ascertain them.

The Commissioners forward herewith a copy of the report which they have received from Mr. Horsley, Poor Law Inspector, on the subject, together with a copy of the minutes of evidence taken by him, and of the other papers relating to the case.

It will be seen from these documents that Margaret O'Brien left Ireland about twelve months ago, previous to which time she had been labouring under disease of the heart and lungs ; that she was not receiving workhouse relief at the time of her removal back from England, and that rather than take such relief she asked to be passed over to her friends in Ireland.

A warrant for her removal, dated the 2nd December, 1863, appears accordingly to have been issued, though no copy of it was forwarded to the Board of Guardians by post, as required by section 3 of the Act 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76. The warrant certifies that the deceased had been seen by the Magistrate who issued it, and that she was in "such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal."

There seems, however, to be much question, from the unfortunate results in the case, whether her removal was a proper course, having regard to her state of health on the 2nd December ; and, according to the evidence, it would certainly appear to have been an improper course on the 10th December, the day when the deceased was embarked at London.

The Master of the Workhouse, and the relatives of the poor girl—to whom, by her desire, she was humanely sent from the Workhouse at Kilmallock by the Master—describe her deplorable state of health on her arrival.

Dr. O'Connell, Medical Officer of the Kilmallock Workhouse, states that on Margaret O'Brien's arrival at the Workhouse she "appeared to be very unwell, oppressed in her breathing, and swollen generally all over her person. From the hardness of her feet and the swollen state of them, he is of opinion that she had been affected with dropsy for more than a week previously, and that she was therefore in an unfit state for removal from London by sea on the 10th December last."

It further appears, that in direct violation of the 6th section of the Act 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76, she was sent by sea from London as a deck passenger, and being in that way exposed to cold and fatigue, at this inclement season of the year, "her death must, at any rate," as Dr. O'Connell states, "have been accelerated, if not caused, by her improper removal."

Notwithstanding that the girl's removal from London is stated to have been at her own instance, yet the infraction of the law in the mode of effecting the removal, as well as the painful circumstances of the case, appear to render it necessary to call attention to it, and the Commissioners think it right, therefore, to forward the papers for His Excellency's information.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart., &c., Dublin Castle.

Enclosures in foregoing Letter.

I.—Extract from Guardians' Minutes, dated 17th December, 1863.

The Clerk produced a warrant, which had been handed to him by the Master, for the removal of Margaret O'Brien, aged nineteen years, from the parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington, to this Union, for the parish of Kilfinane.

The Master stated that the woman left this Workhouse upon the day of her arrival from England.

The Clerk produced the written replies of the woman, which the Master had obtained from her, to certain queries furnished by the Poor Law Commissioners, by which it appeared that, contrary to the 6th section of 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76, this woman had been removed on the deck of a steamer. The Clerk further stated that a copy of the warrant had not been sent to him, as is required by the 3rd section of the Act referred to.

The Clerk was directed to send the documents forward to the Poor Law Commissioners.

II.—Copy Warrant of Removal.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the Metropolitan Police District, and the County of Middlesex, and to the Guardians of the Poor of the parish of Kilfinane Union, in the county of Limerick, in Ireland.

Whereas, complaint is now made by the Guardians of the Poor of the parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington Union, in the said district, and county of Middlesex, unto me, James Taylor Ingham esq., one of the Magistrates of the Police Courts of the Metropolis, sitting at the Police Court at Hammersmith, within the Metropolitan Police District and County of Middlesex, that Margaret O'Brien hath become and is now chargeable to the Parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington, in the said county of Middlesex. And whereas the said Margaret O'Brien having been brought before me, and application having been made to me by Samuel Pummell, the Constable of the said Guardians, on their behalf, I have made due examination on oath, and find that the said Margaret O'Brien is of the reputed age of nineteen years, and was born in Ireland, and has not been absent therefrom more than twelve months, and hath not a settlement in England, and is not otherwise exempt from removal from the said Parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington; and I have seen the said Margaret O'Brien, and am satisfied that the said Margaret O'Brien is in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal.

These are, therefore, to require you, the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish of Saint Mary Abbotts, Kensington, aforesaid, to cause the said Margaret O'Brien to be safely conveyed to the said Union of , and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union.

Given under my hand and seal, at the Police Court aforesaid, this second day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

J. T. Ingham.

IV.—Copy Letter to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, December 23rd, 1863.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have had before them the entry, on Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Kilmallock Union on the 17th instant, relative to the removal of Margaret O'Brien from the parish of St. Mary Abbotts, Kensington, to Kilmallock, together with the warrant for her removal and the usual statement of particulars respecting her case; and in reference thereto, the Commissioners desire to state, that the warrant appears to be correct in point of form, and the pauper legally removable; and she appears also to have been brought to the Workhouse by a Removing Officer. The irregularities in the case appear to be, that no copy of the warrant was sent by post, as required by the 3rd section of the 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76; and that the pauper was sent as a deck passenger, contrary to the provisions of the 6th section of the 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76.

The 5th section of the 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89, enacts, that any person violating the provisions contained in the 6th section of the last cited Act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5, to be recovered on a summary conviction before two Justices or a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate; and it is provided that the offence shall be deemed to have been committed at the port where the poor person shall be landed.

The Commissioners are in communication with Her Majesty's Government, on the subject of the arrangements for removing Irish poor from England.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Kilmallock Union.

Read letter from Poor Law Commissioners, No. 25,945, dated 23rd December, 1863, relative to the case of Margaret O'Brien, who was reported on the minutes of the 17th instant.

The Clerk having stated that he was informed that the woman in question had died in Kilfinane, to which place she went from this Workhouse, he was directed to inform the Commissioners accordingly.

I have at the same time to state, that the woman in question died in Kilfinane, to which place she went, at her own request, from this Workhouse, as reported on the accompanying minutes.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 1st instant, and the Minute of the Board of Guardians of Kilmallock Union, relating to the death of Margaret O'Brien, who was recently removed from the parish of St. Mary Abbotts, Kensington, to Kilmallock; and in reference thereto the Commissioners request that they may be more fully informed of the particulars as to the state of health of the deceased when she arrived at Kilmallock and was admitted into the Workhouse, and also as to her state of health when she left the Workhouse for Kilfinane.

The Commissioners also wish to be informed of the circumstances under which Margaret O'Brien's death took place so shortly after she quitted the Workhouse.

By Order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Kilmallock Union.

VIII.—Copy Letter from the Clerk of the Union.

Kilmallock Union,
January 9, 1864.

Gentlemen,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of, and to thank you for your letter dated the 7th instant, No. 120/'64, together with the enclosures which accompanied it, relative to the case of Margaret O'Brien, a poor person removed from London to this Union, in which you request to be more fully informed of the particulars as to the state of health of this woman upon her arrival here, and upon her leaving this Workhouse for Kilfinane.

In reply I have to state, that upon the receipt of your letter I applied to the Medical Officer and the Master of the Workhouse upon this subject; and I enclose herewith for your information copies of the report and certificate of these officers respectively, which they furnished to me for this purpose.

With regard to your further request to be informed of the circumstances under which this woman's death took place in Kilfinane, I have to state, that I have written to Dr. Burke, the Dispensary Medical Officer in that town, on this subject, and shall inform you of the result.

I have, &c.,

R. Quigley, Clerk of the Union.

To the Poor Law Commissioners,
Custom House, Dublin.

Copy Observations of Mr. J. Nelson, Master of Kilmallock Union Workhouse.

Margaret O'Brien, admitted on 14th December, 1863, and reported on the Morning Sick Report of that date, was brought to the Workhouse by a man named William Lyons, from London, whose case I have already reported in replies to the queries furnished by the Poor Law Commissioners.

Immediately on her arrival at the Workhouse, she was offered bread and tea for breakfast, but said she preferred milk; and a quart of new milk boiled was supplied her, which she used at her leisure.

Soon after her admission she applied to me to send her home, and said she was not able to walk there to Kilfinane, a distance of five miles; and upon her expressing much anxiety to get at once home and see her friends, I immediately granted her request, and took means to have her carefully conveyed there the same day she arrived here.

(Signed,) James Nelson,
Master of the Workhouse, Kilmallock Union.

January 8, 1864.

Copy Certificate of Dr. Morgan D. O'Connell, Medical Officer of Kilmallock Workhouse.

This is to certify that Margaret O'Brien, aged nineteen years, who was on the Morning Sick Report on the 14th December last, suffered from anasarca and a chest affection. She appeared in a critical state of health when I saw her, and I directed her admission to the Infirmary, where I prescribed for her. Before I had left the Workhouse on that day, I heard that she had gone to Kilfinane. I am of opinion that her disease and suffering would be increased by the fatigues and exposure to cold, consequent upon crossing from England to Ireland.

(Signed,) Morgan D. O'Connell, M.D.,
Medical Officer, Kilmallock Workhouse.

Kilmallock Union,
January 12th, 1864.

Gentlemen,

With reference to my letter dated the 9th instant, No. 120/'64, I have the honour to state that I have received a letter from Dr. George R. Bourke, the Medical Officer at Kilfinane, relative to the deceased female, Margaret O'Brien, removed to this Union from London, in which he states that "he was well acquainted with the poor girl, and often prescribed for her, but latterly lost sight of her altogether; that he was never told of her last illness, and consequently did not see her in it."

I have, &c.,
R. Quigley, Clerk of the Union.

To the Poor Law Commissioners,
Custom House, Dublin.

X.—Copy Report from Mr. Horsley, Poor Law Inspector.

Kilmallock Union,
January 22, 1864.

Gentlemen,

Adverting to the Commissioners' letter of the 13th instant, I have the honour to state, that on Thursday last, I inquired into the circumstances attending the death of a poor woman named Margaret O'Brien, at Kilfinane, in the Kilmallock Union, on the 16th ultimo; and I transmit herewith, for the information of the Commissioners, the minutes of evidence, on oath, which I obtained in regard to the case, and beg to report as follows thereon.

It appears that this poor woman, who had been passed by the parish authorities of St. Mary Abbotts, Kensington, to Kilmallock Union, embarked at London on the 10th December last, and was delivered by a person named William Lyons, on the 14th of the same month, at the Kilmallock Workhouse; that she was exceedingly ill when she arrived there, and was at once seen by the Medical Officer, who prescribed for her; but that she refused to remain in the Workhouse, and begged to be conveyed to her sister's residence in the village of Kilfinane, where she arrived on the afternoon of the same day; and having passed the night there, went on the following day to the house of her brother in the same village, where she died on the night of the 16th ultimo.

It further appears, from the evidence of her sister-in-law, Mary O'Brien, that she was not receiving Workhouse relief at the time of her removal from the Parish of St. Mary Abbott; but that, rather than take such relief, she asked to be passed over to her friends in Ireland. This is an important circumstance, so far as the parish authorities of St. Mary Abbotts are concerned; for it admits of the probability of their not being aware of Margaret O'Brien's precarious state of health, and of her unfitness on that account to undergo the fatigue of the journey from London to Kilmallock. Be this as it may, it would appear from the evidence of Mr. Nelson, Master of the Kilmallock Workhouse, that the poor woman was sent over as a deck passenger, which at this season of the year was, without any reference to her state of health, a violation of the provisions of the 6th section of 24 and 25 Vic:, cap. 76.

I may mention that the poor woman's sister, Mrs. Carroll, and her sister-in-law, Mary O'Brien, informed me that she was so weak and exhausted, that she was unable to converse much with them, or give a detailed account of the circumstances attending her removal from England; and also beg to state that Dr. George Burke, of Kilfinane, informed me that, prior to Margaret O'Brien's leaving that place in the early part of last year, he knew her to be labouring under disease of the heart and lungs.

I return the file of papers sent to me for the purposes of the inquiry, and have the honour to remain,

Gentlemen, &c.,

S. Horsley.

Minutes of Evidence accompanying Mr. Horsley's Report.

Morgan David O'Connell, being duly sworn, saith—I have been Medical Officer of the Kilmallock Workhouse since the opening of that establishment. On the 14th of December last I saw in the Workhouse aforesaid a young woman, named Margaret O'Brien, who had arrived that morning from London, whence she had been passed as a pauper from the parish of St. Mary Abbotts, Kensington. She left London on the 10th of December last. She appeared to be very much oppressed in her breathing, and swollen generally all over her person. From the hardness of her feet and the swollen state of them, I am of opinion that she had been affected with dropsy for more than a week previously; and that she was therefore in an unfit state for removal from London by sea on the 10th of December last; and that, as she appeared to have been a deck passenger, and exposed to cold, her death must at any rate have been accelerated, if not caused, by her improper removal. I prescribed for her, having first admitted her to the Infirmary; but she would not remain in the Workhouse, and was therefore conveyed to her friends in the neighbourhood.

Ellen Carroll, being duly sworn, saith—Margaret O'Brien, who died at Kilfinane on the 16th of December last, was my sister. On the 14th of December last she came to my house in Kilfinane from the Kilmallock Workhouse, and slept there on that night. On the next day she went to stop at my brother's house in Kilfinane. She was all swelled when she came to me, and when she left me to go to my brother's. She told me she had been very ill in the Workhouse in London, and that she was in bad health when she left it. She died in two days after she left my house and went to my brother's. She did not see a doctor whilst she was in my house. She told me nothing about her passage from London to Cork.

Mary O'Brien, being duly sworn, saith—I am wife of John O'Brien. Margaret O'Brien, who was passed from London to Kilmallock Workhouse on the 14th December last, and who died in my house on the 16th of that month, was his sister. When she came to my house, on the 15th of December last, she was very ill, and was much swollen, and appeared to be much oppressed in her breathing. I did not send for a doctor, as I thought he could do no good; but I sent for the priest, and she died on the following night. She told me before her death that she had come by long sea from London, and that she was kindly treated and attended to by the man who came over in charge of her. She did not tell me whether she was a deck passenger or not. She told me that she was not in the Workhouse in London at the time she was sent over by the Parish; but that she was living with her sister Mary, who is married to a man of the name of Connolly. I don't know the address of Connolly. She told me she was going to be sent into the London Workhouse again, but that she preferred being sent to Ireland to her own friends.

James Nelson, being duly sworn, saith—I am Master of the Kilmallock Union Workhouse. On the 14th of December last a young woman named Margaret O'Brien was brought to the Workhouse by a Removing Officer named William Lyons. Margaret O'Brien had been passed from London to Kilmallock Workhouse by the parish authorities of St. Mary Abbotts, Kensington. She seemed to be in a bad state of health when she was brought to the Workhouse. Her legs and feet were swollen. She declined to remain in the Workhouse, and requested me to have her conveyed to her friends in Kilfinane, which place is about five and a-half miles from the Workhouse, and I sent her there on the Workhouse car. Before she left the Workhouse, I questioned her as to her journey from London. She told me that she was a deck passenger, but that in other respects she was kindly treated. She was quite distinct on the point of her having been a deck passenger.

No. 5.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Chief Secretary of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
November 25, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Law for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state for the information of their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that their attention has been drawn by the Board of Guardians of Skibbereen Union to the circumstances under which a female named Margaret Regan has been removed from the Stepney Union to Skibbereen, under a warrant dated the 10th October last.

A copy of the warrant is enclosed herewith, and it duly represents that the Magistrates who signed it had examined Margaret Regan, in order to ascertain that her state of health was such that she would not be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury from removal to Ireland.

A copy of depositions, purporting to have been made before the Magistrates who ordered her removal, by Margaret Regan, at the Town Hall, Poplar, and which has been obtained in pursuance of the 3rd section of the Act 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76, is also enclosed.

Notwithstanding the regularity of these documents, however, there appears, if Margaret Regan's statements to the Board of Guardians, and to Mr. Horsley, Poor Law Inspector, can be relied upon, to have been much informality in regard to her removal, as well as considerable hardship in the case, if there has not, indeed, been a distinct breach of the law.

An extract from the report which the Commissioners have received from Mr. Horsley, forwarding the statements made to him on oath by Margaret Regan, together with a statement made to him by Sub-Constable Francis Gannon, is enclosed.

From these depositions it appears that Margaret Regan, who states that she is about twenty years of age, lived for ten years in the same service in the Commercial-road, London, until about six weeks before she was removed to Ireland.

That during the six weeks referred to she was ill with fever, and after having been removed from her place of service to her mother's dwelling, received relief in the Stepney Union Workhouse. That when she was recovering, her mother wished to take her out of the hospital but was not permitted to do so, as she was not then quite recovered. That when she was getting better, the Guardians "asked her if she would like to be sent home; and that she replied in the affirmative, because she thought they meant to send her to her mother's home, in Brook-street."

Instead of this, however, she was, two or three days afterwards, and but one day after she had got out of her sick bed, put on board a steamer in charge of a man named George Legan, who brought her to the Skibbereen Workhouse, the poor girl having been sent as a deck passenger.

Margaret Regan states, that she was told that there was a Magistrate with the Guardians who came into the sick ward to ask her if she would like to go home; and that "they told her to take hold of a pen and make a mark on a piece of paper;" but that they asked her no other question, and that she was not taken to any Police Court or Town Hall, and did not make any statement or answer any questions upon oath.

It would appear, both from Margaret Regan's own statement as well as from that of Sub-Constable Gannon, that the Removing Officer, George Legan, was not a proper person to have been intrusted with the duty. He seems not only to have neglected the girl altogether on the passage, but to have conveyed her from Cork to Skibbereen without providing her with food or the means of procuring it; and that he was arrested for drunkenness on the day of his arrival in the town of Skibbereen.

The 1st section of the Act 24 and 25 Vic., cap. 76, requires that no application for a Warrant of Removal from England to Ireland shall be heard and determined except by "two or more Justices in Petty Sessions assembled, or by a Stipendiary Magistrate, or Metropolitan Police Magistrate sitting in his Court;" and prescribes that such Justices or Magistrate shall see the person to be removed.

The 6th section of the Act declares it to be unlawful to remove any woman or child under fourteen years of age as a deck passenger from the 1st October to the 31st March in each year. Both of these provisions would appear to have been disregarded in the case of Margaret Regan.

The Commissioners forward the documents enclosed, therefore, in the hope that the Lords Justices may be pleased to cause some communication to be made to the authorities in England, with a view to inquiry into the truth of the statements which have been made in this case.

It will be observed that the facts complained of do not raise any ground for appealing against the validity of the removal, so as to justify the Commissioners in directing an inquiry under section 7 of the Act above quoted.

By order of the Commissioners,
B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To Right Hon. Sir Robert Peel, Bart., &c.,

I.—Copy Warrant.

To John Cunningham, the Removing Officer of the Guardians of the Stepney Union, in the Metropolitan Police District and the County of Middlesex, and to the Guardians of the Skibbereen Union, in the County of Cork, in Ireland.

Whereas complaint hath been made by John Cunningham, the Removing Officer of the Guardians of the Stepney Union, in the said district, and county of Middlesex, unto us, John T. Fletcher and B. Dixon, Esquires, two of the Magistrates of the Police Courts of the Metropolis, sitting at the Town Hall, Poplar, within the Metropolitan Police District and county of Middlesex, that Margaret Regan, aged seventeen years, a person born in Ireland. And, whereas, upon examination of the said Margaret Regan, taken upon oath before us, it doth appear, to our satisfaction, that she was born in the parish or place of Skibbereen, and hath not a settlement in England. And whereas we have duly examined the said Margaret Regan as to the state of her health, and am satisfied that she is in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by removal to Ireland under this warrant.

These are therefore to require you, the said Guardians of the Stepney Union aforesaid, in the district and county of Middlesex aforesaid, or some proper person or persons to be employed by you, to remove and convey the said Margaret Regan to the said Union of Skibbereen, and to cause her to be delivered at the workhouse of such Union.

III.—Extract from Report from Mr. Horsley.

Adverting to the Commissioners' letters of the 11th instant, I beg to state, that on the 18th instant I examined on oath Margaret Regan and Margaret Casey, recently removed from the Stepney and Whitechapel Unions, in England, to the Skibbereen Union; and I have now the honour to transmit, for the information of the Commissioners, the evidence of the women in question, and to report as follows with reference to their respective cases.

If the statements made on oath before me by Margaret Regan be true, her removal to Skibbereen Union by the authorities of the Stepney Union would appear to have been effected in a peculiarly harsh and illegal manner.

The circumstances under which her removal took place are so clearly detailed in her evidence that I need not recapitulate them here, further than to point out that she was not taken before any magistrates in petty sessions assembled, or before a stipendiary magistrate, or before a metropolitan police magistrate sitting in court, previous to her removal, and that she was not aware that she was to be removed to Ireland until she was taken to Wapping Old Stairs and taken on board a steam-boat, about to sail for Cork, by the Removing Officer, George Legan, who not only appears to have neglected her altogether on her passage, but to have conveyed her from Cork to Skibbereen without providing her with food, or the means of procuring it. The Commissioners will observe from the evidence of Sub-Constable Francis Gannon that this man Legan was arrested for drunkenness in the town of Skibbereen on the day of his arrival here, and that he was a most improper person to be intrusted by the Stepney Union authorities with the removal of any pauper, especially of the more helpless sex.

IV.—Minutes of Evidence referred to in Mr. Horsley's Report.

Margaret Regan, being duly sworn, saith—I am about twenty years of age, and my mother has told me that I was born near Leap, in the Skibbereen Union. I do not recollect ever being in Ireland until I arrived in it in the month of October last. I lived with my father and mother at No. 5, Brook-street, Ratcliffe, London, till I went into service, about ten years ago, with Mr. Thomas, a baker, living in the Commercial-road, London; I think the number of his house is 51. I lived in service with Mr. Thomas continuously for about ten years in the same house, until about six weeks before I was removed by the parish authorities of the Stepney Union to this country. During those six weeks I was ill with fever in the Stepney Union Workhouse, and as soon as I recovered they sent me to this country. When I was taken ill with fever, my master sent me home to my mother at No. 5, Brook-street, Ratcliffe. The parish doctor visited me at my mother's house, and when I had been at home for two or three days, he sent me into the Stepney Union Hospital. My mother visited me once whilst I was in hospital. My mother wished to take me out of it; but I was not then quite recovered, and the Doctor would not allow her to remove me. Dr. Ross is the name of the Medical Officer of the Union. When I was getting better, the Guardians of the Stepney Union asked me if I would like to be sent home, and I said "Yes," because I thought they meant to send me to my mother's home in Brook-street. Two or three days afterwards I was taken by the Pass-Master of Stepney Workhouse to Wapping Old Stairs, where we met a man named George Legan, who took me on board a steam-boat, and accompanied me to Cork, and brought me on to Skibbereen Workhouse. This happened last month; but I don't recollect on what day I went on board the steam-boat; but Legan delivered me up at the Skibbereen Workhouse on Monday the 19th of last month. I was a deck passenger on board the steamboat, and had no berth below stairs. There was a sort of shed on the deck for shelter, but there was no sleeping accommodation. I don't know whether Legan was a deck passenger or not. There were some other women under the shed at night. I had only been up from my sick bed for one day before I was taken to Wapping Old Stairs and put in charge of Legan. On the day that the Guardians asked me if I would like to be sent home, and that I said I would, because I thought they meant my mother's home, they came into the sick ward in which I was. There was a magistrate with them, at least the nurse told me so afterwards. They asked me only whether I would like to go home, and when I said I would, they told me to take hold of a pen and make a mark on a piece of paper. They asked me no other question. I was not taken to any police court or town hall, nor did I make any statement or answer any questions upon oath. No book was put into my hand before or after I made the mark on the paper in the sick ward. I only saw my mother once in the hospital. That was after I had been about a week there. She came a second time to see me; but she was not allowed to see me. It was on the day that I was sent to the steam-boat that she came for the second time.

She did not know until afterwards that I was being sent to Skibbereen, and she subsequently wrote to the Master of Skibbereen Workhouse, asking whether I had arrived safely, and stating that it was against her consent that I had been sent to Ireland. When my master, Mr. Thomas, sent me home in fever to my mother, he said he would take me back into his service when I got well, and I would have gone back to him. On the passage I was sea-sick, and not able to eat. When Mr. Legan brought me on to Skibbereen, after landing at Cork, he was not kind to me, and gave me nothing to eat or drink on the way. I tasted no food and got no drink from the time I left London till I arrived at the Skibbereen Workhouse. Mr. Legan did not offer to give me either food or drink. I had not a farthing of money. Mr. Legan brought over five other women with him from London and left them in Cork. Those other women had food with them on board the steamboat, but I had none, nor had I means of procuring any. I am sure Mr. Thomas would take me back into his service, if I could go to him. I was never in a Workhouse or received any poor relief before the parish doctor sent me into the Stepney Workhouse. My father has been dead for the last three years. My mother never received any parochial relief either in the Stepney Union or any other union that I know of. I swear most positively that I never was taken to any Police Court, or to Poplar Town Hall, before I was put on board the steamboat to come to Ireland. I never was in any house between the time of my being sent to the hospital of Stepney Workhouse and the time of my being put on board the steamboat. I was not above ten years old when I went into Mr. Thomas's service.

ROBERT EVANS, being duly sworn, saith—I am Master of the Skibbereen Workhouse. I know Margaret Regan, who was brought to the Workhouse by a man named George Legan on the 19th October last, and admitted by me on that day, in pursuance of a removal warrant from England.

On the 11th of this month I received a letter, purporting to be from Mary Regan, the mother of the said Margaret Regan, and inquiring whether Margaret Regan had arrived at the Workhouse, and stating that her daughter had been removed from England quite against her consent, and requesting information about her. I answered the letter on the following day.

I have lost Mary Regan's letter, but I read it for her daughter.

FRANCIS GANNON, being duly sworn, saith—I am a Sub-Constable in the Irish Constabulary, and am stationed at Skibbereen. On Monday the 19th of October last, I was on duty in the town of Skibbereen, and about two o'clock in the afternoon of that day I arrested George Legan, of Stepney, Middlesex, London, for being in a state of drunkenness. He was lying down in a drowsy state on the pathway, close to the Roman Catholic Chapel, in the town of Skibbereen. I took him to the barrack, and kept him in the strong room there for about an hour. I then took him before Mr. M'Carthy Downing, a Justice of the Peace for the town, who discharged him, because he stated to Mr. Downing that if he were detained he would lose his passage to London, which had been paid for, and that he had no means of returning if he lost such passage. He had only from a shilling to fourteen pence in money.

Legan in appearance was a most disreputable and blackguard-looking person, and was inclined to be very insolent.

No. 6. COPY LETTER from the UNDER SECRETARY of STATE for the HOME DEPARTMENT to the UNDER SECRETARY of His EXCELLENCY the LORD LIEUTENANT.

SIR, Whitehall, February 9, 1864.

With reference to your letter of the 2nd December last, I am directed by Secretary Sir George Grey to acquaint you, for the information of the Lord Lieutenant, that the Poor Law Board have communicated with the Guardians of the Stepney Union, respecting the case of Margaret Regan referred to by you, and a copy of the reply which they have received from the Guardians, in explanation of the circumstances under which the removal of the above pauper took place, is enclosed herewith for his Excellency's consideration.

I am, &c.,

H. WADDINGTON.

To Major-General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B.,
Dublin Castle.

Copy Letter to the Poor Law Board enclosed in foregoing.

Re Margaret Regan.

Board Room, Ratcliffe, E.
January 30, 1864.

Sir,

I am directed by the Board of Guardians to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 23rd ultimo, No. 46672/63, with its enclosures, relating to the removal of the above pauper to Ireland.

It appears from the correspondence and depositions in the matter that certain charges are made against the Guardians of this Union, and as such charges are based upon statements made by the pauper herself, and will be met by denials, it is, perhaps, only proper that the Poor Law Board should be informed of the fact that the pauper has only recently been confined in Colney Hatch Lunatic Asylum, and that she may therefore be regarded as being hardly responsible for the truth of her assertions.

While in Colney Hatch Asylum, to which place the pauper was sent from this Union, on the 29th day of September, 1862, she was chargeable to the county of Middlesex, her previous residence in the Commercial-road having been in the neighbouring Union of Whitechapel.

When she left the asylum she went into some situation which had been provided for her somewhere, as it is believed, in the neighbourhood of Paddington. She afterwards came back to live with her mother in Ratcliffe in this Union, and on the 7th day of July last, applied to Mr. Wright, the Relieving Officer for that hamlet, for relief, stating that she was unable to procure a situation. At this time she appeared to be in good health. She was admitted into the Union Workhouse, chargeable to the hamlet of Ratcliffe, and on the following Thursday the Guardians made an order for her removal to Ireland. Before, however, she could be removed she became ill, and no further steps were taken in the matter until after the 9th October last, when the Medical Officer certified that she was in a fit state of health to bear the journey. A copy of the certificate given by the officer is sent herewith.

Upon the receipt of the certificate, steps were taken for the removal of the pauper pursuant to the order of the Guardians. She was taken by Mr. Coningham, the Removing Officer of the Union, on the following day (10th October), to Poplar Town Hall, where two magistrates for the county, Messrs. Fletcher and Dixon, were sitting in petty sessions, and those gentlemen made the order for the removal in the usual manner. The erroneous description of the magistrates contained in the copy order transmitted to Ireland is to be regretted; it doubtless arose from the Removing Officer inadvertently making such copy upon a wrong form. A copy of the order actually made is sent herewith.

The statement by the pauper that the Guardians, accompanied by a magistrate, went into the sick ward where she was, and procured her mark to her statement that she would like to be sent home, is a fabrication upon her part, as is also her assertion that she was not allowed to see her mother; the fact being that she was allowed out of the Workhouse to visit and spend the day with her parent before her removal, and that after making such visit she voluntarily returned to and slept at Ratcliffe Workhouse, in this Union, on the night of the 13th October last, in order that she might be removed to Ireland on the following day.

With respect to the assertion of the pauper that she was removed as a deck-passenger, and that she was not supplied with food upon her journey, I beg leave to state that Mr. John Frost, of No. 46, High-street, Wapping, the person employed by this Union to remove the pauper to Ireland, states positively that such assertions are untrue. I have deemed it prudent to take down Mr. Frost's statement upon the subject in writing, and beg leave to forward a copy thereof herewith. I also enclose a copy of the receipt given by him to the Guardians for his charges incidental to the removal of the pauper to Ireland.

Perhaps I should state, for the information of the Poor Law Board, and as touching the general truthfulness of the pauper's family, that a short time since the mother of the pauper appeared before the Guardians of this Union, and applied to them for out relief for herself and two children, whom she brought with her, and whom she claimed as her own. When, however, the children were examined apart from her, they disowned their would-be parent, and it turned out that they had been borrowed for the occasion.

I much regret that my late illness has caused this explanation of the matter to be so long deferred.

I am, &c.,
(Signed), W. H. Swepstone, Clerk.

To H. Fleming, esq., Secretary,
Poor Law Board, Whitehall.

II.—Copy Warrant of Removal.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Stepney Union, in the County of Middlesex, and to the Guardians of the Poor of the parish of Skibbereen, in the county of Cork, in Ireland.

At a Petty Sessions of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, holden at the Town Hall, Poplar, in the said county, on the tenth day of October, 1863, before us the undersigned, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county.

County of Middlesex, to wit. } Whereas complaint is now made by the Guardians of the Poor of the Stepney Union, in the county of Middlesex, that Margaret Regan has become and is now chargeable to the hamlet of Ratcliffe, in the said Union. And whereas the said Margaret Regan having been brought before us, and application having been made to us in petty sessions assembled by John Coningham, the Removing-officer of the said Guardians, on their behalf, we have made due examination on oath, and find that the said Margaret Regan is of the reputed age of seventeen years, and was born in Ireland, in the Parish of Skibbereen, in the county of Cork, now contained in the said Union of Skibbereen, and hath not a settlement in England, and is not otherwise exempt from removal from the said Stepney Union; and I have seen the said Margaret Regan and am satisfied that the said Margaret Regan is in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal.

These are, therefore, to require you, the Guardians of the Poor of the Stepney Union, to cause the said Margaret Regan to be safely conveyed to the parish of Skibbereen, to the said Union of Skibbereen, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union.

IV.—Copy of Statement of Mr. Frost.

Re Margaret Regan.

I, John Frost, state as follows:—

It is not true, as stated, that the above pauper was forwarded by me to Ireland as a deck passenger. I paid for her accommodation below deck, pursuant to the Act of Parliament, and supplied her with provisions for four days.

It was I who forwarded the other five women mentioned in Margaret Regan's deposition to Ireland, and I supplied the whole of them with the same quantity of food. All these women were under the charge of Legan on board the boat. Legan has been in my employ, at different times, about five years, and I never heard any complaint against him before. I am sorry that he misconducted himself in Ireland; but it does not appear that he was intoxicated until after he had performed all his duties there.

No. 7.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the UNDER SECRETARY of His EXCELLENCY the LORD LIEUTENANT.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin.

SIR, March 3, 1864.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland return to you herewith the file of papers, which you referred to them on the 11th ultimo, on the subject of the removal of Margaret Regan from Stepney Union to Skibbereen.

The Commissioners have communicated the statement of the Clerk of Stepney Union, and the documents which accompanied it, to the Skibbereen Board of Guardians, who have passed a resolution to the effect, that they cannot now question the removal of Margaret Regan, but that they feel that it is not at all certain but that she was sent as a deck-passenger; and that Legan (the Removing Officer) was undoubtedly drunk, and a person quite unfit to be trusted with the removal of a pauper.

The Commissioners enclose for the information of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, a copy of the resolution referred to, and desire at the same time to express their concurrence in the tenor of it.

On the subject of Mr. Frost's explanations regarding the deck passage on this and other like cases, the Commissioners propose to report generally to his Excellency in another communication.*

In reference to the individual case of Margaret Regan, the Commissioners cannot forbear observing that it is a very striking instance of the harsh operation of the law relating to the removal of Irish poor, according to the facts as appearing in the statement of the Clerk of Stepney Union.

The girl is stated in the warrant to be only seventeen years of age; she is known, as would appear from the Clerk's statement, to be subject to fits of lunacy, that fact being adverted to by him as calculated to throw doubt upon the truth of any statements that she may have made at Skibbereen, and as showing that she may be regarded as hardly responsible for the truth of her assertions; and yet, all this being known to the removing authorities, her own statements on oath were taken as the sole ground on which to issue a warrant of removal, and under the authority of the warrant issued on those statements she is separated forcibly and against her will from her mother, a widow without other children, and sent to a great distance beyond sea, to a country where there was no one whom she knew, and where she is now cut off from all personal communication with her nearest and perhaps only known relative alive, whom she is prevented by law from making any endeavour to rejoin in England.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. BANKS, Chief Clerk.

To Major-General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B.
Dublin Castle.

IV.—GUARDIANS' MANUAL OF THE LAW OF CHARGEABILITY UNDER THE IRISH POOR RELIEF ACTS.

It will be convenient for the Guardians of Unions in Ireland, when called upon to consider questions of chargeability under the Poor Law to have before them in a succinct shape, arranged in the order of time, all the provisions relating to the subject which have at any time been in force since the introduction of the law, and which are scattered through five Acts of Parliament. Although a few of the earlier provisions are now virtually obsolete, it will throw much light on the construction of the provisions which are in force to see what the original design was, and how it became modified from time to time by successive enactments.

Thus on reading the whole as one connected series we cannot fail to observe—

Firstly—That the Register of persons relieved was made the criterion of chargeability from the first, and continues to be so throughout.

Secondly—That the previous residence of the person actually relieved, as described in the Register, has always determined the chargeability of the relief afforded to him, and still does so, with one declared exception.

The following are all the provisions of the Irish Poor Law Acts which have at any time governed the question of chargeability on electoral divisions; viz:—

Secs. 43 and 44 of 1 and 2 Vict., c. 56;
Secs. 12 and 13 of 6 and 7 Vict., c. 92;
Secs. 11 and 12 of 10 Vict., c. 31;
Sec. 1 of 12 and 13 Vict., c. 104;
and Sec. 1 of 25 and 26 Vict., c. 83.

All that is contained in each of these sections relating to chargeability on electoral divisions, will now be quoted in full.

Secs. 43 and 44 of 1 and 2 Vic., c. 56.

"XLIII. And be it enacted, that the Commissioners shall furnish to every Board of Guardians, for the use of the master or other principal resident officer of every Workhouse, one of such Register Books, at a reasonable price, the cost whereof shall be borne by the Union in which such Workhouse shall be situate; and every such master or officer shall, as soon as conveniently may be, register in the said book the particulars required to be registered according to the form in the said first Schedule, touching every person to be admitted into and relieved in such Workhouse; and such Register Book shall be produced at every meeting of Guardians for their examination and approval, or correction, and, when so approved or corrected, shall be signed by the Chairman, and countersigned by the Clerk.

"XLIV. And be it enacted, that the Board of Guardians of every Union shall cause accounts to be kept of the expense incurred in respect of the persons relieved in any Workhouse within such Union, and such accounts shall be made up at the end of every six calendar months; and the Board of Guardians shall charge against the electoral division as formed by virtue of this Act, at the end of such period, the proportion of such expense as shall appear to have been incurred in respect of every person so relieved, who shall be stated in the Registry to have been resident within such electoral division; and the expense incurred in respect of every person so relieved and not stated in the Registry to have been resident within some electoral division of the Union shall be borne by and charged against the whole Union."

Secs. 12 and 13 of 6 and 7 Vict., c. 92.

"XII. And be it enacted, that, for the purpose of charging the expense of relief to any electoral division, no person shall, after the passing of this Act, be deemed to have been resident in such electoral division, unless during the eighteen calendar months before his admission into the Workhouse he have occupied some tenement within such division for twelve calendar months, or (if he have not so occupied some tenement) have usually slept within such division for the period of twelve calendar months; and the expense of the relief of all other persons who have not so occupied a tenement, or slept within such division, shall be borne by and charged against the whole Union in which they are relieved; and whenever any person, after quitting the Workhouse of any Union, is again admitted within the space of six calendar months, the expense incurred in respect of such person shall be borne and charged in the same manner as before his so quitting the Workhouse: provided always, that every child relieved at the same time with any person liable under the provisions of the said first-recited Act to maintain such child shall be deemed to have been resident with such person, and its relief shall be charged to the electoral division or Union, as the case may be, accordingly.

"XIII. And be it enacted, that if any person be described in the Register Book as resident in any electoral division who has not so occupied a tenement or so slept in such division as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Guardian or Guardians of such electoral division, or a majority of them, or for any three or more of the ten persons rated on the largest amount of net annual value within the electoral division, with the consent in writing of the Commissioners first obtained, to appeal against the decision of the Board of Guardians, in the same manner as any person aggrieved by an order or conviction of Justices may appeal under the said first and secondly recited Acts;* and if the Justices and Assistant Barrister or Recorder do not see fit to award costs to either party, the Guardians shall charge their costs to the whole of the Union; and if the Justices and Assistant Barrister or Recorder see fit to award costs to the respondents, the Guardians of the Union shall charge their costs to the electoral division on whose behalf the appeal is entered; and if they see fit to award costs to the appellant, the Guardians of the Union shall pay such costs, and shall charge the same to the rest of the Union exclusively of such electoral district."

Secs. 11 and 12 of 10 Vict., c. 31.

"XI. And be it enacted, that, for the purpose of charging the relief afforded out of the Workhouse under the provisions of this Act, the Poor Law Commissioners shall cause to be printed, and shall furnish to every Clerk of an Union in Ireland, a Register Book, to be called "The Out-door Relief Register," in a form similar to the Workhouse Register prescribed by the first-recited Act, in which the Clerk of the Union shall register, together with the other particulars in the said form required, the name of the electoral division in which every person relieved under this Act, out of the Workhouse, shall have been resident at the time of his beginning to receive such relief; and all the provisions of the said Acts now in force for the relief of the destitute poor in Ireland, which determine the circumstances under which any person shall be deemed to have been resident in an electoral division, and the manner of charging the expense of the relief of persons stated in the Register to have been so resident in some electoral division, and of persons not stated in the Register to have been so resident, and all the provisions of the said Acts which relate to the production of the Register at every meeting of Guardians for their approval, examination, and correction, and the signing and countersigning of the same, and all provisions of the said Acts which relate to the power of appealing against the decision of the Board of Guardians, touching the description of the residence of any person in the said Register, and to the costs which may be incurred in such appeal, shall extend and apply to the Out-door Relief Register to be kept as aforesaid under the provisions of this Act, and to the persons relieved under this Act out of the Workhouse, and to the manner of charging the expense of the relief so afforded to such persons under this Act, and to the decisions of the Board of Guardians touching the description of the residence of any person in the Out-door Relief Register.

"XII. And be it enacted, that for the purpose of charging the expense of relief to any electoral division, no person shall after the passing of this Act be deemed to have been resident in such electoral division, unless during the three years before his application for relief he had occupied some tenement within such division for thirty calendar months, or, if he had not so occupied some tenement, had usually slept within such division for the period of thirty calendar months."

Sec. 1 of 12 and 13 Vict., c. 104.

"Whereas it is expedient to amend the laws in force for the more effectual relief of the destitute poor in Ireland: be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that for the purpose of charging the expense of relief to any electoral division every person making application for relief shall, after the passing of this Act, be deemed to have been resident in such electoral division in which during the period of three years next immediately before his application for relief he shall have been longest usually resident, whether by usually occupying any tenement situate or by usually sleeping within such district: provided always, that where any such person shall not have occupied a tenement or slept within any such electoral division for at least twelve months in the whole during the said period of three years, the expense of the relief of such person shall in such case be borne by and charged against the whole Union in which he or she is relieved; provided also, that where any person chargeable to any electoral division shall have received relief, and shall cease to be relieved, and shall thereafter, within the period of twelve months, again begin to receive relief, such last-mentioned relief shall be chargeable on the electoral division to which such person was in the first instance chargeable: provided also, that the cost for the relief of destitute poor who shall not have resided in the Union where such relief is given for the last three years next previous to receiving such relief shall be charged and chargeable according to the provisions of an Act passed in the tenth year of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to make further Provision for the Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland.'"

* 1 and 2 Vict., c. 56; and 2 Vict., c. 1.

Sec. 1 of 25 and 26 Vict., c. 83.

"I. For the purpose of charging the expense of relief to any electoral division, every person making application for relief after the passing of this Act shall be deemed to have been resident in such electoral division in which, during the period of five years next before his application for relief, he shall have been longest usually resident, whether by usually occupying any tenement situate, or by usually sleeping, within such district: provided always, that where any such person shall not have occupied a tenement or slept within any such electoral division for at least two years in the whole during the said period of five years, the expense of the relief of such person shall in such case be borne by and charged against the whole Union in which he or she is relieved: provided also, that where any person chargeable to any electoral division shall have received relief, and shall cease to be relieved, and shall thereafter within the period of twelve months again begin to receive relief, such last-mentioned relief shall be chargeable on the electoral division to which such person was in the first instance chargeable: provided also, that the cost for the relief of destitute poor who shall not have resided in the Union where such relief is given for the last five years next previous to receiving such relief shall be charged and chargeable according to the provisions of an Act passed in the tenth year of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to make further Provision for the Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland:' provided also, that in estimating the time of residence in the Union or electoral division, residence in the Workhouse shall be considered to be residence in the Union, and also in the electoral division, if there be any such to which the pauper during such residence shall be chargeable, but shall not be considered to be residence in the electoral division in which the Workhouse is situate, unless the pauper be chargeable to such division."

Sections erroneously referred to.

A great deal of unnecessary confusion and uncertainty has been created at the Boards of Guardians of some of the Unions, in consequence of other provisions of the Irish Poor Law having been referred to as bearing on the question of chargeability on electoral divisions in certain cases; those sections, having, however, no relation whatever to the subject.

The sections more particularly alluded to are the following:—

Sec. 54 of 1 and 2 Vict., c. 56.

"LIV. And be it enacted, that all relief given under this Act to a wife or child shall be considered as given to the person declared by this Act to be liable to maintain such wife or child."

Sec. 8 of 10th Vic., c. 31.

"VIII. And be it enacted that all relief given under this Act to a wife or child shall be considered as given to the person who, under the provisions of the first-recited Act, shall be liable to maintain such wife or child; and the child of any poor person relieved under this Act shall be subject to the same liability in respect of such relief as in respect of any relief granted under the above-recited Act passed in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty."

Under the first of the two sections last above cited, and under the first branch of the second of those sections, has arisen the doubt so often suggested, whether the residence of the person liable to maintain the wife or child is not the residence to be regarded in determining the chargeability, instead of the residence of the person actually relieved.

As already stated, neither of these two sections has any relation to the subject of the chargeability of relief on electoral divisions. They have another and entirely different application, and merely indicate the person who is liable for the repayment of the cost of any relief afforded which might be recovered under the provisions of the Poor Law Acts. The sections with which section 54 of the original Act is in juxtaposition (i.e. secs. 53 and 55) show clearly that this is its bearing, and its only bearing. Thus section 53 declares the liability of persons therein described to maintain certain other persons; section 54 declares relief given to the latter shall be "considered" as given to the former; and section 55 shows how the cost of relief is to be recovered from "the person to whom it is given, or considered as given, under this Act."

It is also to be observed that under 6 and 7 Vic., c. 92, the residence in question was the residence of the person relieved previous to his or her admission to the Workhouse; and this, surely, could not have been the residence of the husband or father in cases in which he never was an inmate of the Workhouse.

Similar observations apply to the corresponding words regarding out-relief in section 8 of 10th Victoria, cap. 31. Moreover, in the case of this section the words relied on are associated with other language relating most clearly to the liability to repay the cost of relief, and not to electoral division chargeability.

Child Relieved together with Parent.

With regard to the one case which is expressly declared by enactment to be excepted from the general rule of chargeability, it is enacted in the proviso to the 12th section of 6th and 7th Vict., cap. 92, that "every child relieved at the same time with any person liable under the provisions of the first-recited Act to maintain such child shall be deemed to have been resident with such person;" and "its relief shall be charged to the electoral division or Union, as the case may be, accordingly." This proviso very clearly shows that the Legislature did not assign such a meaning to the 54th section of 1st and 2nd Vict. as that which has been attempted to be placed upon it, otherwise there would have been no necessity for this enactment.

Secondly, the language of the proviso is such as to restrict this departure from the general rule of chargeability according to the residence of the person actually relieved, to the case where the parent is relieved "at the same time," when his residence would of course be described on the Workhouse Register. In any other case, the child's chargeability would necessarily have continued to be governed by its own residence previous to admission, and not by the previous residence of its parent, which might not have been within the Union, or might not be known.

The appeal given by this Act of 6th and 7th Vic., cap. 92, in favour of an electoral division alleged to be unjustly charged is not against the charge itself, but against the erroneous description in the Register of the residence of the person relieved, clearly showing that this, and this alone, is the basis of chargeability, except in the one excepted case of the child relieved at the same time with the parent.

Wife Relieved together with Husband.

It is very probable that the omission of the wife from the operation of this proviso was not intentional on the part of the framers of the Act; but from what has been already stated, it would seem impossible to depart from the principle of "residence as described on the Register," without an express legislative direction to do so, otherwise than by proceeding on a principle which would render it impossible in a great number of cases to determine the chargeability according to the rule of residence laid down by the Legislature for that purpose.

It is hoped that the doubts above alluded to, wherever they exist, on the subject of the chargeability of the wife and child, may be removed by the preceding explanation, as the greater part of the questions which are now referred to the Commissioners for solution have relation to the chargeability of wife or child under the sections referred to.

Last Amendment Act.

It does not seem necessary to dwell upon any other questions of construction which have occasionally arisen, nor would it be possible to anticipate the various states of facts involved in the cases which may hereafter arise. It is sufficient to observe that under the last Amendment Act the future cases are divisible into two classes, one of which, defined by five years' residence in the Union, falls within the provisions of the first section of that Act, and the other does not. The latter class of cases must be determined according to the provisions of the 10th Vict., cap. 31, and the previous provisions not virtually repealed by that Act.

Precedents.

It may be further useful to the Guardians of Unions to subjoin a limited number of precedents applicable to cases like those which have heretofore been most frequently referred to the Commissioners as involving questions of doubt and difficulty. In regard to these precedents, however, the Guardians will understand that in any case of disputed chargeability, if the parties authorized to appeal against an alleged wrongful decision of the Board of Guardians should wish to avail themselves of that course, and to apply for the necessary consent on the part of the Poor Law Commissioners, the Commissioners will not feel themselves precluded by any opinion expressed by them, either here or elsewhere, from entertaining the application and giving their consent to an appeal whenever the state of the facts or any question of law involved may appear to them to admit of doubt.

I. As to Residence.

1. A pauper was admitted to the workhouse in November, 1862, and charged to an electoral division, and the chargeability was objected to, on the ground that although she was born in that division she had had no fixed residence in it for many years. She had been frequently relieved before and always charged to the same division, and the following statement of the periods during which she had so received relief was forwarded to the Commissioners :—

From	8th January,	1856,	to 27th March,	1856.
„	17th May,	1856,	to 5th August,	1856.
„	13th December,	1856,	to 13th April,	1857.

The Commissioners stated that, assuming the chargeability to have been correct when the pauper was admitted in December, 1861, the Guardians were right in charging her to the same division on her re-admission in November, 1862, in accordance with the 2nd proviso in the 1st section of the 25th and 26th Vic., c. 83; but that if the chargeability of December, 1861, was erroneous, the Guardians were not bound by it, and on her application for re-admission might properly reconsider the question of her previous residence. It does not appear to be alleged that she had not resided in the union for the five years before her last application for relief, but merely that she had resided in various electoral divisions; and it was therefore necessary to determine in what electoral division she had been longest resident, and to charge her to that electoral division if the period of her residence in it amounted in the whole to two years; but if not, then to the union at large; and it is to be observed, that in estimating the period of residence in the union or electoral division, residence in the workhouse is to be considered as residence in the electoral division to which the pauper was chargeable during such residence in the workhouse.

II. Break in the Residence.

2. The opinion of the Commissioners was requested as to the proper chargeability of a man who had been admitted to the workhouse, and who during the last five years had lodged in one division of the union, with the exception of five months in the present year, one month last year, and one month the year before, which he spent in England either in employment or in search of employment. The Commissioners stated that it is for the Board of Guardians to determine in each case of this kind that comes before them, whether the facts are such as to constitute a break in the residence for the period required by law. The Commissioners were of opinion that a short temporary absence of the pauper without any intention of taking up his residence elsewhere, would not constitute a break in the residence; but it is for the Guardians to consider whether an absence for so long a period as five months in search of employment can be regarded as a mere temporary absence of this description, and not, therefore, as a break in the residence. If the Guardians should arrive at the conclusion that the absence was not such as to constitute a break in the residence the pauper would appear to be chargeable to the electoral division; but if, on the other hand, they consider there has not been such a residence for five years as is contemplated by the 1st section of the 25th and 26th Vic., c. 83, the chargeability must be regulated by the 12th section of the 10th Vic., c. 31; and in that case it would depend upon whether he had occupied a tenement or usually slept in the division for thirty months out of the last three years. If he had so occupied a tenement or usually slept for that period, he would be chargeable to the division, but if not, he would be chargeable to the union at large.

3. In reply to an inquiry whether a pauper must have resided permanently without having been out of the union for the last five years before he can be charged to an electoral division, the Commissioners stated that when residence in the union shall not have existed for the required period of five years, the charge is to be made according to the provisions of a previous Act (10 Vic., c. 31, sec. 12), requiring thirty months' residence in one electoral division. The circumstances peculiar to each case must be considered in determining whether there has been any such break in the residence of an applicant for relief in the union or any particular electoral division as would be of a nature sufficient to change the mode of charging the cost of the relief afforded.

4. A Board of Guardians having requested to be informed how a pauper seeking admission should be charged who had resided in an electoral division for the past three years, but who was out of the union immediately before for two years, one year, or six months. The Commissioners referred to the third proviso to the 1st section of the Act 25 and 26 Vic., c. 83, by which it is declared that the cost of relief, where the pauper has not resided in the union for the five years next preceding the receipt of relief, shall be charged according to the provisions of the Act 10 Vic., c. 31. The Commissioners also referred to the 12th section of the last-mentioned Act, from which it will be perceived that in a case such as that referred to, the party is chargeable to the electoral division in which he is stated to have resided for thirty months out of the past three years.

5. The opinion of the Commissioners was requested as to the chargeability of a pauper whose residence during the five years before her application for relief had been as follows :—

Years.	Months.
–	5½	in the Workhouse, charged to Crossboyne Division.
3	9	in the Claremorris Electoral Division.
–	3	in the Tagheen Electoral Division.
–	6½	in another union.

The Commissioners stated that the pauper not having resided within the union for the whole of the period of five years next preceding her application for relief, the cost of the relief while in the workhouse was chargeable, according to the provisions of the 12th section of the Act 10 Vic., c. 31, which, for the purpose of charging the cost of relief to an electoral division, requires a residence of thirty calendar months in the electoral division out of the three years before the application for relief.

6. A woman was admitted and charged to an electoral division. She had been in gaol (out of the union) for the last two years and a-half, but had resided in the electoral division the rest of her life. She had been committed to gaol as a lunatic, and was not in the workhouse at the time of being committed, nor previously ; and the Guardians wished to know whether she was still chargeable on the same division.

The Commissioners advised that she was chargeable to the union at large, inasmuch as she had not resided in the union for the full term of five years next previous to receiving relief, nor for the period of thirty months out of the three years immediately preceding her application for relief in any electoral division of the union.

7. The opinion of the Commissioners having been requested as to the chargeability of an applicant for admission who had resided all his life in one electoral division, with the exception of five weeks during which he was absent, and out of the union, on drill in the militia ; and whether this absence of five weeks made him a union pauper. The Commissioners stated that the temporary absence of the applicant from the union, as described, did not appear to them to alter his chargeability.

III. Occupation of a dwelling-house—usually sleeping.

8. A man was admitted into the workhouse for medical treatment, and a question arose as to his chargeability, it appearing that he had for the last seven years worked and slept for five nights in each week in electoral division A, while at the same time his wife and children occupied a tenement in electoral division B, for which he paid the rent, and where he stayed on Saturday nights and Sundays.

The Commissioners were of opinion that the chargeability was on electoral division B, inasmuch as the house in which his family resided was clearly in his occupation, whether he slept in it or not during the whole time in question.*

* See the words of 6 and 7 Vic., cap. 92, sec. 12, and 10 Vic., cap. 31, sec. 12—"If he have not so occupied some tenement, have usually slept within such division."

IV. Out-door relief chargeability.

9. A woman residing in electoral division A was in receipt of out-door relief, chargeable to electoral division B, and the Guardians desired to be informed whether, if she remained in electoral division A for any certain period, she would become chargeable to that division.

The Commissioners stated that a residence in a different electoral division from that to which the person is chargeable will not alter the chargeability while the relief continues, or even after discontinuance for less than one year; but that after discontinuance for a year the chargeability might become altered by residence.

10. A person became destitute in an electoral division in which she had resided twenty-six months, having previously resided out of the union. Out-door relief was given by the Guardians and charged to the union at large. After she had continued in receipt of relief for twelve months a question was raised as to her chargeability; and the Guardians requested to be informed whether, as she had now resided three years and two months in the electoral division, she still continued chargeable to the union at large.

The Commissioners stated that the provisions of the law which are applicable to the chargeability of the relief of persons admitted into the workhouse are also applicable in cases of relief out of the workhouse. By those provisions relief in the workhouse is determinable according to the residence of the applicant previously to his application for relief, and no question can arise to change his chargeability until he ceases to be relieved and again applies for relief.

V. Circumstances under which the chargeability on re-admission is to be the same as before.

11. A man with his wife and family lived in Haggardstown Electoral Division for five years, then left and went to live in Dromiskin Electoral Division, and shortly afterwards the man died. The woman then obtained out-door relief, chargeable to Haggardstown Division. She continued to receive out-door relief at intervals for two years and a-half, and then entered the workhouse with her family. The opinion of the Commissioners was requested whether she should, on entering the workhouse, be charged to Dromiskin Division, where she had lived for two years and a-half, or to Haggardstown Division, to which the out-door relief which she had received had been charged.

The Commissioners stated that if a year did not elapse between the time the woman last received out-door relief which was charged to Haggardstown Electoral Division and the time she entered the workhouse, her relief in the workhouse was properly chargeable to that division; it being provided by the 1st section of the Act 25 and 26 Vic., c. 83, that when any person chargeable to an electoral division shall have received relief and shall cease to be relieved, and shall thereafter within the period of twelve months* again begin to receive relief, such last mentioned relief shall be chargeable on the electoral division to which such person was in the first instance chargeable.

12. In reply to an inquiry whether, if a pauper properly charged to

* This period of twelve months only applies to cases where the previous chargeability was to an electoral division; the 12th section of the 6th and 7th Vic., cap. 92, which contains the first enactment, that persons on re-admission within a certain time shall be charged as before, applied to all cases, whether the person was chargeable to an electoral division or to the union at large; subsequent enactments have extended the period to twelve months in the case of electoral division paupers, but have not made any change in regard to paupers charged to the union at large.

any electoral division leaves the workhouse and the union and returns to the workhouse in six months, such pauper is chargeable to the electoral division to which he was previously chargeable; the Commissioners stated that in such a case effect must be given to the second proviso to section 1 of the Act 25 and 26 Vic., c. 83, by which it is enacted that where any person chargeable to any electoral division shall have received relief and shall cease to be relieved, and shall thereafter within the period of twelve months again begin to receive relief, such last-mentioned relief shall be chargeable to the electoral division to which such person was in the first instance chargeable.

13. A man with his wife and two children took their discharge from the workhouse in the month of August, having been inmates for only a few months. Up to the date of his admission and after his discharge the husband lived apart from his wife and children, he in one electoral division and they in another. The wife and children were again admitted in January, but without the husband, and the opinion of the Commissioners was requested whether the wife and children ought to be charged to the electoral division on which they with the husband were charged when last in the workhouse, or whether the woman was, under the circumstances, to be regarded independently of the husband, and charged according to her own residence for the last five years.

The Commissioners advised that, assuming the wife and children to have been properly charged in the first instance, they were now chargeable as before.

14. The opinion of the Commissioners was requested whether a man who had been an inmate of the workhouse charged to an electoral division for a period of seven years, and who then went out of the workhouse and left the union for a period of sixteen months, during which time he married a woman with two children, was to be charged on readmission to the same electoral division as before, or to the union at large, and whether the woman and her two children, who were under age, were to be placed on the same chargeability with him.

The Commissioners advised that, more than twelve months having elapsed since the man left the workhouse, he was not necessarily chargeable to the same electoral division as before; and that not having resided in the union for the last five years, his chargeability must be determined by the 10th Vic., c. 31, according to which no person is to be deemed to have been resident in an electoral division, unless during the three years before his application for relief he had occupied some tenement, or usually slept in such division for thirty calendar months; and that, therefore, the man appearing to have been absent from the union for sixteen months, he was chargeable to the union at large.

In regard to the children, the Commissioners referred to the proviso to the 12th section of the 6th and 7th Vic., c. 92, according to which every child relieved at the same time with any person liable, under the provisions of the 1st and 2nd Vic., c. 56, to maintain such child, is to be deemed to have been resident with such person, and the relief charged accordingly. The children are therefore chargeable in the same way as the man; but in regard to the wife, the provision just quoted being limited to children, and there being no similar provision in relation to wives, the Commissioners were of opinion that she was chargeable according to her own previous residence.

VI. As to residence in Gaols or Public Institutions.

15. A woman who had resided all her life in an electoral division became insane, and was committed to gaol as a dangerous lunatic, the gaol being out of the union. After a period of seventeen months she was discharged from gaol and returned to her former residence, and was then admitted to the workhouse, and charged to the union at large on the ground that she had not resided in the union for the full term of the last five years, and had not resided in any electoral division for thirty months out of the last three years. It was contended, however, that as her residence out of the union was not voluntary, but compulsory, and that if she had been admitted to the workhouse at the time she was sent to gaol, she would have been charged to the electoral division in which she had previously resided, the case differed from an ordinary one of residence within the meaning of the sections relating to chargeability according to residence.

The Commissioners stated that there is no provision in the Poor Law Acts which distinguish between residence in a gaol, whether compulsory or otherwise, and residence under ordinary circumstances. The Guardians, in determining the question of chargeability in this case, must therefore look upon the time spent by the woman in Cavan Gaol as simply residence for so long out of the Cootehill Union in the ordinary way.

16. A person who had been infirmary nurse in the workhouse for fourteen years, previous to which she had resided in the electoral division in which the workhouse was situated, became a pauper inmate of the workhouse, and the Guardians requested the opinion of the Commissioners as to her chargeability—it being contended by some of the Guardians that she should be charged to the union at large, having been an officer in the workhouse, which belonged to the entire union, while others considered that she was chargeable to the division in which the workhouse was situated.

The Commissioners advised that the residence of a paid officer in the workhouse must be regarded as residence in the electoral division in which it is situate; and that, consequently, the late nurse would appear to be chargeable to that division on her admission as a pauper.

17. In reply to an inquiry as to the chargeability of a young man who had been for the last seven years an inmate of the Catholic Deaf and Dumb Institution in Dublin, chargeable to Kilkenny Electoral Division, but who was now admitted to the workhouse; the Commissioners stated that the relief afforded would remain chargeable in the same way that it had been charged during the time the person relieved was in the asylum.

VII. As to Chargeability of Dependent Members of Families.

18. The opinion of the Commissioners having been requested whether, in the event of a married woman, or a child under fifteen years of age, obtaining relief in the workhouse unaccompanied by the person liable to maintain such wife or child, the chargeability of the party should be regulated by that of the head of the family, or by the previous residence of such wife or child, irrespective of the residence of the husband or parent; the Commissioners stated that in such cases the chargeability of the parties admitted to relief should be determined without reference to the residence of the husband or father; for although it is declared by the 54th section of the Act 1 and 2 Vic., c. 56, and also by the 8th section of the 10th Vic., c. 31, that all relief given to a wife or child shall be considered as given to the person liable to maintain such wife or child, it does not follow that the cost of such relief is in every case to be borne by the electoral division to which the husband or father would be chargeable were he an inmate of the workhouse. The sections of the Poor Law Acts which relate to the mode of charging the cost of relief afforded to destitute persons, require that the chargeability of such persons shall be ascertained by reference to the previous residence of the recipients themselves, and not to that of the parties legally liable to maintain them. In case, however, the head of the family shall enter the workhouse as a pauper while any child under the age of fifteen years which he is liable to maintain, under the 52rd section of the Act 1 and 2 Vic., c. 56, shall be maintained therein, the latter would, in pursuance of the provisions of the 12th section of the 6th and 7th Vic., c. 92, be deemed to have been resident with the first-mentioned party, and the relief to such child should thenceforth be charged accordingly.

19. In reply to an inquiry whether children born in the workhouse or admitted to the workhouse under twelve months of age are legally chargeable to the union at large, the mother being chargeable to an electoral division; the Commissioners stated that in accordance with the last proviso to the 12th section of the 6th and 7th Vic., c. 92, every child relieved at the same time with any person liable to maintain such child is to be deemed to have been resident with such person, and its relief charged to the electoral division or to the union at large, as the case may be. Children admitted to the workhouse without the persons liable to maintain them are chargeable according to the circumstances of their own residence, irrespective of the residence of the persons liable for their maintenance, but not relieved at the same time with them. Illegitimate children should be registered in the name of the mother, who is legally liable for their maintenance. Children of the age specified admitted to the workhouse without the party legally liable to maintain them, will be chargeable, under the provisions of the 12th section of the Act 10 Vic., c. 31, to the union at large, not having been resident in the union, nor in any electoral division for thirty months out of the last three years.

20. The opinion of the Commissioners was requested as to the chargeability of two children admitted into the workhouse of Ennis Union, without their father, under the following circumstances:—The father came from Liscannor five years ago, and was employed at a building in Tulla Union and at the railway terminus in Ennis; he went to London—where he now is—two years ago; the children were continually living in Ennis from the time the father first came to the union, and were recently supported by their friends there.

The Commissioners stated that had the children resided in the union during the whole of the five years immediately preceding their admission to the workhouse, they would be chargeable to the electoral division in which they had resided longest, provided that they lived for at least two years in such division. If, however, they have not resided for the full term of five years in the union, they are chargeable, in accordance with the provisions of the 12th section of the 10th Vic., c. 31, to the electoral division in which they have resided for thirty months of the three years immediately preceding their admission; and failing that length of residence in any one electoral division, they are chargeable to the union at large. The father not having been relieved together with the children, his residence at former periods is immaterial to the question.

21. A child, aged nine years, was admitted to the workhouse with her grandmother: both had been resident for the last nine years in Clonakeelan Electoral Division. The father of the child went to America six years ago and has not since been heard of. The guardians wished to know how she should be charged.

The Commissioners stated that the chargeability of the child should be ascertained by reference to her own previous residence, without regard to the question of the residence of her father; and that as it appeared that she had always resided in Clonakeelan Electoral Division she was properly chargeable to that division.

22. A legitimate child was admitted to the workhouse and charged to the same electoral division with its mother, the father being absent from the union; and the opinion of the Commissioners was requested as to the correctness of this chargeability.

The Commissioners stated that in their opinion the chargeability of the child must be determined according to its own residence, and not according to that of the mother, who during the lifetime of the father could not be considered to be the person liable, under the provisions of the Irish Poor Relief Act, to maintain the child, as indicated in the proviso to the 12th section of the 6th and 7th Vic., c. 92.

23. In reply to an inquiry as to how a child under thirty months old and a child between thirty months and five years old should be charged, such children having always resided in one electoral division, and being both relieved without their parents; the Commissioners stated that a child under the age of thirty months admitted to the workhouse without the person legally liable to maintain it, will be chargeable under the provisions of the 12th section of the Act 10 Vic., c. 31, to the union at large, not having been resident in any electoral division for thirty months out of the preceding three years. In the case of children over that age and under five years, such of them as may have resided for the required time (viz., thirty months out of the last three years) in some particular electoral division of the union, will be chargeable to that division.

24. In reply to an inquiry as to the chargeability of a woman admitted to the workhouse, who had resided all her life in Naas, but who about two years and a-half before her admission had been married to a soldier, a stranger in the union, at that time in the Curragh Camp, but who had since left the country; the Commissioners stated that the woman must be charged according to her own residence, without reference to that of her husband.

25. A woman lived two and a-half years as servant in the electoral division of Strokestown, at the end of which period (February, 1862) she married a man who had resided in Annaghmore Electoral Division all his life. In October, 1862, she returned to Strokestown and lived there six months. Seven months since her husband went to England, where he still remains. Since leaving her last employment the woman has resided at the house of her husband's mother in Annaghmore Division, with the exception of a short time spent in the workhouse last September, charged to Annaghmore Division. The Commissioners were requested to advise whether the fact of the woman's own residence being three out of the last five years in Strokestown make her chargeable to that division, or whether the chargeability should be governed by the residence of the husband, or whether the question is affected by the fact of the woman having been charged to Annaghmore Division within the last twelve months.

The Commissioners advised that the chargeability was determinable according to the woman's own residence, and not according to that of her husband; and as it appeared that she had resided three out of the last five years in Strokestown, she was chargeable to that division. The fact of her having been relieved and charged to the Annaghmore Electoral Division within the last twelve months did not, in the opinion of the Commissioners, affect the question, that chargeability, according to the facts stated, having been clearly erroneous.

26. In reply to an inquiry whether a child born in the workhouse can legally be charged to the electoral division to which its mother is chargeable, the Commissioners stated that a child follows the registry of the father, if relieved at the same time with him, he being liable for its maintenance. If not relieved at the same time with the father it would be chargeable according to its own residence; and if under two years of age, to the union at large. An illegitimate child relieved with its mother takes the chargeability of the mother, the only parent known to the law.

27. A man chargeable to the union at large was admitted to the workhouse with his wife and her children by a former marriage; the woman, previously to her marriage, had acquired a chargeability to an electoral division. The parties were charged on admission as follows:—The man to the union at large, the woman to the electoral division to which she was chargeable according to her own residence, and her children to the union at large, the same as her husband. This mode of charging them was disputed, and the opinion of the Commissioners was requested, who stated that the Board appeared to have correctly determined the chargeability of the several members of the family, according to the facts stated.

28. In September, 1862, a woman and three children under fifteen years of age were admitted, chargeable to an electoral division. In March following, the husband was admitted, chargeable to the union at large, and the Commissioners were asked whether, on the admission of the husband, the chargeability of the wife and children should not be transferred from the electoral division to the union at large, to which he was chargeable.

The Commissioners stated that the chargeability of the wife should continue to be as determined, in accordance with her own residence during the three years preceding her application for relief; but that as the husband had entered the workhouse, his children under fifteen years of age should follow his chargeability, in accordance with the proviso to the 12th section of the Act 6 and 7 Vic., c. 92.

VIII. As to Chargeability of Illegitimate Children.

29. A woman with illegitimate children, charged to the union at large, left the workhouse, and got married to a man chargeable to an electoral division. She was re-admitted within twelve months, and the Commissioners were requested to advise whether she should be charged in accordance with the 25th and 26th Vic., c. 83, sec. 1, or whether her chargeability was to be altered according to the husband's chargeability, and whether the children's chargeability was to be altered.

The Commissioners advised that the chargeability of the wife must be determined according to the facts regarding her own residence, irrespective of the residence of her husband, and that the children, if relieved at the same time with the husband, would follow his registry, he being the person liable to maintain them; but if not relieved at the same time they would be chargeable according to their own residence.

30. An illegitimate child, ten months old, having been admitted to the workhouse without its mother, and charged to the electoral division to which its mother would have been chargeable, if in the workhouse, instead of to the union at large; the Guardian for the electoral division remonstrated, when the Board admitted the fact, but declined to make any alteration in the registry, on the ground that they had no legal power to do so.

The Commissioners stated that it is quite competent to the Guardians to amend the Register at any time, when an error in the chargeability in any case is discovered; their doing so, however, will not operate retrospectively, and there is no remedy as regards the expense of relief already incurred; but the Commissioners think that the Guardians ought to amend the Register, so as to have the future cost of relief properly charged.

31. In the case of an illegitimate child born in the workhouse, and charged to the same electoral division as its mother, the Guardians requested the opinion of the Commissioners whether it ought not to be charged to the division to which the putative father was chargeable, he being also an inmate of the workhouse, or to the union at large.

In reply, the Commissioners stated that the mother of the child is the only parent known to the law, and that, consequently, the child should be charged to the same electoral division as its mother. The 12th section of the Act 6 and 7 Vic., c. 92, provides that every child relieved at the same time with any person liable under the provisions of the 1st and 2nd Vic., c. 56, to maintain such child, shall be deemed to have been resident with such person, and its relief charged to the electoral division or union, as the case may be, accordingly.

IX. As to Chargeability of Deserted Children and Foundlings.

32. A deserted child having been admitted to the workhouse of North Dublin Union, who had been supported out of the parish rates of a parish in the city of Dublin for the four years preceding its admission, during which time the child was nursed in the county of Wicklow; the question as to its chargeability was submitted to the Commissioners, with the observation that the parish by which the child had been supported was in the North City Electoral Division.

The Commissioners were of opinion that the child ought, under the circumstances stated, to be charged to the union at large, inasmuch as he lived out of the North Dublin Union for four years before his admission to the workhouse. The fact that a locality different from that in which he lived bore the expense of his support, did not, in the opinion of the Commissioners, affect the question of his chargeability.

33. In reply to an inquiry whether a foundling, four and a-half years old, was chargeable to the division in which it was brought up or to the union at large, the Commissioners stated that as the child referred to was under five years of age it would require a residence of thirty out of the last thirty-six months in some one electoral division, to make its relief chargeable thereto.

34. A deserted child, aged about three years, which had from its birth been supported out of the county cess by Grand Jury presentments, was presented for admission by the nurse, a further presentment having been refused, and the Guardians wished to be informed how the chargeability of the child was to be determined; whether it should be charged to the union at large, the child having been originally a foundling, or to the electoral division in which the foster father and mother have resided.

The Commissioners advised that the chargeability of the child must be determined according to the facts as to its own residence; and that as the child was under five years of age (five years being the time specified by section 1 of the Act 25 and 26 Vic., c. 83), the question must be determined under the 10th Vic., c. 31, s. 12, which requires a residence of thirty months out of three years to render the person relieved chargeable to an electoral division.

* The month of January includes cases which occurred in the previous year, and were still under treatment in January.

† The registry of cases in a few of the Unions does not distinguish whether the disease first arose in or out of the Workhouse; the numbers in these columns do not therefore agree with the number in the previous column, showing the total number of cases.

Note on Columns headed "Result."—From the nature of the headings under the general term "Result," some cases are necessarily twice entered; and consequently the numbers in the several Columns exceed the total entered in the final Column.

Also as regards Columns headed "One eye lost," "Both eyes lost."—These columns include many cases in which the sight was lost before admission into the Workhouse.

APPENDIX C.

ORDERS AND CIRCULARS OF INSTRUCTION ISSUED UNDER THE MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT.

I.—ORDERS.

No. 1.—Order prescribing amended Form of Vaccination Register and Vaccination Report.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and the Clerks thereof; to the Committees of Management of Dispensary Districts therein; to the Officers of such Districts; and to all others whom it may concern:

Whereas, in exercise of the powers vested in Us by an Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to provide for the better distribution, support, and Management of Medical Charities in Ireland, and to amend an Act of the Eleventh Year of Her Majesty to provide for the execution of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland," We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, by Orders issued from time to time under our Seal, have declared the several Unions named in the Schedule annexed to this Order to be divided into Dispensary Districts for the purposes of the said Act:

And whereas, by a General Order under our Seal, bearing date the Sixteenth day of December, 1853, We have framed and issued General Rules and Regulations for the Government of each Dispensary District, and for the guidance and control of the Guardians, the Committees of Management, and the several Officers thereof:

And whereas, in the said last-recited Order, We have, among other things, directed that the Medical Officer shall vaccinate all persons who may come to him for that purpose, and that he shall keep a Register, in the Form to the said Order annexed, marked H, of all cases of Vaccination performed by him as Medical Officer of the Dispensary; and submit the same to the Committee of Management at each ordinary meeting:

And whereas, by another General Order under our Seal, bearing date the Twenty-third day of September, 1858, We did, in pursuance of the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 21st and 22nd years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the practice of Vaccination in Ireland," make and issue certain Regulations relating to Vaccination in the several Dispensary Districts, and did among other things order that the Report, which the Medical Officer is by the last-mentioned Act required from time to time to make to the Committee of Management, should be in the form thereunto annexed:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 26th and 27th years of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to further extend and make compulsory the practice of Vaccination in Ireland," it is enacted that the Registrar of Births and Deaths in the District in which the operation has been performed shall register the same in a Register which he shall keep of the persons of whose successful Vaccination a Certificate shall have been transmitted to him, as in the said Act provided, and of the persons whom he may have successfully vaccinated, as thereinbefore mentioned:

And whereas we deem it expedient to alter the Form of Vaccination Register prescribed by the said Order of the Sixteenth day of December, 1853, and the Form of Report to the Committee of Management prescribed by the said Order of the twenty-third day of September, 1858:

Now therefore, We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, do hereby order and direct as follows:—

I. The Medical Officer of every Dispensary District shall, instead of the Register of Vaccination prescribed by the said Order of the Sixteenth day of December, 1853, keep and duly enter up a Register in the annexed Form A, of all cases of successful Vaccination performed by him as Medical Officer of the Dispensary, and submit the same to the Committee of Management at each ordinary meeting. Provided always, that in any case where the Medical Officer of the Dispensary District is also the Registrar of Births and Deaths for the District, it shall not be necessary for him to insert in the said Vaccination Register any cases which he may have duly entered in the Register of Vaccination, which he is required to keep in pursuance of the 7th section of the last mentioned Act.

II. The Report which the Medical Officer is required, by the said Act of the 21st and 22nd years of Her Majesty, to make to the Committee of Management, shall be made in the Form B hereunto annexed, instead of in the Form prescribed by the said Order of the Twenty-third day of September, 1858.

II.—CIRCULARS.

No. 1.—Annual Appointment of Dispensary Committees and Wardens.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 21, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to call your attention to their Circular of the 21st of March, 1862,* relating to the annual appointment of Dispensary Committees and Wardens, and to the extracts from previous Circulars, appended thereto; and they request that you will take the necessary steps, as pointed out in the Circular referred to, to place before the Board of Guardians, after the next annual election, a correct list of the Members of the Board entitled to be Members of the respective Dispensary Committees in the Union.

As soon as the Committee shall have been completed for any Dispensary District, the Guardians should fix a day for the first meeting of such Committee, for the special purpose of appointing their Honorary Officers for the current year, in accordance with Articles 5 and 6 of the Dispensary Regulations, and you should give notice thereof to each member of the Dispensary Committee, in accordance with Articles 10 and 12 of the Dispensary Regulations.

A Form for the Return of Officers of the several Dispensary Committees in the Union will be forwarded to you in due course.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of the Board of Guardians of each Union.

No. 2.—Compulsory Vaccination Act.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
August 10, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of an Act (26 and 27 Vic., c. 52) which received the Royal assent on the 13th ultimo, to further extend and make compulsory the practice of Vaccination in Ireland.

It will be observed that the provisions of the Act do not come into operation until the 1st of January next, and that none of the provisions of the existing Vaccination Acts, excepting that which relates to the mode of remunerating the Dispensary Medical Officers for vaccinating, are superseded. The existing arrangements in regard to Vaccination Stations, and the Returns to be made by the Dispensary Medical Officers will, therefore, remain in force, and the only new duties imposed upon the Dispensary Medical Officers in regard to Vaccination, will be to give Certificates of successful Vaccination (sec. 3); Certificates of children not being in a fit state for Vaccination, when that is the case (sec. 4); or of their being insusceptible of vaccine disease (sec. 6).

* See Annual Report for 1863, Appendix C. II., No. 1.

The other duties to be performed under the Act are to be performed by the Registrars of Births and Deaths, and the Commissioners do not doubt that, before the Act comes into operation, all necessary instructions will be issued to them by the Registrar-General, who is empowered by the 11th section to cause to be provided all such Books, Forms, and Regulations, as he may deem necessary for carrying into full effect the provisions of the Act.

The only additional points, therefore, to which the Commissioners think it necessary, at present, to direct the attention of the Board of Guardians are the following:—

1. Under Section 1, the Master of the Workhouse is made responsible for taking all the steps in reference to the Vaccination of Children who are inmates of the Workhouse, which are required to be taken in other cases by the father or mother of the child. It is part of the duty of the Medical Officer of the Workhouse, under the Workhouse Rules, Art. 68, No. 6, to vaccinate all children in the Workhouse who may require Vaccination; and it will now be the special duty of the Master in regard to children in the Workhouse, born after the 1st January next, to see that this is done, and that the child is brought to the Medical Officer, for inspection, on the eighth day after the Vaccination, as required by sec. 2, and to obtain the necessary certificate.

2. After the 1st January next, the Dispensary Medical Officers will, according to the 5th section of the Act, be entitled to receive, instead of the present rate of remuneration, One Shilling for every person successfully vaccinated by him within his Dispensary District, provided he shall have made the Report to the Dispensary Committee, regarding such persons which is required by the existing Vaccination Act, 21 and 22 Vic., c. 64.

3. The Guardians are empowered by section 13 to direct proceedings to be instituted for enforcing obedience to the provisions of the Act, and the expenses incurred in such proceedings, if certified and allowed by the Justices, are payable out of the Rates of the Union.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 5.—Vaccination:—Mode of preserving Vaccine Lymph.—Circular to Dispensary Medical Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 28, 1863.

Sir,

Adverting to their Circular Letter of the 10th August last, enclosing a copy of the recent Vaccination Act, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to draw the attention of each Dispensary Medical Officer to certain considerations regarding the supply of vaccine lymph for the purpose of Vaccination.

The success of Vaccination in the individual case, when properly performed in all respects, and under the most favourable conditions, is still dependent on the quality of the lymph used in the operation.

Assuming the lymph to be intrinsically good, an additional security for its taking proper effect has been found in its freshness; and hence the practice of vaccinating from arm to arm is esteemed the best.

The practice, however, of vaccinating from arm to arm cannot always be adopted by the public Vaccinator, nor can he always be sure of obtaining fresh lymph of good quality from external sources; and any mode by which he can secure possession of it selected by himself from his own cases and kept in a good state of preservation cannot but be satisfactory to him as one of the means of ensuring success in his operations.

The small glass Capillary Tubes invented by Dr. Husband of Edinburgh, afford the means, if carefully used, of enabling the public Vaccinator to keep himself supplied at all times with lymph selected by himself and preserved in a fluid state.

These tubes are procurable, empty, at a cost of 1*s.* per 100, and are safely sent at that price by post in small wooden boxes. The cost of obtaining the supply of empty tubes the Commissioners consider to be a proper charge on the poor-rates, when ordered by the Board of Guardians, as part of the ordinary Dispensary requisites under the Medical Charities Act.

A box containing a few specimens of these Capillary Tubes is sent herewith, and if you should desire at any time to avail yourself of a further supply, the proper course will be to make a requisition through the Dispensary Committee to the Board of Guardians to that effect.

The annexed directions as to the proper mode of using the Capillary

Tubes, both in preserving the lymph, and afterwards applying it to the purpose of Vaccination, have been derived from Dr. Husband's own description of the methods which he recommends.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To each Dispensary Medical Officer.

Directions for filling Capillary Tubes with Vaccine Lymph, and afterwards using them for Vaccination.

Assuming that the operator has at hand a supply of Dr. Husband's Capillary Tubes, a healthy child, with a well-formed and mature vaccine vesicle just punctured in several places, the pure lymph exuding—and a lighted candle—he is to proceed as follows:—Let him dip one end of the tube, held slightly inclined to the horizontal plane, into the lymph. This will immediately ascend in the tube. As much lymph as will suffice for one Vaccination at least should be taken, and as much as will occupy half the length of the tube may be taken. Immediately before laying the tube down, he must now, holding it in his right hand, and turning the charged end of it upwards, bring the charge to the middle of the tube by lightly striking the hand on the wrist of the other hand, or on the table. The tube may now be laid down for four or five minutes, not longer, while others are being charged. The sealing of the tube is a very simple process, to be performed as follows:—The extremity of the tube by which the lymph entered is to be applied to the flame of the candle. The glass will immediately melt and close this end of the tube hermetically. In sealing the second end an additional precaution is required. Let the tube be passed quickly into the flame for about half an inch, and quickly withdrawn, and the end of it then held, as in the former case, at the flame till the melting of the glass and sealing are effected. If this precaution be not taken there is risk that the air included between this extremity of the tube and the lymph, being expanded by the heat, will force the soft glass into a bulb which will either burst on the instant, or be so extremely thin that the slightest accidental force will afterwards break it.

The charged tubes may be preserved in slips of paper with slits for securing them, on which the date of taking the lymph, the name of the infant from which it was taken, &c. may be noted.

Directions for using the Charged Tube.

In using the charged tube for Vaccination the sealed ends of the tube are to be gently broken off, one end placed close to a piece of glass and the lymph blown out upon it.

No. 6.—Compulsory Vaccination Act; Publicity to be given to the Requirements of the Act.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,

Sir, December 14, 1863.

Adverting to the Circular Letter of the 10th August last, on the subject of the provisions of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that, as the period at which that Act is to come into operation has now nearly arrived, it appears desirable that the greatest possible publicity should be given at this time to those requirements of the Act which concern the parents of children born after the 1st of January next; and with that view the Commissioners have caused a large placard to be prepared, for posting throughout the several Dispensary Districts; and copies thereof will be forwarded to you for that purpose.

The Commissioners have reason to believe that the services of the Constabulary will be given for the purpose of posting these Notices, in the same manner as they are given for posting Notices relating to the Election of Guardians; but in any case in which those services may not be available from any cause, the Commissioners do not doubt that the Board of Guardians will readily sanction the employment of other persons.

You will be careful, before issuing the placards for posting in any Dispensary District, to fill up the blank left for the name of the Medical Officer of the District in all cases where the Medical Officer has accepted the Office of Registrar of Births and Deaths; and you should also take care that each Registrar, whether he is the Medical Officer of the District or not, is supplied with a sufficient number of printed Notices of the days, hours, and places within the District at which attendance will be given for the purpose of Vaccination, in order that he may give such Notices, as required by the 8th section of the Act, to the parents on the registration of the birth of the child, together with the Notice (Form C) referred to in that section, which last-mentioned Notice the Commissioners believe will be provided by the Registrar-General.

A Form, which may be used by the Registrar for notifying times and places of attendance, is enclosed herewith.

By Order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 7.—Compulsory Vacciantion Act; Notices to be given on Registry of Birth.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
December 24, 1863.

Sir,

Adverting to that part of the Circular of the 14th instant, relative to the provisions of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, in which it was pointed out that the Registrars should be supplied with printed Notices of the days, hours, and places, within their respective Districts, in which attendance would be given for the purpose of Vaccination, in order that they might give such Notices, as required by the 8th section of the Act, to the parents or other persons registering the birth of any child, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to suggest that the form of Notice which accompanied that Circular should be filled up with the requisite particulars regarding each District and printed with such particulars therein, and with a block or counterfoil for entering the fact that such Notice has been given; and that the forms, so printed, should be bound or stitched in books of convenient size, and then handed to the Registrar.

A blank copy of the form of Notice, with the block, as above suggested, is enclosed.

By order,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 8.—Vaccination; Supply of Lymph.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 11, 1864.

Sir,

Adverting to the Circular Letters to Boards of Guardians and Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts, dated the 28th October last, in which the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland recommended the use of Dr. Husband's Capillary Tubes as a means of enabling the Medical Officers to supply themselves with vaccine lymph, from eligible cases within their own practice as public Vaccinators, and of preserving the vaccine lymph in a fluid state, the Commissioners now forward to you, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of correspondence which they have had with the Secretary of the Dublin Cow-Pock Institution, on the subject of an arrangement proposed by the Directors of that institution for obtaining an increased supply of healthy lymph.

In forwarding this correspondence, the Commissioners desire to observe that it supplies a valuable confirmation of the view already expressed by them that the Dispensary Medical Officer has it in his power, especially in rural districts, to obtain lymph of superior quality from his own resources, and such as he can rely upon with confidence as having been selected by himself.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

Correspondence enclosed with foregoing Circular.

Dublin Cow Pock Institution, 45, Upper Sackville-street,
December 30, 1863.

Gentlemen,

I am instructed by the Directors of the above Institution to bring under your notice the following extract from the minutes of their proceedings, at a meeting recently held by them, viz.:—

"The Secretary having stated the object of the Meeting to have been, 'to deliberate upon the best mode of obtaining, for general distribution, an increased supply of vaccine lymph,—

"It was resolved—'That in order to meet the increased demand for lymph, likely to be consequent upon the coming into operation of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, application be made to a certain number of gentlemen holding Medical Poor Law appointments in the suburbs and near vicinity of Dublin, whose names should meet the approbation of the Directors, proposing to them to furnish on terms, to be subsequently arranged, certain quantities of vaccine lymph, guaranteed to be procured from healthy sources.'"

I am further to state that, in accordance with the above resolution, I put myself into communication with such parties as the Directors had selected, and having received from the majority a favourable reply, it now becomes my duty to submit this statement to you, by order of the Directors (who are unwilling to interfere or enter into any arrangement with your officers without your privity or consent), with a request to be informed, as soon as may be convenient, how far such a proceeding may be likely to meet with your sanction or approval.

The Directors wish me to add, that the Vaccinators for the rural districts were selected in the full expectation of thereby obtaining a more healthy lymph, and thus a large quantity of this valuable material would be most profitably and beneficially employed, which otherwise would be completely lost to the public at large.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

Henry L. Dwyer, A.M., M.D., Secretary, Cow Pock Institution.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, January 4, 1864.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have received your letter of the 30th December last, informing them, by desire of the Directors of the Dublin Cow Pock Institution, that application has been made to a certain number of gentlemen holding Medical Poor Law appointments in the suburbs and near vicinity of Dublin, to supply vaccine lymph to the Institution on terms to be arranged subsequently.

The Directors, you state, wish to be informed how far such a proceeding may be likely to meet with the sanction and approval of the Commissioners.

In reply, the Commissioners desire to state that they have recently suggested to the Dispensary and Workhouse Medical Officers in Ireland the propriety of selecting and preserving vaccine lymph for their own use in their respective districts, and have called upon the Boards of Guardians to supply them for this purpose with a sufficient stock of the Glass Tubes invented by Dr. Husband, of Edinburgh, to enable them to collect and preserve lymph from the best sources within their reach.

Having taken this step, the Commissioners would be unable to make themselves parties to the collection and sale of vaccine lymph by Medical Officers of Dispensaries to the Cow Pock Institution, which might afterwards be made the subject of re-sale, by the Institution, to Boards of Guardians for use in the Workhouses and Dispensary Districts.

At the same time the Commissioners have no wish to interfere between the Directors and such Medical Officers as, being enabled to supply themselves with lymph for use as public Vaccinators, are also enabled to furnish a surplus to the Institution, provided that in doing so they do not avail themselves of the means of collecting and preserving lymph which were supplied to them by Boards of Guardians at the expense of the poor-rate.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To Henry L. Dwyer, esq., A.M., M.D.,
Secretary, Dublin Cow Pock Institution,
45, Upper Sackville-street.

No. 9.—Vaccination Register and Reports; Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, February 4th, 1864.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have received several communications from Dispensary Medical Officers, requesting to be informed whether cases of Vaccination of persons born before the 1st January, 1864, are to be registered in the old form of Vaccination Register, or whether all cases of Vaccination—whether the person vaccinated was born before or after that date—are to be entered in the new Register furnished by the Registrar-General, under the provisions of the Compulsory Vaccination Act.

The Commissioners think there is no doubt that the provisions of the Vaccination Act of last Session are limited to the cases of persons born after the 1st January, 1864; and that, therefore, the Register of Vaccination, which is to be kept by the Registrars of Births and Deaths under that Act, cannot properly comprise any cases but those of persons born after the date mentioned. At the same time it is to be observed, that, under the existing regulations, it is the duty of the Dispensary Medical Officer to register all cases of Vaccination performed by him in that capacity in the Register, Form H, prescribed by the Dispensary Regulations of the 16th December, 1853, whether they are cases to be registered in the new form or not; and that it is also his duty to make the Report of all cases vaccinated by him in that capacity which is required by the 3rd sec. of the Act 21 and 22 Vic., c. 64.

This would involve the registering of a large number of cases twice over, and would cause unnecessary trouble to the Medical Officer; and, in order to obviate this, the Commissioners have issued an Order, of which a copy is enclosed, altering the form of Vaccination Register prescribed by the Dispensary Regulations, and also the form of Vaccination Report, by making both those forms correspond as nearly as possible to that issued by the Registrar-General, and dispensing with the registry by the Medical Officer of any cases which he may have registered in his capacity as Registrar of Births and Deaths in the Register Book furnished by the Registrar-General. Of course, where the Medical Officer is not the Registrar of Births and Deaths, it will be necessary for him to register all cases of Vaccination performed by him in the capacity of Dispensary Medical Officer, notwithstanding the fact that they may be also registered by the Registrar of Births and Deaths.

In regard to the Vaccination Report, it will be necessary that it should include all cases of successful Vaccination performed by the Dispensary Medical Officer in that capacity, inasmuch as the 5th sec. of the Act of last session, which alters the rate of remuneration for Vaccination, and provides that the payment shall be one shilling for each person successfully vaccinated instead of one pound for every twenty cases, as heretofore, makes it a condition of payment that the Medical Officer shall have made the Report to the Committee of Management which is required by the Act 21 and 22 Vic., c. 64.

As, however, the form of this Report is precisely the same as the form of Register, there will be no difficulty in compiling it from the two Registers, care being taken that it includes only those cases which have been successfully vaccinated by the Dispensary Medical Officer himself, in his capacity of Dispensary Medical Officer.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

REFORM CLUB

TO THE

RIGHT HON. SIR GEORGE GREY, Bart.,

HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

Board of Supervision for the Relief of the Poor in Scotland, Chambers, George Street, Edinburgh, August 1863.

Sir,

WE have the honour to submit the General Report of our proceedings for the past year. Proceedings of the Board.

Since the date of our last Report, the General Superintendents of Poor have continued to discharge their duties within their respective districts to our entire satisfaction. Mr Briscoe has visited 83 Parishes in the Counties of Ross, Caithness, Sutherland, and Inverness. Mr Falconar has visited 198 Parishes in the Counties of Argyll, Bute, Dumbarton, Perth, Elgin, Nairn, Banff, Forfar, Aberdeen, Kincardine and Renfrew. We have received from them their General Half-yearly Reports upon the administration of the Law within their respective districts, as well as special Parochial Reports from time to time, wherever circumstances appeared to require them, and we have continued to deal with these Reports in the same manner as with those of former years.

Mr Falconar's Report for the Half-year ended 31st March 1863, will be found in the Appendix, p. 1. App. (A.) No. 1.

During the past year, the Visiting Officer of the Board has conducted six special investigations, and he has inspected and reported upon 16 Lodging Houses for Paupers, and all the Poorhouses at present in operation in Scotland. He has also visited and inquired into the administration of the Law in 110 Parishes.

Proceedings of the Board.

With the sanction of the Secretary of State, we instructed Mr Peterkin, as Visiting Officer of Poorhouses, to proceed to England and Ireland for the purpose of making himself acquainted with the details of Poorhouse management in those countries, in the hope that he might thereby be enabled to make useful suggestions for improving the management of Poorhouses in Scotland. Every facility was afforded him by the Poor-law authorities for obtaining the information he desired, but he did not find that it enabled him to make suggestions of any material importance.

We have investigated allegations, involving charges more or less serious, against 23 Inspectors of Poor; and we regret that we have been under the necessity of dismissing two of those Officers, for neglect or failure to perform their duties. Four others, whose conduct was under investigation, were permitted by us to resign their offices; and we have censured or admonished 11 Inspectors, whose errors were not of so grave a character as to call for more serious punishment. We have had the satisfaction of acquitting six Inspectors of the charges which were brought against them.

We have been called upon to investigate one complaint against officials of a Poorhouse. The House Governor and the Matron having persevered, in disregard of our injunctions, and of warnings from the House Committee and the Inspector, in taking or permitting to be taken to a Protestant place of worship on Sunday two girls, inmates of the House, who were children of Roman Catholic parents, and registered as Roman Catholics, the Parochial Board have, at our instance, removed them, and appointed other persons to the offices of House Governor and Matron.

The change in the constitution of the Parochial Board of the Barony Parish of Glasgow, required by the Act of the last Session of Parliament (25 and 26 Vict. c. 157), has been carried into effect without difficulty.

A sum of money having been bequeathed to "the Poor resident in Scotland," by a Scottish gentleman who died in Chilli, where he had resided, the question has arisen, whether the bequest is not void because of its vagueness. In an action of "multiplepoinding," raised to determine this and other questions relating to the bequest, we have been called as defenders, and by the advice of the counsel whom we consulted, have resolved to appear.

The Act, 25 and 26 Vict. c. 113, materially affected the proceedings to be adopted for the removal of Paupers from Scotland to England and to Ireland, and made it necessary to modify the instructions, and to alter the forms which we had formerly issued for the guidance of Inspectors and Parochial Boards. We therefore issued the Circular Letters, Nos. IV. and V., 1862, with annexed forms of petition and complaint.

App. (A.) Nos. 2 & 3.

Finding that in many Parishes no adequate means had been provided for the preservation of the Parochial books, accounts, and records; and that they were consequently, in many cases, but imperfectly preserved, we issued the Circular Letter, No. I. of 1863, requiring Parochial Boards to provide suitable places in which those documents could be kept. Proceedings of the Board. App. (A.) No. 4.

Circumstances which had come to our knowledge, led us to believe that in some cases abuses had arisen from the employment of Members of the Parochial Board as contractors for the supply of provisions and other articles issued to the Poor; and finding that, in some of the Parochial Boards, the legality of entering into such contracts with Members of the same Board, or obtaining from them supplies for the Poor, to be paid for by the Parochial Board out of the Parochial Funds, had been questioned, we took the opinion of counsel, and were advised that all such dealings with Members of the Parochial Board, who acted as such, were illegal. We resolved, thereupon, to issue the Circular Letter, No. II. of 1863. But as it appeared that a too stringent interpretation of the opinion of counsel referred to, threatened to deprive the Parochial Boards of some Parishes of the means of fulfilling their Statutory obligations to the Poor, we passed a Minute explaining "that the mere fact that a man is qualified by possession of property to be a Member of the Parochial Board, but who does not take any part in the proceedings of that Board or its Committees, nor attend any of its Meetings, would not debar him from entering into a contract with the Board; but that any such contract would be legally void if he acted as a Member of the Parochial Board or its Committees, during the currency of the contract." In reply to further inquiries on the same subject, we stated, in our Letter of the 25th June 1863, to the Inspector of Clackmannan, our opinion that "the only admissible exception seems to be where a Parochial Board, by a strict adherence to the rule of law set forth in the opinion of counsel, would be prevented from discharging a Statutory duty towards the Poor, such as the providing the Poor with house accommodation in the Parish." App. (A.) No. 5. App. (A.) No. 5. App. (A.) No. 5.

Thereafter the question was raised, whether all the Members of Parochial Boards in a Poorhouse Combination, were precluded from contracting for the supply of the Poorhouse. We were of opinion that all the Members of those Boards are not precluded, but that such of them as may be Members of the House Committee are precluded. App. (A.) No. 5.

Representations having been made to us to the effect that, in the election of Managers of the Poor in Burghal Parishes, inconvenience had resulted from the Rule which required that the nomination of proposed members should be made at the meeting held for the purpose of election; and that parties had, in consequence, been enabled to carry, by surprise, the election App. (A.) No. 6.

Proceedings of the Board.

of candidates who would not have been elected had it been previously known that they were to be proposed,—we so far modified the Rules, with the approval of the Secretary of State, as to enable the Parochial Board, if it should see fit, to name, by a Minute, a day not less than three nor more than seven days preceding the day fixed by us for the election, at which the Electors should meet for the purpose only of nominating candidates; and declared, that in the event of their so doing, no person, not duly nominated at such meeting, should be eligible. But, as a great majority of the Burghal Parishes had suffered no inconvenience from the cause above referred to, and did not wish to have two meetings, one for nomination and the other for election, we have not thought it expedient to require any Parish to pursue that course.

Assessments.

Since the date of our last Report, four Parishes which had previously raised the Funds for relief of the Poor by Voluntary Contributions, have resolved to raise those Funds by Assessment. The number of Parishes now assessed is 764, and the number that still raise the Funds by Voluntary Contributions is 120. The Parochial Boards of eight Parishes have resolved to change the mode of assessment or of classification formerly adopted. In six Parishes we have sanctioned the proposed change, and in two we have refused to do so. Of the Parishes in which we have sanctioned a change, two have adopted the First Mode instead of Established Usage, two have adopted the First Mode with a classification, instead of Established Usage, and two have adopted an alteration in the classification.

The progress of the change from Voluntary Contributions to Assessment, during the eighteen years that have elapsed since this Board was formed, has been as follows:—

In 565 of the assessed Parishes, the Funds for the Relief of the Poor are raised by an equal rate upon owners and occupants, and in 174 there is a classification of occupants in terms of the 36th section of the Act 8 and 9 Vict. c. 83. In 25 Parishes the Assessment is levied according to Established Usage. Assessments.

We have increased the number of Members to be elected to the Parochial Boards of the following Parishes, namely,—In Forgue from 3 to 4, Keith 6 to 7, Crossmichael, 2 to 3, Dalziel 2 to 6, Cambusnethan 7 to 13. Elected Members.

The number of Parishes that have Poorhouses, either singly or in combination, is 230, having an aggregate population of 1,585,474. In the 48 Poorhouses at present in operation, the existing accommodation was reported in July to be sufficient for 12,369 inmates. When the Poorhouses which are in progress, or the erection of which has been resolved on, are completed, the number of Parishes having Poorhouses, singly or in combination, will be 327, with an aggregate population of 1,886,787. We have, during the past year, approved of the rates for boarding Paupers belonging to 72 Parishes, in those Poorhouses of other Parishes or Combinations to which it appeared to us that they might most advantageously be sent. It is now our practice, however, to limit our approval in all such cases to a period of 12 months, as we deem it desirable that we should have a periodical opportunity of considering whether any change of circumstances has arisen to render a further continuance of our approval inexpedient. The number of Parishes that possess a right, in terms of the 65th section of the Statute, to send Paupers to the Poorhouses belonging to other Parishes, is 188, with an aggregate population of 626,468; but some of these Parishes are embraced in Combinations for proposed Poorhouses, or propose to have Poorhouses of their own. The population of the Parishes to which Poorhouse accommodation is available, amounts to 2,513,255. The Tables showing the number of Poorhouses in operation and in progress, and the Parishes forming the various Poorhouse Combinations in Scotland, are printed in the Appendix. These Tables indicate the number of Inmates of Poorhouses as at 1st January and 1st July, the number who were receiving in-door relief during the half-years ended 31st December 1862, and 30th June 1863; the number of those on the Sick List, as well as those who were Lunatic, and the number of Children who were at school. These Tables also exhibit the average Weekly Cost per head of Inmates during the half-years ended 31st December 1862, and 30th June 1863, for Maintenance, including food, fuel, clothing, light, and all other necessaries; and the average weekly expenditure per head of Inmates for whom there is accommodation in the Poorhouse for the same periods under Poor-houses. App. (B.) No. 10.

the following heads, viz. :—1st, Establishment Charges, including salaries of officials, feu-duties, insurance, repairs, etc. 2d, Estimated Rent of Poorhouse and Land, being so much per cent. on the amount expended. 3d, Medical Relief, including medicine, medical and surgical appliances, and medical attendance.

We have sanctioned the occupation of the Poorhouses of Dysart Combination, of Old Monkland, and of Latheron.

We have approved of the Parish of Old Kilpatrick being joined to the Dumbarton Poorhouse Combination. And we have also approved of the resolution of the Parochial Board of Wick to erect a Poorhouse for that Parish. We have given our concurrence to a Combination of the 13 Parishes in the County of Sutherland, for the erection of a common Poorhouse for the County. We have further concurred in the Combination of 13 Parishes in the County of Elgin, for the purpose of building a common Poorhouse. We have concurred in the Combination of two Parishes in the County of Lanark, with three Parishes in the Counties of Dumbarton and Stirling for a similar purpose. The aggregate population of the 33 Parishes above referred to is 111,676.

We have approved of sites for the Poorhouses of Wick, Mull Combination, Dumbarton Combination, East Lothian Combination, Sutherland Combination, and Elgin Combination. We have also approved of plans for the Poorhouse of Liff and Benvie, and for the Poorhouses of the following Combinations, viz.—Mull, East Lothian, Sutherland, and Dumbarton, and of amended plans for the Islay Combination Poorhouse. We have also approved of alterations of, or additions to, the Poorhouses of Dunfermline, Greenock, Perth, Aberdeen, South Leith, Dundee, Easter Ross Combination, Athole and Breadalbane Combination, Lorn Combination, and Upper Nithsdale Combination.

Having found that there was much diversity in the opinions and in the practice of the different Parochial Boards and House Committees as to permitting the inmates of Poorhouses to attend the respective places of worship of their various denominations, out of the House on Sundays, as well as with regard to the practice of giving periodical liberty days to the inmates, we issued the Circular Letter of the 15th August 1862, in which we stated our opinions upon those questions.

App. (A.) No. 7.

One of the Poorhouse Combinations having proposed to name two Medical men to attend the Poorhouse on alternate days, we intimated that an arrangement by which the inmates might be subjected to two different modes of treatment by different Medical attendants on alternate days was inadmissible.

A case of Small-pox having occurred in a Poorhouse, some difficulty arose as to the manner of disposing of it. We stated our opinion, that "when an inmate of a Poorhouse is found to be suffering from an infectious disease, and there are not the means of so separating the patient from the other inmates as to protect them from the risk of infection, the patient ought to be removed, if that can be done without injury, to some public Hospital, or other suitable place. If, however, the patient should be in such a state as not to be safely removeable, then the best practicable arrangements should be made in the House for the isolation of the patient, even if it should be necessary, with that view, to discharge some of the other inmates." Poor-houses.

The physical condition of the children in the Linlithgow Poorhouse was reported by the Visiting Officer to be unsatisfactory, though he had been unable to discover the cause. We thereupon named Dr Littlejohn, a Commissioner under the 11th Section of the Statute, to inquire and report. He found the sanitary condition of the House, the diet, and accommodation, satisfactory, and the airing yards good; but recommended the introduction of more active and joyous games, and that the children should be taken out for exercise on a wider range two or three times a week.

We again print in the Appendix a tabular statement of the present Poorhouse Buildings Debt, as returned to us by the Parochial authorities, showing the sums borrowed for the erection or enlargement of Poorhouse buildings under the 62d section of the 8 and 9 Vict. cap. 83, or the 19 and 20 Vict. cap. 117, sec. 3, the liquidation of the debt during the past year, and the amount of the debt as at May 1863. App. (B.) No. 11.

At the request of the House Committee, we sanctioned, experimentally, a special dietary for the Thurso Combination Poorhouse. We required the Medical Officer, at the expiration of six months, or sooner if he should see cause, to report, after experience of its operation, as to the adequacy or inadequacy of the scale of diet, and we are glad to say that the experiment has been successful. The Medical Officers reported that the dietary had been found perfectly adequate.

We have completed the arrangements for the distribution of the 15th Parliamentary Grant of L.10,000 in aid of Medical Relief to the Poor in Scotland. The number of Parishes which have resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant is 689. Of these only 17 have failed to establish their claims by producing vouchers for the required amount of expenditure from their own funds, and otherwise satisfying us that the conditions of the Grant had been fulfilled. Last year 667 Parishes established their claims: this year 672. The increase in the number actually participating this year is App. (B.) No. 8.

Poor-houses.

therefore five. The detailed account of the distribution, showing the amount expended on Medical Relief afforded to the Poor in each Parish, for which vouchers have been produced; the sum apportioned to it from the Grant; and the additional sum, proportionate to the excess of its vouched expenditure, beyond the minimum, assigned out of the unappropriated shares to each participating Parish, will be found in the Appendix.

Medical Relief.

The whole sum expended on Medical Relief to the Poor during the year ended 14th May 1863, according to the Annual Returns of the Inspectors, was L.28,626, 12s. 7¾d., which is equal to 2·24 pence per head of the population of Scotland in 1861. The population of the 689 Parishes and Combinations that have resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant is 2,777,572, and of the 195 Parishes that have not so resolved, 284,722. The sum expended by the former, according to the Returns, was L.27,182, 18s. 9d., equal to about 2·34 pence per head of the population; and that by the latter was L.1443, 13s. 10¾d., equal to about 1·21 pence per head of the population of those Parishes.

Vaccination.

By the rules of the Board as to Medical Relief to the Poor in Parishes which participate in the Parliamentary Grant in aid of Medical Relief, it is provided that the Medical Officer of every such Parish, or district of a Parish, "shall at all times be furnished with Vaccine Virus, and vaccinate, without demanding a fee or other remuneration than his salary from the Parish, at stated times and places to be named by the Parochial Board, and approved by the Board of Supervision, all persons who may come or may be brought to him for that purpose."

Accordingly, since 1848, when those Rules were issued, they have been carried out in Participating Parishes; but in many of these the attendance, at the stated times and places, of persons to be vaccinated, has been irregular and precarious. In 1861 we called for returns of the number of persons vaccinated by the Parochial Medical Officers, and in 1862, for similar returns, distinguishing the number of the persons vaccinated at the stated times and places from that of the persons vaccinated at other times and places. From these returns, abstracts of which are printed in the Appendix, it appears that in 1861 the total number of persons vaccinated in the Participating Parishes was equal to only 0·73 per cent. of the population, while the births in those Parishes appear from the Registrar-General's returns to have been about 3·49 per cent. The Vaccinations returned by the Medical Officers were thus in the proportion of 1 to 4·84 Births. In 1862 the Vaccinations were only 0·65 per cent. of the population, and 1 to 5·40 Births. Many persons were no doubt vaccinated, more especially in Town Parishes, by other Practitioners than the Parochial Medical Officer; but, making every allowance for these, it is obvious that the proportion of children who remained unvaccinated must have been very large. These returns will afford imperfect, no doubt, but still interesting means of comparing the state of Vaccination as it has been, with that which may result from the Vaccination Act of the 28th ultimo. Vaccination.

The number of applications complaining of Inadequate Relief that have been before us during the year ended 30th June 1863, has been 563. In the immediately preceding year the number was 558. Complaints of Inadequate Relief. App. (B.) Nos. 2 & 3.

The subjoined Table exhibits the number of such applications in each year since this Board was formed, and the manner in which they have been disposed of:—

The sum expended for the Relief and Management of the Poor during the year ended 14th May 1863 (including L.2,747, 11s. 11¾d. expended on buildings not being authorized Poor-houses, and L.28,433, 9s. 4¾d. expended on authorized Poor-house Buildings), has been L.736,027, 17s. 6s. In the preceding year, the expenditure for the same purposes was L.719,317, 5s. 5d.* There has therefore been an increase in the expenditure of L.16,710, 12s. 1d. Cost of Relief and Management. App. (B.) Nos. 4 & 5

* By a clerical error the total expenditure in the year ended 14th May 1862, which was, as stated above, L.719,317, was stated to be L.765,135, 8s.

Cost of Relief and Management.

The preceding Table presents a comparative statement of the sums expended for the Relief and Management of the Poor for the last ten years, arranged under the different heads of expenditure, together with the rate per head of the population, calculated for seven years on the census of 1851, and for the last three years on the census of 1861. The rate per cent. on the annual value of real property, as returned in 1843, is also stated.

Although it has been thought desirable, for the purpose of comparison with former years, to show in the preceding Table the rate per cent. on the annual value of real property as returned in 1843, it is right to state, that, according to the annual value returned in 1856, the rate per cent. for the last eight years would be as follows:—

Year ended 14th May		1856,	L.5 7 $6\frac{3}{4}$
,,	,,	1857,	5 8 9
,,	,,	1858,	5 9 $6\frac{1}{4}$
,,	,,	1859,	5 12 $4\frac{1}{4}$
,,	,,	1860,	5 13 $4\frac{1}{4}$
,,	,,	1861,	5 16 $10\frac{3}{4}$
,,	,,	1862,	6 3 $0\frac{1}{4}$
,,	,,	1863,	6 5 $9\frac{1}{2}$

The rate per cent. on the annual value of real property, as estimated for 1859, would be L.5, 14s. $2\frac{3}{4}$d., or 6s. 8d. per cent. greater than in 1856, when similar returns were available.

The total sum expended under the heads of Relief to the Poor on the Roll, or Registered, and to the Casual Poor, for the last ten years, was—

There is thus an increase in the average allowance to each Pauper on the Roll, or Registered, and relieved in the course of the year, of 2s. 7d., as compared with last year.

The number of Lunatic Poor relieved in the course of the year was, as stated above, 6266. Of these, 1054 died, or were cured, or ceased to receive relief; thus the number at the 14th May was 5212, being an increase as compared with the number at the same date last year (5204) of 8. Of these, 3619 were in Asylums and Poorhouses, and 1593 were residing with relatives or other parties in private dwellings. Number of Poor.

Of the Casual Poor and Dependents for 1863, as stated above, 12,812, with 12,159 Dependents, are returned as being also enumerated as Registered Poor. The whole number of Unregistered or Casual Poor at the 14th May 1863, was

Number of Poor.

3664, with 3612 Dependents. The number of Adult Casual Poor relieved on the 1st January 1863, was 3306, and their children, together with orphans or deserted children, 3027. The number of the former relieved on 1st July 1863 was 3198, and of their children, and orphans or deserted children, 3078, or stated thus:

The total number of Persons of all classes and ages receiving relief as Casual Poor on 1st January 1863, was 6333; on 14th May 1863, 7276; and on 1st July 1863, 6276; the average of the three periods being 6628.

Church Collections. App. (B.) No. 7.

The whole sum derived from Church Collections in Assessed Parishes during the year ending May 1863, was L.19,025, 17s., of which L.9,652, 17s. 6d. is stated to have been expended on Relief of the Poor. From this sum, however, must be deducted L.140, 9s. 2d., handed over to the Parochial Boards. It would appear, therefore, that the sum of L.9,512, 8s. 4d., derived from Church Collections, was actually applied by the Kirk Sessions to the relief of persons in their respective Parishes who required assistance. But these funds are generally employed to afford aid to persons who have fallen into temporary difficulties, with a view to prevent them from becoming chargeable to the Parish as Paupers; and it is probable that few of the persons so assisted have also been chargeable to the funds raised by assessment.

Applications to Sheriffs. App. (B.) No. 1.

Returns of legal proceedings under the Statute, in the Sheriff Courts, have again been furnished to us by the courtesy of the Sheriffs-Substitute, and an abstract of them is inserted in the Appendix.

The total number of applications to Sheriffs, on the ground that relief had been improperly refused, as returned by the Sheriffs-Substitute, was, during the past year, 724; while, in the returns for the preceding year, the number of such applications was 587. These numbers, however, fall short of the actual number of applications, as in several Sheriff Courts no complete record is kept of them. The number of such applications in which Sheriffs felt called upon to grant interim orders of relief during the past year was 452. In the preceding year it was 430. The number of applicants admitted to the Roll of Paupers by final order of the Sheriffs during the past year was 114; in the preceding year it was 64. The average annual number of such interim orders during the 10 preceding years was 350; and of such final orders, 73.

The number of prosecutions under the 79th and 80th sections of the Statute during the past year has been 102, and of convictions 68. In the previous year the number of such prosecutions was 118, and of convictions 79. The average annual number of such prosecutions during the 10 preceding years was 118, and of convictions 78.

Removal of Nuisances Act.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the 5th Section of the Nuisances Removal (Scotland) Act, 1856, we have, during the past year, examined applications from four Parishes to determine the Local Authority to execute the Act within these Parishes respectively, and in each case we nominated the body which appeared to us to be most suitable.

Upon the application of the Parochial Board of Coupar-Angus, we determined, in terms of the same Section of the Act, that the Burgh of Coupar-Angus shall be held to be situated, for the purposes of the Nuisances Removal Act, within the County of Perth.

We have further afforded, from time to time during the past year, such assistance as it was in our power to give, to Local Authorities who applied to us for advice or information regarding the execution of the Act.

We have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient humble Servants,

APPENDIX (A.)

DOCUMENTS ISSUED AND RECEIVED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISION.

No. 1. Report by George Falconar, Esq., General Superintendent of the Poor, Scotland, for the half year ended 31st March 1863.

20th April 1863.

Sir,—I have the honour to report, that during the half year ending on 31st March 1863, I have visited 119 Parishes,—

In the county	of	Aberdeen,	28
„	„	of Argyle,	4
„	„	of Banff,	22
„	„	of Moray,	18
„	„	of Forfar,	10
„	„	of Kincardine,	6
„	„	of Nairn,	4
„	„	of Perth,	27
		Parishes visited,	119

Special inquiries were conducted in Inverary into a complaint against the Inspector, of an overbearing and harsh manner in his dealings with the poor; and at Aberdeen, and at Eastwood (Pollokshaws), regarding cases of alleged proselytism of children of Roman Catholic parents.

2. The Condition of the Poor.—An unusually mild and open winter has been favourable to the poor. Meal, the staple food of the poor, has been moderate in price. Amidst much privation in the villages around Glasgow, from the 'short time' employment, or entire closing of the cotton mills, the registered pauper continues to receive a stated allowance, paid with regularity. The deserving poor are grateful and orderly: the improvident are clamorous and discontented. In Dundee, and in Forfarshire generally, factory work has been abundant; but being of a coarser kind than that on the west coast, a large influx of Irish labourers has a tendency to lower the habits of the native population.

The houses of the poor have generally been improved during the last six years, Inspectors of the Poor being more watchful in repairs, and in renting buildings of a more substantial class. Much depends upon the habits of the occupant. For a second time in two years, a wet autumn has prevented the drying and storing of peats for fuel, and the poor have in some districts suffered much inconvenience. Though the weekly allowance in Scotland to the poor is small, there is little complaint of inadequate relief made; and where a poorhouse is in operation, we always observe more contentment and self-reliance amongst the out-door poor. In sickness, the highest medical talent in the district is available to the pauper, as the appointment of parochial medical officer is sought for, more as an honorary distinction to a resident practitioner, than as a source of emolument. The poor generally regard with much aversion removal to a poorhouse; they are attached to a life of independence, however rough the accommodation provided for them may be. In country parishes this feeling has been much respected by Parochial Boards; perhaps too much so, as we meet, in very retired situations, aged and infirm women living alone (distant from advice, medical or spiritual), or attended upon by a hired nurse of little qualification.

3. Inspectors of Poor.—The appointment of Inspector of the Poor is sought for by men of good education, and where vacancies have occurred, no difficulty has arisen in finding efficient successors. An inadequate salary does not secure the service of qualified men; but in recent appointments, the responsibility and trouble attendant upon a faithful and honest discharge of important duties have been fairly considered by Parochial Boards.

I have strongly urged that all Inspectors or Collectors should be required to produce sufficient security for intromissions with public funds. That these cautionary bonds should be placed in careful keeping, and occasionally looked over, and that for the sake of good order, and for the safety of securities and ratepayers, an annual audit of accounts by a professional auditor should be insisted upon. It is no unusual course with Parochial Boards to be satisfied with a superficial audit by a merchant or farmer, 'because good security has been given by their official.'

The British Guarantee Association, in becoming security for Inspectors, require an annual audit, and the same protection should be extended to private individuals.

I continue to complain of the irregularities which occur in making payments for poor 'resident in other parishes.' Prepayment of aliment to the Inspector of the parish of residence, as prescribed in the Circular of the Board of Supervision, No. V., 1855, is universally neglected. The Inspectors of large parishes and professional auditors complain that prepayments derange the yearly balance of accounts. Several large town parishes do not issue accounts of advances on account of country parishes, more frequently than once in each year, satisfied with the charge of five per cent. The delay in making payment of accounts within the year, arises, in some cases, from a desire to keep funds in hand to exhibit a prosperous balance sheet. Again, from an assessment not having been sufficient to meet more pressing calls, and wherever any deficiency occurs in the accounts of an Inspector, it is invariably ascertained that a large arrear is outstanding with other parishes. I have dwelt at some length on this branch, as requiring especial attention. Arrears escape the observation of non-professional auditors. A kindly feeling between Inspectors prevents complaint; but when the settlement must be made, an angry feeling arises with the rate-payers as to the paymen of old debts.

I would instance, in corroboration of these remarks, the confusion of accounts lately occurring in the parishes of Kirkmichael (Banff), Nairn, St Vigeans, Marnoch, etc.

The call upon Parochial Boards to provide a safe or chest for the keeping of records and books, and the re-issue of the regulations and circulars of the Board of Supervision, will be attended with much advantage.

4. The Books and Records of Parochial Boards are fairly kept up. In too many cases we have to war against habitual indolence in making the needful entries. Parochial Boards should make occasional inspection.

5. The Assessment for Relief of the Poor has been fairly collected during the past year, though the season was singularly unprofitable to the agricultural tenant. From want of house accommodation in the rural districts, the number of poor does not increase, and the rise in rental of land for cultivation keeps down the poor-rate. Where a village arises, the poor gather in crowded lodgings, and an increased rate results.

Kilfinichen at 4s. 6d. per pound, and Kirkmichael (Banff), at 4s. per pound, are more heavily taxed than other parishes which I have visited in the district.

The Parish of Kilchrennan continues to show a large proportion of poor to population. Population, 615; number of poor, 85.

6. Education.—The education of pauper children is almost universally attended to by Parochial Boards. I have visited many schools in the district, and have observed that the progress and attendance is satisfactory. There is no distinction in discipline, or at out-door recreation, between the pauper child and other scholars. Regular attendance at a public school is a good introduction for a child to ordinary life. The practice of boarding children in the country, and giving education in neighbouring schools, in preference to the poorhouses, has been proved to be advantageous both to health and to general intelligence.

More liberality in clothing children attending out-door schools is desirable.

To the parents is usually conceded the choice of schools for their children. The usual fees (sometimes half fees by arrangement with the teachers), are paid; and, in one instance only (to my knowledge) is it expected that, under an old statute, the parochial teacher shall educate without charge.

7. An unusual number of Inspectors have died lately, viz., Lumphanan, Strickathrow, Tannadice, and Inishail.

Changes of Inspectors have been necessary, arising more from an irregular performance of their duties, than from want of experience and ability, viz., Auldearn and Nairn, Fraserburgh, St Vigeans, and Marnoch.

8. I have to report, in conclusion, that the Poor Law in Scotland is in effective operation for the support and care of the destitute. The Parochial Boards look to their duties and responsibilities with increasing attention. As a body, the Inspectors of Poor are careful and intelligent, administering the details of the Poor Law with discretion.

There is much privation, amongst industrious families, from want of employment in the calling to which from youth they have been trained, which all must regret. Many willing and able to work are now bordering on pauperism, from the stoppage of work in the cotton mills. Much has been done to give relief by private subscription, but the prospect of the factory operative is not cheering.

I have the honour to be,

Your most obedient Servant,
G. FALCONAR,

No. 4.—Circular Letter respecting the safe Custody and Preservation of all Books and other Documents relating to the Business of the Parochial Board.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 16th January 1863.

Sir,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to transmit, for the information of Inspectors of Poor, and of Parochial Boards, the subjoined extract Minute with regard to the safe custody and preservation of all books, writings, letters, vouchers, and other documents relating to the business of the Parochial Board; and I am to request you to lay it before the Parochial Board at their next meeting.—I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

W. S. Walker, Secretary.

To Inspector of Poor ———

Extract Minute of Board of Supervision of 15th January 1863.

The Visiting Officer has brought to the notice of the Board the very imperfect manner in which the Inspectors in many Parishes have acquitted

* This part of the order must be altered if the Sheriff or Magistrates 'shall not be able to 'ascertain, upon the evidence before them, the place of birth, or such continued residence;' in which case, the Statute enacts that the Sheriff or Magistrates 'shall order the Pauper to be 'removed to the Port or Union or Parish in England or Ireland, as the case may be, which shall, 'in the judgment' of the Sheriff or Magistrates, 'under the circumstances of the case, be most 'expedient.'

themselves of the obligations imposed upon them by the 55th section of the Statute 8 and 9 Vict., c. 83, and by Rule 4 of the Board's Rules relating to the duties of Inspectors of the Poor, with regard to the safe custody and preservation of all books, writings, letters, vouchers, and other documents relating to the business of the Parochial Board.

It appears that in a great majority of the Parishes, no proper measures have been taken for the preservation of those Parochial Records, and that in some Parishes they have, in consequence, been lost or destroyed. The Board, therefore, consider it necessary to remind, not only the Inspectors, but also the Parochial Boards, of their obligations in this respect. By the Statute and the Rules, the Inspector is legally responsible for the custody and preservation of the Documents above referred to, and it is clearly the duty, as well as the interest, of every Parochial Board, to provide him with suitable and sufficient means of fulfilling that statutory obligation. It is plainly indispensable that the Inspector should be provided by the Parish with some secure place of deposit in the office in which he transacts his business as Inspector, with a good and sufficient lock, in which the papers, books, and documents in question can be kept together and preserved from injury or loss.

This Minute to be communicated to all Inspectors of the Poor, for the information of their respective Parochial Boards, with instructions to report to this Board what measures have been taken by those Boards thereupon, and with intimation that the General Superintendents, and the Visiting Officer, when visiting Parishes, will be called upon to inquire and report upon the adequacy of the measures taken for the preservation of the Parochial Records referred to.

No. 5.—Circular Letter respecting Contracts between a Parochial Board and any of its Members.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 18*th April* 1863.

Sir,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to transmit, for the information of the Parochial Board, the annexed Copy Queries and Opinion of Counsel (the Lord Advocate, Mr Mure, and the Professor of Scots Law), as to contracts between a Parochial Board and any of its members for the supply of goods.

You will submit this communication to the Parochial Board at its first meeting. I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

(Signed) W. S. Walker, Secretary.

To the Inspector of Poor of ——— Queries.

1. Whether a contract, on the part of a member of a Parochial Board, to supply goods for paupers to such Board, is in itself valid or invalid in law?

2. Whether the Board of Supervision have power to prevent Parochial Boards from entering into such contracts?

Opinion.

1. As Parochial Boards occupy substantially the position of Trustees in administering the funds raised for the support of the Poor, we are of opinion that no valid contract for the supply of goods for paupers can be entered into by them with one of their own members.

2. In the event of a Parochial Board continuing to enter into such contracts with any of its Members, we think it would be competent for the Board of Supervision to present a Petition and Complaint to the Court, under the 87th section of the Poor-Law Statute.

The Opinion of

Signed { J. Moncreiff. / David Mure. / George Ross.

Minute of Board of Supervision, dated 4th June 1863.

The Board are of opinion, that the mere fact that a man is qualified, by possession of property, to be a member of the Parochial Board, but who does not take any part in the proceedings of that Board, or its Committee, nor attend any of its meetings, would not debar him from entering into a contract with the Board; but that any such contract would be legally void if he acted as a member of the Parochial Board or its Committee during the currency of the contract.

Copy Letter, the Secretary of the Board of Supervision, to the Inspector of Poor, Clackmannan.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 25th June 1863.

Sir,—Referring to your letter of the 8th instant, I am directed to inform you, that it appears to the Board that the word 'Contract' in the opinion of Counsel, transmitted in Circular Letter No. II. 1863, must be held to apply not only to contracts entered into from year to year, or for some other definite period, for the supply of goods, but to every dealing, either in the form of purchase or lease, between the Parochial Board and any member of that Board acting as such in the manner pointed out in this Board's Minute of 4th June last, whereby the member so dealing with the Parochial Board makes a profit by the transaction.

The only permissible exemption seems to be where a Parochial Board, by a strict adherence to the rule of law, as set forth in the opinion of Counsel, would be prevented from discharging a statutory duty towards the poor, such as the providing the poor with house accommodation in the Parish.—I am, &c. (Signed) W. S. Walker, Secretary.

Copy Letter, the Secretary of the Board of Supervision, to the Secretary of Jedburgh Combination Poorhouse.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 17th July 1863.

Sir,—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 7th instant, which I have submitted to the Board of Supervision.

I am directed by the Board to state in reply, that the opinion of Counsel, attached to their Circular Letter No. II. 1863, does not appear to them to preclude the Poorhouse Committee from purchasing goods, or entering into contracts with members of the Parochial Boards within the Combination, who are not members of the Poorhouse Committee. But no such transaction can be entered into otherwise than in conformity with Article IX. of the Rules and Regulations for the Management of Poorhouses.

The Board are of opinion, that the Poorhouse Committee cannot legally purchase goods from, or enter into contracts with, any person who is a member of that Committee.—I am, &c.

(Signed) W. S. Walker, Secretary.

No. 6.—Amended Rules for conducting the Election of Managers of the Poor in Burghal Parishes or Combinations.

1. When the number and qualification of the persons to be elected managers of the poor, and the day on which they are to be elected, shall have been made known to the Inspector by the Board of Supervision, it will be his duty forthwith to communicate the same to the Parochial Board.

2. The Parochial Board should then, without loss of time, proceed to fix the hour and the place at which the electors are to meet for the purpose of choosing the managers: they should also name the places, besides the door of the parish church, at which the notices of such meeting shall be affixed, and direct that notice shall also be given by advertisement in one or more newspapers; and if the Board of Supervision has divided the parish into wards or divisions for the purposes of the election, the Parochial Board should also name the hour and the place of meeting for each ward, and should immediately communicate the same to the Inspector.

3. The Parochial Board may, if they deem it advisable, name, at the same time, by a minute, a day, not less than three, nor more than seven, days preceding the day fixed by the Board of Supervision for the election of managers, on which the electors shall meet for the purpose only of the nomination of candidates for the office of manager of the poor, and the hour and place at which such meeting shall be held; and, in the event of their so doing, no person who shall not have been duly nominated at such meeting shall be eligible to the office of manager of the poor for the year then next ensuing; but no Parochial Board is required to name a time or place for a meeting of the electors for the purpose only of nominating candidates as aforesaid.

4. It will thereupon be the duty of the Inspector to give notice of the meeting or meetings in such form and manner as the Parochial Board shall have directed.

5. The Parochial Board should also name a person, who shall discharge the duties required of the Inspector at the election, in case the Inspector should be absent or unable to act; and they should also name persons to discharge these duties in each ward or division, if the Board of Supervision has divided the parish into wards or divisions for the purposes of the election.

6. The Collector and the Assistant Inspector or Assistant Inspectors, if any, may be employed to assist the Inspector at the election, if necessary.

7. The Parochial Board shall instruct the Collector to furnish the Inspector, on the day preceding the day fixed for the election, with a certified roll of the persons assessed for the relief of the poor who are entitled to vote at such meeting, in which the names shall be arranged alphabetically according to the annexed form (A), or in such other manner as shall admit of easy and immediate reference to each name, and in which the number of votes that each person is entitled to give in terms of sect. 24 of the Act 8 and 9 Vict., c. 83, shall be written opposite to his name. And if the parish has been divided into wards for the purposes of the election, then the Collector shall furnish the Inspector with a roll so prepared of the persons entitled to vote, and the number of votes each person is entitled to give in each ward.

8. Any person is qualified to vote who is assessed for relief of the poor, and who shall have paid all sums assessed upon and due by him at the time of the election, and who shall not have been exempted from payment on the ground of his inability to pay.

9. When the electors have met, and constituted their meeting, the first step should be to put in nomination fit and qualified persons to be managers.

10. Any person entitled to vote at the meeting may nominate any qualified person as a candidate for the office of manager. But no one ought to be nominated as a candidate whose willingness to serve in the office has not been ascertained.

11. To constitute a sufficient nomination, it is necessary that the candidate should be proposed by one elector, and seconded by another.

12. If the number of qualified persons nominated shall not exceed the number of managers to be elected, such persons shall be held to be duly elected.

13. The person who proposes a candidate may withdraw that candidate's nomination ; and if so many nominations shall be withdrawn as to reduce the number of qualified candidates to the number of managers to be elected, such qualified candidates whose nominations shall not have been withdrawn, shall be held to be duly elected.

14. If the number of qualified persons nominated, and not withdrawn, shall exceed the number of managers to be elected, the Inspector, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, the person named by the Parochial Board in that event to act for him at the election, shall proceed to take in writing and collect the votes of the persons who, according to the certified roll furnished by the Collector, are entitled to vote at that meeting, and if any person, who according to such roll is not entitled to vote, shall claim a right to vote, in respect of his having paid the rates due by him in the interval, after the roll was delivered to the Inspector, but previous to the hour fixed for the meeting, the vote of such person, if otherwise entitled to vote, shall be received, and his name entered on the said roll as entitled to vote, on his then producing the Collector's receipt for such payment, but not otherwise ; and in whatever manner the votes may be taken in writing or collected in terms of these rules, no vote of any person who was not entitled to vote at such meeting shall be counted in the election for which such meeting was held.

15. When it may be necessary to take in writing and collect the votes as above stated, if the number of persons present and entitled to vote at such meeting shall not exceed one hundred, the Inspector, or the person named by the Parochial Board to act for him, shall then and there take in writing the votes of the persons present and entitled to vote, according to the annexed form (A), and the candidates according to the number of managers to be elected, who shall have a majority of the votes so taken in writing, shall be the managers.

16. Each elector shall be held to have given the whole number of votes to which he is entitled by the Act 8 and 9 Vict., c. 83, for each candidate for whom he votes.

17. The Inspector shall not in any case receive the votes of any one elector for a greater number of candidates than there are managers to be elected.

18. If the number of persons present, and entitled to vote at such meeting, shall exceed one hundred, then, if it shall be necessary to take in writing and collect the votes, the Inspector, within six lawful days after such meeting, shall leave or cause to be left at the known house or other premises of each elector occupying a house or other premises within the parish, who was entitled to vote at such meeting, a voting paper according to the annexed form (B) ; and shall transmit by post or otherwise to the known residence of each elector not occupying a house or premises within the parish, who was entitled to vote at such meeting, a voting paper according to the annexed form (C).

19. The voting paper shall contain in the proper columns the name, designation, and residence of each person nominated at the meeting, whose nomination shall not have been withdrawn.

20. The elector shall write his initials in the proper column, against the name of each candidate for whom he votes, and shall sign the paper with his name, or, if he cannot write, with his mark at the place for his signature.

21. The mark of a voter who cannot write his name, must be attested by a witness, and in that case the initials of the voter must be written opposite to the names of the candidates for whom he votes, by the witness who attests the mark.

22. The Inspector, on the third lawful day after that on which the voting paper has been left at the house or premises of each elector occupying a house or premises within the parish, and entitled to vote at the meeting, shall send a person or persons specially named for that duty to the said houses or premises of all such electors to collect the voting papers in a locked bag, with an opening or slip into which the voting papers are to be dropped, and every such elector shall place, or cause to be placed, the voting paper left at his house or premises, whether signed, initialed, or not, in the bag carried by the person who is sent to receive it. Electors, not occupying premises within the parish, may transmit their voting papers, duly filled up, to the Inspector, by post or otherwise, on or before the third lawful day after the same shall have been posted or otherwise delivered.

23. No such votes so given by voting papers shall be valid, if they are given for a greater number of candidates than there are managers to be elected, or if the voter shall have given in the whole of the wards or divisions into which a parish may be divided, a greater number of votes than he would be entitled to have given if the parish had not been so divided.

24. The Inspector shall declare within three lawful days after the day named for collecting the voting papers, those persons to be elected managers of the poor (according to the number fixed by the Board of Supervision), who shall have a majority of votes.

25. In the event of an equal number of votes being given in favour of candidates, the person paying the largest amount of assessment shall be preferred and held to be elected.

26. The Inspector shall forthwith intimate to the persons who shall have been so chosen, that they have been elected managers of the poor for the parish.

27. The Inspector shall also affix at each place at which the notice of meeting shall have been affixed, a return, in the annexed form (D), of the persons who have been elected managers of the poor, and shall transmit a copy of the same to the Board of Supervision.

28. If the Board of Supervision has divided the parish into wards or divisions for the purposes of the election, then the proceedings for that purpose in each ward at the meeting, and subsequent to the meeting, shall be the same as if the ward were a separate parish.

(Signed) W. S. Walker, Secretary.

Approved by the Right Hon. Sir George Grey, one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, 11th July 1863.

No. 7.—Circular Letter as to Permission to Inmates of Poorhouses to Leave the House for the Purpose of attending Divine Worship, or for any other Purpose.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 15th August 1862.

Sir,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to transmit for the information of the Poorhouse Committee, the subjoined Minute, and I have to request that you will submit it to the Poorhouse Committee at their next meeting.—I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

W. S. Walker, Secretary.

To the Governor of ———

Minute of the Board of Supervision, 14th August 1862.

The Board have considered the Visiting Officer's Reports, and various communications from Parochial Boards' Committees, Inspectors, and others, relating to the questions whether Parochial Boards are required or empowered, or whether they ought to allow the inmates of a Poorhouse to attend Divine Worship in the neighbouring churches or chapels of their respective religious denominations; and whether the local authorities ought to give the inmates leave of absence from the Poorhouse, or what are called 'liberty days,' at stated intervals.

The Statute, 8 and 9 Vict., c. 83, appears to the Board to contemplate that the Religious Instruction of the inmates of a Poorhouse shall be conducted in the Poorhouse; and in the 64th section has made provision for that purpose, but has nowhere provided for any other mode of giving such instruction. The rules and regulations for the management of Poorhouses, framed and sanctioned by this Board, and adopted by local Boards, are founded upon the provisions of the statute, and regulate the manner in which effect is to be given to them. Whatever, therefore, may be the supplemental arrangements proposed or adopted, the Board cannot sanction any departure from the requirements of the statute, or of the rules now in force with reference to religious instruction in a Poorhouse. These must in all cases be fully and systematically observed, and this Board could not approve of a rule which, contemplating a totally different provision for the religious instruction of the inmates, should give them liberty to leave the Poorhouse every Sunday for the real or alleged purpose of attending Divine Worship. Such a rule would give to every inmate a right to be absent from the Poorhouse every Sunday, and would in many cases, if not in all, be subversive of discipline and proper management.

But the Board are of opinion, that it is competent to a House Committee to give, or (which would be preferable) to authorize the House Governor to give, if they or he shall see fit, permission to any inmate to attend Divine Worship on any Sabbath, either in the forenoon or the afternoon, at any church or chapel of the religious denomination of such inmate that may be in the vicinity of the Poorhouse. Provided that such permission shall not be given unless after due consideration of the character and conduct of such inmate, and with careful regard to the proper management and discipline of the Poorhouse; and provided also that such permission shall be withheld from any inmate who shall have abused the indulgence, either by failing to attend Divine Worship, when leave of absence has been given for that purpose, or by failing on such an occasion to return to the Poorhouse at the proper time, or in any other manner.

The Board could not approve of a rule which would secure to all the inmates of a Poorhouse, or to any class or section of them, leave of absence from the Poorhouse, on certain specified days recurring periodically, or what are called 'liberty days.' But they are of opinion, that the House Committee may authorize the House Governor to give, if he shall see fit, to any inmate, who shall state reasonable grounds for the request, permission to be absent from the Poorhouse for a limited number of hours during any day ; subject, however, to conditions and provisions similar to those above stated with reference to leave of absence for the purpose of attending Divine Worship, and provided, moreover, that leave of absence for any other purpose shall not be given to any inmate more than once in 30 days, or such other number of days as the House Committee shall determine, nor during the night, unless in special circumstances, and for reasons ascertained to be urgent.

A House Governor to whom the House Committee shall have given authority to grant leave of absence from the Poorhouse in the manner, and subject to the conditions and provisions above stated, will be held responsible for the proper exercise of that authority, and must avoid either so free an exercise of it, as would be injurious to discipline, or a capricious exercise of it, which would be unjust to the inmates.
